Deepen The Ties That Bind

Dr. Jeff Roberts, Senior Pastor • jroberts@tbcraleigh.com • Twitter: @Jeff__Roberts

This past Sunday our children did a great job in leading us in worship. They also helped us usher in the observance of the Season of Lent. Lent is a time to reflect on Christ, confess our sins, and consider the great love of God that is displayed in the giving of Jesus as our Lord and Savior. We are making our way toward the cross and the celebration of Easter. As we make this journey we are turning our attention in worship to questions Jesus asked. I hope you will join us as we make this journey and focus our attention on the words of our Lord Jesus.

Join us for this special Sermon Series during the Lenten Season:

All Adult 5 & 6 departments and classes will be meeting jointly in the Fellowship Hall for their lesson presentation. Creative coordination will need to be encouraged per class to keep up with outreach and ministry within individual classes. Plans are now for attendance sheets to be on display on long tables near the wall. We ask class secretaries or a class designee to manage their class roles at the table. Sue Fry will be in her regular Sunday School office and your class box will be there.

We are asking each class to remove all personal items from your classroom on March 12. This will assure that those items are not destroyed or damaged in the construction.

Music Notes

Special thanks to all of our preschool and children's choirs for leading us in this year's Children's Day. Watching all of our children lead in speaking, singing, and playing prelude music was a beautiful way to see how God is developing these talented children and their talents for His service. Let us continue to pray for them and their faith development. We are grateful for the leaders of our choirs and for their commitment to musically lead our children weekly and throughout the year.

Come to the Cross and Remember, our Easter cantata for 2017, will be presented on April 9 in the ROC during both worship services. Children's Day Amazing and wonderful worship provided by our children this past Sunday. I am always encouraged and overwhelmed by the poise our children possess. I love being their minister and watching them grow.

I am equally impressed by you, the church. Thank you for welcoming our children into the corporate side of worship. Thank you for embracing their questions, their twitches, their wiggles and their quiet nature. Thank you for making room for them to grow and be nurtured into the "Faith of their Fathers and Mothers." We want our children to lead. We want our children to know Christ as Savior. And we want children to know the body of believers they are joining when they make their decision public.

Thank you for an awesome Children's Day experience. I am personally grateful to the best Lead Team. Thank you Sue Adams, Paige Bagwell, Mable Christian, and Emily Nelson. Many parts were done behind the scenes to make this day a day of worship and encouragement for our children. Thank you for allowing our children to share the stories of Jesus.

Words from Katie

Last Wednesday night our church participated in an Ash Wednesday service. Part of that service included one of the ministers placing ashes on our foreheads saying, "from ashes you came and to ashes you shall return." When I returned to the preschool hall many of the preschoolers were asking, "Miss Katie what is on your forehead?" Lent can be difficult to explain to our children because often we misunderstand it ourselves. Lent is a season of contrasts. We prepare during Lent to celebrate the memorial of Christ's passion, death, and resurrection. Lent is a season that is about a journey from life to death, both spiritually and in the physical world. With that said, it's a difficult concept to talk with our children about. There are some ways that we talk to our children about the season including:

Season's Length

Lent is an important holy season that leads up to the most important day of the church year --- Easter. The period begins on Ash Wednesday and then there are 40 days (minus Sundays) until Easter.

Giving Up

Typically, people of the Christian faith give something up for the time period of Lent. This is meant as a way to re-prioritize and focus on God again. It is recommended to give up something loved and used in daily life ---Think of ways your family could do this practice together during this season.

Fasting

Another important aspect of Lent is fasting. Catholics practice fasting on Fridays during the Lenten season, and in addition, do not eat meat on Fridays. Fridays are meant to be a day of reflection and prayer, and allow people to cleanse their bodies in preparation for Easter. What are some things that perhaps your family could 'fast' from this Lenten season?

Holy Week

The most important week during the entire season of Lent is Holy Week, as it celebrates Jesus' last week on Earth. Holy Week begins one week before Easter on Palm Sunday. Then, on Maundy Thursday, Christians celebrate the anniversary of the Last Supper, where the first Holy Communion was performed. Good Friday is the day Jesus was crucified and died. It is on Easter Sunday that the Lenten season ends, as it was discovered that Jesus rose from the dead.

I hope this is helpful as we all work together to teach our children about our faith. There are Lenten devotions for families located on the preschool hall. Take one and journey together this season!
