Deepen The Ties That Bind

Dr. Jeff Roberts, Senior Pastor • jroberts@tbcraleigh.com • Twitter: @Jeff__Roberts

You should have received a copy of our proposed budget for 2018 in the mail in recent weeks. I hope you had an opportunity to study and consider it. This budget proposal is the result of several months of work by various committees in our congregation. The Finance Committee receives requests from ministry programs and ministry committees during the summer months, and then the Committee meets with anyone who would like to discuss the request they have made. The Finance Committee then spends time in discerning our giving trends and our ministry goals as we look to the coming year. Then a proposed budget is produced for the coming year, which is then shared with the Trustees, who are given the opportunity to ask questions and make any suggestions before giving their support to the proposed budget. Then the budget is sent to all resident members for their consideration.

The final steps of adopting our budget for 2018 begins this coming Sunday night, October 15th, as the Finance Committee will review the proposed budget and answer any questions during the October Church Conference. During this time any amendments may be proposed. If there are no amendments proposed, then the church will vote in Special Church Conference on Sunday morning, October 22nd, at the end of both worship services to adopt the 2018 budget. If any amendments are offered during Church Conference, we will meet again on the evening of October 22nd to discuss these amendments, and then we will vote on the budget the following Sunday, October 29th, at the end of worship.

I hope that you will join us this coming Sunday evening at 7:00 p.m. in the Chapel for our October Church Conference and to discuss the budget as proposed by our Finance Committee.

Our annual Fall Fest is planned for Friday night, October 27th. This is a big night for us to welcome hundreds of people to our campus for fun and fellowship. We need you in order to make this a special night. We need volunteers to supervise Preschool and Children activities, provide Trunk and Treat, bake cakes and pies for the cakewalk, as well as help with other activities in the Fellowship Hall.

There are baskets in Sunday School classes and in the ROC Lobby for Toddler Snacks. Contact the Church Office to volunteer.

Finally, this past week was a difficult week for all of us as we witnessed the horrible act of violence in Las Vegas. When these events occur, we have many questions in regards to God's presence and activity. The question of evil in our world is the oldest question of humankind. This is why the book of Job is the oldest recorded document in the Bible. In Job, the age-old question is asked, "Why do bad things happen to good people?" If you would like to read a blog post I wrote following the shooting last week, you can go to tbcraleighpastor.blogspot.com. The title of the blog is "What Was I Thinking?" and this article is entitled "Leaving Las Vegas."

Operation Christmas Child Volunteers Needed for the Central Drop-Off Location

OCC Collection Week for Shoeboxes all over the world will be November 13-20 (Monday-Monday). This will be Trinity's 11th Year as the Raleigh Area Collection Center. Last year we filled 6 tractor-trailer trucks with shoeboxes (38,146) going to children in war-torn and poverty-stricken countries—each with a Gospel pamphlet written in their language. We hope to do even more this year...especially with the islands of the Caribbean in shambles after the hurricanes.

Volunteer shifts will be 2 hours each (except for 2 shifts of 3 hours). We need 2 HEAVY LIFTERS on each shift to load cartons 5 high onto the truck. Also, we need 8 volunteers on each shift to do the other jobs.

If you are willing to be a "Shift Leader" or "Heavy Lifter" please contact Ray Broughton (raysheila@aol.com or 919-610-2953) directly.

Everyone else, please go to the Trinity website (www.tbcraleigh.com) and scroll down to "OCC Central Drop-Off Location Volunteer". Click on that link and it will take you directly to the sign-up page. Choose your shift and give your name, email and best phone. If you are signing up a group, you must sign up each individual separately. If you are not on the internet, sign up on the ROC Sign-Up Sheets.

Volunteer Training will be on Sunday afternoon, November 5 at 5:00pm in the Fellowship Hall. Thanks!

NEW MISSIONS PARTNERSHIP

Door of Hope Village Johannesburg, South Africa

Many have heard of the "Door of Hope" that for years has taken in abandoned babies and raised them for adoption. The adoption rate has lagged behind the number of babies being taken in. We will be joining NC Baptists on Mission to build several "cottages" where 6 older children can live with a set of house parents.

Boyd Dimmock has volunteered to serve as TBC Coordinator for these missions. The first will be February 1-12, 2018. If you are interested, please go to <http://baptistsonmission.org/Missions/Outside-US/South-Africa> and get all the details. Then contact Boyd at bkdimmock@gmail.com.

Music Notes

Special thanks to Jessica Isaacs for leading New Covenant and worship last Sunday morning while I was away, and to the Music Makers Choir under Alma Hoffmann's direction for bringing the call to worship for the 10:55 am service. I thank God that so many of our musicians are capable and willing to lead our church in worship when I am on vacation. That is a huge blessing to me and my family; I hope it is for you as well.

Don't forget that our ensembles are still available for enrollment! Living Praise and New Covenant meet on Wednesday nights and you are welcome to come try them out. For more information, call the church office.

1st Grade Bible Presentation

Sunday, November 5
11:00am Worship Service

Please make every effort to have your 1st grader attend worship to get their new Bible. This is an awesome opportunity for our children to see and experience the value we place on them and the Word of God. They are growing in their knowledge of God and learning more stories each week. Let us show support as we provide a Bible for them to read, memorize, and learn to use.

RA & GA October Mission Project

RA and GA classes will be collecting umbrellas during the month of October.

Marc and Kim Wyatt are missionaries right here in Raleigh. They work with the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship. The Wyatts work with refugees, immigrants, international students and other people, made in the image of God, that are all too often overlooked. They help furnish and maintain several "Welcome Houses" as safe refuge for families when they first arrive in America.

RA and GA classes will be collecting umbrellas during October to present to Marc and Kim when they come to share with us. Many refugees cannot drive and must walk everywhere they go. Umbrellas help during bad weather.

Please talk with your RAs & GAs about this project and please help us by bringing in umbrellas by October 25th!

Solo Mission Projects

GA and RA boys and girls may begin this Fall to work on Mission Projects. All grade school children are encouraged to do an individual mission project and both can choose to race in the RA car race in March. Plan now and begin serving in a special way.

Worshiping As a Family

Teaching children the importance of corporate worship can be rewarding and challenging. These years are filled with a lot of hard, repetitive, and often thankless work that pays dividends down the road as your children learn to love God and neighbor. Here are some ways as suggested by Greg Mathis to help prepare your kids for corporate Sunday morning worship:

Start Young.

There is nothing wrong with having a season where you worship without your children, but around kindergarten we began having all four of our kids with us in corporate worship service.

Move from table to pew.

Gather around the dinner table before Sunday Morning and talk to your kids about what corporate worship is, why it's important, and what to expect. We've even used some songs from church during bedtime.

Talk during the service .

Kids have questions, so answer them. Show them where to turn in their Bibles. Help them understand the main ideas of the sermon. Explain funny words or hard phrases. Help them follow along in the hymnal as we sing.

Debrief.

After service each week, ask your kids questions. What do you remember? Who was the main character? Is there a verse you liked?

Hopefully these tips will help you navigate these early years in Worship and allow you and your kids to look forward to worshipping together at church next week. Hang in there! We're all in this together. Let me know if you have questions! – Katie
