Deepen The Ties That Bind

Dr. Jeff Roberts, Senior Pastor • jroberts@tbcraleigh.com • Twitter: @Jeff__Roberts

I must admit, 2017 did not begin as I envisioned it. I was so excited for us to begin this transformative year in the life our congregation as we continued our construction on our campus, and also focused on God transforming us along the way. However, with the holidays and our snow storm, we have now had three Sundays in a row that have put us out of place and routine. With this in mind, I am reminded that life rarely goes as planned and part of the lesson we are learning during this year is to be flexible and faithful at the same time.

As we begin this week, let me encourage you to stay in touch with one another. Take some time this week to send a note or make a call and connect with a few families in our church. Maybe you want to send a note to some folks in your Sunday School class or make three calls and check on the families in your 4x4. Ask God to reveal to you someone who might need some encouragement during this time. Let's make sure we stay connected as we get back to our routine.

Second, make sure we stay up to date when it comes to giving. Due to the holidays and inclement weather we have the possibility of beginning the year over $100,000 behind in budget giving. That makes it very difficult for us as we plan and continue our missions and ministries. One of the ways to always be up to date in giving is to participate in our automatic draft program for tithing. Robin and I chose this option when we first began to offer it years ago. This means that no matter what happens our giving to our church remains faithful and regular. When I was away on my Sabbatical, I did not have to worry about being faithful in giving because I knew that my church was receiving my gifts. We have about a hundred families that participate in this method of giving. If you are interested in giving in this manner, contact our Financial Administrator Jan Brown and she can provide the appropriate information. However you choose to give, join me in making sure our giving is up to date and that we do not begin 2017 behind our budget.

Finally, due to the snow we are making some adjustments in our Sunday night schedule for January. January is normally our time of preparation for the year. This includes our Committee Night, Sunday School and Deacon planning, as well as Deacon orientation. For this training and preparation to occur correctly it needs to happen in sequence. We have decided to simply push back our meetings back one week from when they were planned. Below you will find the new schedule. Please contact us if you have any questions.

TBC / Red Cross Blood Drive

Sunday, February 26

1:00-5:00pm • FH

NOTE THE TIME CHANGE DUE TO OUR CONSTRUCTION

Our church has been partnering with the American Red Cross for many years to sponsor three blood drives per year in our fellowship hall. I know that some of our members are faithful donors and give in a variety of places. Would you please mark your calendar to donate HERE? And if you have never donated blood before, this is a life-saving mission effort that takes minimal effort and time, but can mean a lot more to an individual/family than a new roof on their house, or a hygiene kit given in love. You can now go online to the TBC website and make an appointment to give!

SS Transitions

Thanks to all who are making the transition to the Fellowship Hall during this month. We hope to have the B building back in operation in February.

DEACON OF THE WEEK

Jenny is a Doc Solutions Specialist with Headway Workforce Solutions at Genworth Financial. She serves as Family Promise Coordinator and serves on the Medical/Dental Mission Team and Sanctuary Choir. She works with the Joy Sunday School class and works with Deacon Stephanie Treadway.

ANNUAL TBC Marriage Retreat

February 24-26 • Beach Cove Resort, N Myrtle Beach

Give your Marriage a Christmas present by making plans for a Winter Get-A-Way! This year's theme, "The Road Less Traveled", will be focusing on some common roadblocks (like time management, mistrust and lack of quality communication) that all marriages face from time to time. We'll look at how to build a solid foundation that will enable couples to get through these times with the help of marriage enrichment practices. The aim is to provide preparation, purpose and planning within your marriage – a road that only successful marriages go down. Our leader couple will be Reginald and Julia McClain of Clayton. They have been married for 20 years and are a Better Marriages Trained Leader Couple.

Cost of the retreat including your private Oceanfront Condo with living room and kitchenette, and program fee is $245 per couple. A $100 deposit included in the total is due by January 11. Make your check out to "TBC" and note for "Marriage Retreat". Don't wait – rooms are going fast! Encourage your SS Class members to join you! We'll have a fun time from Friday evening at 7:00pm to Sunday worship, concluding at noon. Sign-up by contacting Hal Melton at hmelton@tbcraleigh.com or 919-612-4400.

KY Pineknott Center Hills & Hollers Ministries

Clothing Needed

We continue to collect clothing for our friends in McCreary County, KY. Joe Ward and a partner drive a truck up there every 4-6 weeks to supply this clothing Co-Op that serves over 1,500 families in this poorest county in the USA.

Right now their main needs are: jeans, coats and mittens / gloves (kids, adults – all sizes). They also need lots of children's clothing of all kinds... especially younger sizes.

Please bring as much as you can. At that time, TBC's building B will be closed for a month as part of the construction. That is where our large collection bin is located and we can't find another place for it. We will still continue to collect somehow, but it will help the crew that sort the clothing to get as much as they can before that building closes.

January 21 • February 11 • March 18

Join with other Trinity members and help build a home for a Raleigh family in need. The home will be built in the same neighborhood as last years' off of New Hope Road. Details coming later – just save these dates! Trinity must supply 25+ workers each of these Saturdays, PLUS provide lunch for 35. Work schedule is 8:00am-3:00pm.

Thanks!

How to Make Prayer Real for Our Children

I wrote last week that my prayer and hope for 2017 would be that it is a year we all pray more. Did you know your preschooler can pray as well? We can teach our young children to pray and make it real for them. One important part of prayer for children is that they understand prayer is simply being with God and having a conversation. Children need to know early in their lives that they can talk to God just like they talk to Mommy, Daddy, or a best friend.

It is also important that we model prayer for our children. We know that children are concrete thinkers so just as a child learns to count by counting blocks we can use objects and pictures to remind our toddlers who and what to pray about. Find items at yard sales, craft stores or even in the toy box. Model for your child how:

To praise God for who He is:

Show your child a Bible. Pray a prayer of thanksgiving for having access to God's Word.

To say thank you:

Look through a photo album of pictures of friends and family. Thank God for those people

- Blessing Basket: Fill a small basket with little slips of paper. Encourage family members to write or draw pictures of things for which they are thankful.
- Best Part of the Day: Ask each child to say a sentence prayer, thanking God for the best part of her day.
- Family Journal: Keep a notebook full of things for which the family is thankful.

Teach them to say sorry and ask for forgiveness

- Did they hurt someone's feelings that day?

Pray for others:

- Look at a toy car and pray for safety in travel
- Use a world map and pray for people around the world

These are just a few examples but I hope it helps you to make prayer real for your child.

Blessings on the journey my friends!
Katie
