Deepen The Ties That Bind

Dr. Jeff Roberts, Senior Pastor • jroberts@tbcraleigh.com • Twitter: @Jeff__Roberts

Dr. Tony Campolo once asked 50 people who were 95 years or older what they would do different if they could live their lives over again. They listed three regrets.

First they said they would spend more time in reflection. These elderly men and women wished they had spent more time thinking about their day and their actions and what it meant to their lives and in the grander scheme of God's activity. It is true we many times end our days after a full routine and never stop to reflect on how and where God is at work.

Second, they said they would take more risks. As those experienced in living looked back on lives their regrets were not what they attempted and failed but what they did not attempt in the first place. There are so many things in life that hold us back from taking risks. We tend to cling to that which is familiar and comfortable and resist new people and experiences. There is an old saying "you cannot follow Jesus and stand still." What step of faith is God calling you to this week?

Third, those who were polled said they would do more things that would last after they were dead. These elderly adults wanted to leave a legacy. They wished they had invested their time in people more than things. Jesus said "do not store up treasure on earth where things rot, rust and moths destroy but store up treasure in heaven where it is lasting. We need to be reminded that what we do for the Kingdom of God is what is eternally lasting.

This Sunday we turn our attention to the third question of our "Wilderness Questions." This question comes from Exodus 14 and it is a question of regret. Faced with the threat of Pharaoh's army on one side and the Red Sea on the other the Hebrews turn to Moses and say "What have you done to us by brining us out of Egypt? Didn't we say leave us alone; let us serve the Egyptians? It would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than die in the desert!"

These are words of regret. How do we live with regret and how do we avoid regret? That is our focus this week as we gather for worship. Our third question from the Wilderness is "What are we doing here?"

I hope you will join us as we gather for worship. I will be looking for you and anticipating what God is going to do when we gather together.

NORTH RALEIGH MINISTRIES Food Drive Volunteers Needed

Sunday, February 19

Each of the 6 times a year that we celebrate the Lord's Supper in worship, we take up a Love Offering and do a Food Drive to benefit North Raleigh Ministries – a Collaborative Benevolence ministry of a dozen churches in N. Raleigh that helps our neighbors in need. NRM lets us know exactly what food items they need to help with 160 Back Pack Buddies or to stock the Food Pantry. We will publicize the items the week before.

The church provides large containers around our campus into which donors will place the food. We need a Sunday School Class or simply a group of folks that have a heart for this ministry to form a team that will take the donated food to NRM during the 10:55am worship service. If you would like to volunteer to be on this team that will serve these six Sundays a year, please contact Hal Melton at hmelton@tbcraleigh.com or call the church office at 919-787-3740. Middle Schoolers through Adults are welcome!

KY Pineknott Center Hills & Hollers Ministries Clothing Needed

Music Ministry

Rev. Steve Byers, slbyers@tbcraleigh.com

Music Notes

Special thanks to our Bells of Praise under the direction of Sylvia Pearce for leading us in worship this past Sunday morning.

This group works very hard and the results are in their ongoing skill development and beautiful playing. I'm so proud of Sylvia and the Bell Choir for their ministry to us and outside the church. Their effort has greatly enhanced our worship services and music ministry.

New Covenant members! We have started back on Wednesday nights at 6:45 pm! Come back and enjoy the fellowship and worship music preparation. We rehearse in the Choir Room.

During the current refurbishment of the B Building, the PrimeTimers Choir will move to the Multipurpose Room on Tuesdays, and the Sanctuary Choir will continue rehearsing in the Multipurpose Room on Wednesday. The Student Choir will continue rehearsing in the Multipurpose Room on Sundays. Once the building is completed in late January or early February, please check with your directors or the newsletter for rehearsal room assignments. A special thanks to all of our musicians for being flexible and helpful while we are making many short-term relocations over the next few months.

There will be more changes once the D Building is under abatement. Those room changes will be published in the newsletter as well as announced in each group as we get close to February.

Student Choir will resume this coming week, January 29, at 6:00 pm in the MultiPurpose Room. See you next week!

Words from Katie

I was always encouraged as a child when I knew my parents were praying for me. My parents would have scriptures written on index cards posted to their bathroom mirror. I would notice the scriptures when I went into their bathroom. One would be labeled for me and the other for my brother. Every so often the scriptures would change. I did not appreciate this as a child, but looking back I am humbled and grateful that my parents took the time to pray scripture over my brother Matt and I.

I found the following helpful as prompts for ways we can pray for our children:

Self Control- 1 Peter 5:6

Courage: Joshua 1:9

Help from the Holy Spirit: John 7:36-39

Opportunities to do good: Galatians 6:10

Overcome Evil: Romans 12:21

Love God and others: Matthew 22:37-39

Other resources I love to use for praying for our children are:

A Parent's Book of Prayers by Tony Wood

Grace and Peace to you all on the journey,
Katie
