Deepen The Ties That Bind

Dr. Jeff Roberts, Senior Pastor • jroberts@tbcraleigh.com • Twitter: @Jeff__Roberts

In his book “Too Busy Not To Pray,” Bill Hybels writes, “Prayer has not always been my strong suit. For many years, even as senior pastor of a large church, I knew more about prayer than I ever practiced in my own life. I have a racehorse temperament, and the tugs of self-sufficiency and self-reliance are very real to me. I didn’t want to get off the fast track long enough to find out what prayer is all about.”

When I read Bill Hybels words they ring true to me as well. I suspect that there are many in our congregation that also could express Rev. Hybels’ sentiment concerning prayer. Over the past 17 years, what I have noticed about our congregation is we are “doers.” We respond to tasks and we enjoy the hands-on moments of ministry. Whether it is a mission trip, serving the homeless, working at North Raleigh Ministries or building a wheelchair ramp, we are workers and doers. I am afraid that for many of us, prayer is not viewed as action but a lack of action. However, I am discovering what I have known for many years: prayer is a powerful action and without it, all of our action can lead to nothing.

Cris Ally reminded us this past Sunday night in our session on “Being the Presence of Christ,” that salvation is a miracle. Sharing the gospel with our changing community will not simply be our task but it is God’s work. In fact, without the movement of the Spirit of God, the lives of those who are coming to our community will not be transformed. This is why prayer is such an important part of being the presence of Christ in our community.

This coming Sunday evening I invite you to be active in prayer for our community. On Sunday evenings we have designed an experience of coming and of going around the theme of being the presence of Christ. This coming Sunday night is a going night. You are invited to come and be a part of an active prayer time. We will be going on a prayer walk in our neighborhood and community. We will give you instructions on where to go and what to do as you take a leisurely walk around our congregation. If for some reason you are unable to walk, we will give you an opportunity to stay here at the church and pray to go to certain areas of our community and pray.

Why is this prayer time important? It is important because without the power of God, our congregation has nothing of importance to offer to our community. It is important because it allows us to humble our self and confess that we are part of God’s work and not that God is “part” of our work. It is important because we believe that prayer is effective and can change our lives and the lives of others.

For all of these reasons I am encouraging you to join us this Sunday night at 6:00 p.m. in the Chapel and be a part of this experience. This is something you can do with friends and/or your family. We encourage families to come and bring their children and use this time as a family ministry opportunity. I am looking forward to this time together.

WOMEN SUPPORTING WOMEN Navigate Separation and Divorce

Monday, September 25
7:00-8:00pm • Panera, North Hills

Bad things happen to Christians too. We can't always control it, but we can support each other through faith and encouragement. We invite you to join us for a monthly dinner to meet up and just talk or listen. Being with others who have similar experiences can help. Sometimes, we often don't know where to turn, but there are resources.

Our first dinner will be on September 25th. We understand that this can be a very private, sensitive matter and are willing to meet you emotionally where you are. Sharing is up to you. Caring and praying for you is up to us.

We hope you'll join us.

TBC / Red Cross Blood Drive

Sunday, October 29
10:00am-3:00pm • FH

Since our last blood drive at TBC we have had two major disasters in Hurricanes Harvey and Irma. The Red Cross is a vital partner with Southern Baptist's Disaster Relief in both of these situations. They do so much more than provide blood to patients who need it. But in the midst of these situations, the need for blood is even greater for two reasons: 1) injuries from the storms, 2) scheduled blood drives in the disaster areas cancelled.

So Trinity, let's roll up our sleeves and have the most productive blood drive we've ever had at TBC! Go to Trinity's website: www.tbcraleigh.com. Scroll to the "News" section and click on the link for the Blood Drive. Use Sponsor Code "Trinity Baptist" to find our drive. Then register for a time to donate on that Sunday in the Fellowship Hall. If we fill up the slots this early, we can get more nurses lined up and have a larger drive!

Music Ministry

Rev. Steve Byers, slbyers@tbcraleigh.com

Music Notes

Special thanks to the Trinity Orchestra for their worship accompaniment this past Sunday morning, and to Barbara Bowen for her great accompanying of the Orchestra's piece, "Joyful, Joyful." This group has really grown over the last few years and we are fortunate to have the talent we have in our church's music ministry. There is always room for more!

The Sanctuary Choir enjoyed a retreat of Christmas music and fellowship this past weekend. The choir is preparing the Christmas cantata, "The Silence and the Sound," by Heather Sorenson. You have probably noticed lately that we are picking up some new and past members of our choir. This is very exciting! If you are interested in joining us, it isn't too late to come and experience the fellowship and ministry of the Sanctuary Choir. Come grow with us and serve in a beautiful and meaningful part of the church body.

Haven't enrolled your child in our music and missions programming on Wednesday nights? It's not too late!

Parents, you can obtain the enrollment forms online at www.tbcraleigh.com and fill a form out for EACH CHILD. It is really important that we have a cell phone number as well as an email address where we can stay in touch with you about upcoming dates and worship leadership times.

STUDENT CHOIR is going strong! Each Sunday night, we are preparing our music for worship and ministry. We encourage our students, grades 6 – 12, to come and join the fun on Sunday nights as we fellowship and learn. Parents and students, we sing this coming Sunday, September 24, in the 10:55 am service!
