Deepen The Ties That Bind

Dr. Jeff Roberts, Senior Pastor • jroberts@tbcraleigh.com • Twitter: @Jeff_Roberts

In his book Start, Jon Acuff writes, “It does not matter how good of a map you have if you don’t know where to start.” Whether it is GPS that puts us on the map or a big red “You are here” sign, we need to know where to start if we are going to map a course. As we begin a New Year, I think it is important to choose the right starting place. As followers of Jesus, the right starting place is an honest assessment of our spiritual lives. How long has it been since you took the time to be honest with self and God concerning your spiritual life? I want to encourage you to take some time and consider your relationship with God. Spend some time in prayer and honest confession to God. Spend time reading the Bible and letting the Bible speak to you. It is important to remember that our spiritual life is not another area of our life but it is our life. Our relationship with Christ should inform every other realm of living. This is why making an honest assessment of spiritual life is so important not only as we begin a new year but also on a regular basis.

In my sermon this past week I shared three considerations as we begin the New Year, and I want to share them again with you.

- Remember that God’s presence creates possibilities. When things seem impossible, we know that God is present and working.
- Remember that discipline precedes creativity and beauty. When we embrace spiritual discipline, the conditions are set for God to do something beautiful in our lives.
- Remember that we are finished and unfinished. Our salvation is complete through our faith in Christ and what God has done for us through Jesus. Yet, we are in process as God is constantly working through the Holy Spirit to form us into the image of Christ. Paul reminds us in Philippians 1:6 “The One who began a good work in you is faithful to bring it to completion.”

As we begin a New Year, I want to encourage you to make this the year you make your relationship with God the priority in your life. There is no time better than now, and there is nowhere better than where you are to START.

Keynote Speaker: Bob Inskeep. He's an ordained minister, but you probably remember him as F.B.I.-Famous Bob Inskeep. Bob was a popular morning radio announcer at WRAL-FM during the 70's and 80's. He had a laid back conversational style with a keen wit and biting sense of humor. Today, Bob is a Presbyterian minister and a member of the Ringtones. In a list of "Things That Make Me Laugh," Bill Leslie listed "Famous Bob Inskeep - the former radio star who now preaches with the same humor, wisdom and passion he brought to the airwaves."

Special Music: The Ringtones have been together as a barbershop quartet since December 2015. They are all members of the General Assembly Barbershop Chorus and actively entertain audiences at corporate events, seminars, celebrations, senior's centers and more. The Band Aid Project

The goal of the Band Aid project is to help provide cool and fun bandages to kids that need them. Transition LifeCare, a hospice organization, recently began a pediatric hospice unit. A sad reality of this world is that children need these kind of services. Transitions Kids, offers various levels of care designed solely around the unique needs of children (birth-18 years old) facing life-limiting illness.

Transitions Kids has discovered that a band aid is a pretty significant thing. Often times, kids are allowed to hold onto a band aid during uncomfortable procedures, and when they are all done, they get to put the bandage on as a final sign of completion. Once the bandage is on, it means they are through – for the time being. Many Band-Aids all look the same – so our Winter Mission Project for Missions Friends is to collect fun, cool, and interesting Band-Aids to donate to Transitions LifeCare pediatric unit.

Would you like to help put a smile on a child's face? Whether you know a child who is terminally ill or not, we would welcome you to make a donation today and join the mission to bring some smiles to some much deserving children.

Music Notes

Special thanks to our students, Naomi Johnston and Tiffany Bartholomew, for leading us in music on December 31, and to Joy Blashaw for her solo this past week in both morning services. God's faithfulness has been shown to us in so many ways through our gifted musicians who lead us throughout the year. It is amazing to see what God is doing!

As we begin our new year together at Trinity, I give thanks for all of our musicians who are actively preparing to begin choir leadership and participation this coming week. Our Bells of Praise and Student Choir began last week and had a great first rehearsal Sunday night, and we look forward to having our Wednesday Night Program begin this coming Wednesday, January 10. Preschool Choir, Children's Choirs, Orchestra, and the Vocal Ensembles (Living Praise and New Covenant) all begin preparing for our new year of music. Pray for our musicians. They all make a huge contribution to our worship experiences every week by working diligently to prepare music with messages of hope and joy in Christ.

MS & HS SKI TRIP

JANUARY 19-21, 2018

I know it is tough to look past this Christmas season and all the excitement that comes with it. However, I wanted to remind everyone that on January 19-21st we will be having our Youth Ski Retreat! This retreat is open to both High School Students and Middle School Students and the cost is $240 per student*. The Registration Deadline was January 7th so contact Christian ASAP if you want to go!

*Price is cheaper if tubing ($180) or if neither skiing, snowboarding, nor tubing ($150). We do have church members that contribute scholarships to allow students to participate in trips. Therefore, if there is need, please do not hesitate to ask about financial assistance for the ski trip.

Skiing/Snowboarding/Tubing:

- We will spend the majority of the day on Saturday, Jan 20th out on the slopes at Winterplace Ski Resort. Students have the opportunity to ski, snowboard, or tube. If they have never skied or snowboarded before free lessons will be offered.
- If students would like to participate in the trip, but do not want to ski, snowboard, or tube, we will have games and chaperones in the lodge the entire day.

Lodging:

- We will stay in 3 Manor houses that are side by side. The floors of each house will be divided by Grade and Gender. There will be NO Middle School Students sharing rooms with High School students and NO floors with different genders on the same floor.

Leadership:

- In addition to our adult chaperones, we will also have several College Students that will help lead our trip. They will lead our times of worship, small group Bible studies, supervision on the slopes, and some cooking as well!

Transportation:

- We will meet at the church at 3:30pm on Friday, January 19th to head up to West Virginia. If you are unable to meet at that time and would need to ride on the late bus, (will leave later that night) please let us know ASAP! We plan to return to TBC around 4pm on Sunday, January 21st.

While ski trips are packed with fun on the slopes, we also want to ensure that the weekend is a time of spiritual and relational growth for our students; one that they won't want to miss! So, please do not hesitate to ask any questions in preparation. You can contact me via call/text: 910.612.6547 or email: cdavis@tbcraleigh.com
