Deepen The Ties That Bind

Dr. Jeff Roberts, Senior Pastor • jroberts@tbcraleigh.com • Twitter: @Jeff__Roberts

I wanted to share with you that Roger Crowder, our Maintenance Coordinator, has informed the Personnel Committee of his intentions to retire in the first quarter of 2018. Roger is a devoted church member and employee and has informed the committee so a search can begin to hire a new person. We anticipate a month-long transition as we open our new facility. We are grateful for Roger's service and his consideration to our congregation at this time. The good news is that Roger and Marlene plan to continue to be Trinity members and a part of our church's ministry. Over the next few months I hope you take the time to thank Roger for all his hard work in overseeing our campus and for his incredible devotion during our construction process. He has gone over and above the requirements for his position, and I know he has done so out of love for our congregation. Thank you, Roger.

The Personnel Committee will begin receiving resumes for the position immediately. The resumes should be submitted by November 15 to Rev. Spencer Good. Please send to sgood@tbcraleigh.com. If you are interested in the position or have someone to recommend, you can find out more about the position, including a job description on the Trinity website. The job will be a full-time position with benefits and both members and non-members are eligible to apply. Go to tbcraleigh.com and you will find the job opening and description at the bottom of the page.

Two reminders as we approach the first Sunday in November. First, remember to bring your ballots for Trustee, Deacon and Pastor Advisory Council. The boxes for the ballots are located in the ROC lobby. The election of this leadership each year is an important part of participating in the life of our congregation. Every church family should have received ballots in the mail. There are extra ballots in the ROC for your use if you have forgotten yours or if you did not receive enough for your family. Also, don't forget to set your clocks back one hour this Sunday morning and join us for worship at either 8:45 a.m. or 10:55 a.m.

Christmas Poinsettias

The final day to turn in plant orders to the office will be Friday, November 3rd.

Dedication Sunday: November 12

Goal: 100% Participation

Pack at least one or two for children in poverty situations around the world. Dedication Sunday, bring your shoeboxes to worship and stack them next to the ROC worship center glass wall.

Each child who receives a shoebox will also get a booklet in their own language that tells the story of Jesus. They will also receive an invitation to attend a 12-session Bible study led by a local pastor. Be part of this local mission that transforms into a global mission!

Central Drop-Off Location Volunteers Needed

November 13 - 20

OCC Shoebox Collection Week is November 13-20 with a worldwide goal of over 14 million children receiving a shoebox and the Gospel booklet that accompanies each box. Our church is the regional starting point for 42,850 of those shoeboxes! We need over 150 volunteers to serve shifts during each of these days. This includes at least 2 "heavy lifters" that can be in the back of the trailers stacking cartons of shoeboxes 5 high.

To volunteer, please go to the TBC website (www.tbcraleigh.com) and scroll down to "news". Click on the link to OCC CDOL Volunteer. Choose your shift(s) and fill in the needed contact info.

If you are not on the internet, you can sign up on the sheets on the ROC Bulletin Board.

Volunteer Training will be 5:00-6:00pm on Sunday, November 5 in the Fellowship Hall. Please join the Lead Team in Praying for a God-Blessed Collection Week!

NEW MISSIONS PARTNERSHIP Door of Hope Village Johannesburg, South Africa

Many have heard of the "Door of Hope" that for years has taken in abandoned babies and raised them for adoption. The adoption rate has lagged behind the number of babies being taken in. We will be joining NC Baptists on Mission to build several "cottages" where 6 older children can live with a set of house parents.

Boyd Dimmock has volunteered to serve as TBC Coordinator for these missions. The first will be February 1-12, 2018. If you are interested, please go to <http://baptistsonmission.org/Missions/Outside-US/South-Africa> and get all the details. Then contact Boyd at bkdimmock@gmail.com. Deadline October 30.

Music Ministry

Rev. Steve Byers, slbyers@tbcraleigh.com

Special thanks to Living Praise, Joy Blashaw, and Maury Tepper for providing the musical leadership this past Sunday morning, and to Ramona Green and Barbara Bowen for covering the worship accompaniment. Our Student Choir was away this past Sunday for the Fall Retreat with the Student Ministry, and they beautifully sang at Ridgeway Baptist Church in worship. Wayne Rogers, accompanied the student choir, and while he was away, Barbara and Ramona kept the worship at Trinity moving. Joy led Living Praise, FirstLight, and worship in my absence. It is always a special gift to have dedicated leaders in our place when we need to be away. Our musicians at Trinity are always busy making music for the Lord and helping our church's people to bring an offering of praise to the Lord.

Education & Families

Rev. Karen Metcalf Eickhoff, kmetcalf@tbcraleigh.com

When Can a Child Believe?

Have you ever wondered at what age or what point in time a person becomes accountable to the Holy Spirit and God? When do we begin to realize our true spiritual condition that determines whether we are saved or lost? The New Testament writers did not specifically list practices and ideas of the 1st century church in relationship to children.

We must understand that the Bible does not offer one way of salvation for children and another way for adults. The basics in the conversion experience are the same regardless of the age of a person. Accountability relates to one's ability to deal with the basic truth of the gospel. Until a child, youth or adult reaches this point, he/she is scarcely to be judged accountable.

Dr. William Hendricks in the book, Children and Conversion, summarizes several basic facts in terms of having faith in God who brought the facts to be. 1. Jesus came from God, the God of Israel who made heaven and earth. 2. People killed Christ. Therefore we all bear responsibility in Christ's death. 3. Yet, Christ's death was according to God's plan. 4. Christ is raised from the dead. 5. God through Christ has sent the Holy Spirit to bear witness to what God in Christ has done for us.

When Dr. Hendricks speaks of faith in God, he is talking about something a lot deeper than a childish affirmation that "I love God" or "God is good." He suggests that the faith which brings salvation "is accompanied by a despair of oneself and all other created things. The despair is evidenced by repentance. Repentance involves sorrow for sin. It is the sorrow for rejecting God."

We do not expect children, youth, or adults to express these feelings in adult theological terms in order to be saved. But we must not dismiss that some understanding of these truths need to be real in the life of a person as conversion takes place.

Learning to Give: Taking Volunteer Opportunities as a Family

As the holidays are quickly approaching it's always a time to remember how we can be cheerful givers and help others. I believe that no matter a child's age, children can learn to give.

Brainstorm Ideas:

- Talk as a family about what it means to volunteer and what it means to give to others.

PARENTS' NIGHT OUT

6:00pm - 8:30pm • ROC
Register at www.tbcraleigh.com

Parents: do you need a night out to do some shopping? Do you need a night out to enjoy dinner with your spouse without having to worry about child care? We have a night for you and its free!

Register by November 23: Online or place completed forms in dropboxes on preschool and elementary hallways

Activities: Hear the Christmas Story, Christmas themed activities, Goldfish and peanut-free snacks, Watch a Charlie Brown Christmas movie

Questions: contact the Women's Ministry team at tbcraleighwomen@gmail.com.

Parents' Night Out Volunteers Needed

Friday, December 1 • 6:00pm - 8:30pm

Contact Katie at kmedlin@tbcraleigh.com if available to volunteer that evening.

- Make a list of places that need volunteers or places or projects you could do as a family.

Locally, for us, North Raleigh Ministries is always looking for volunteers (children can volunteer as well) and there are opportunities with Operation InAsMuch. Also as a family you could always make things such as thank you baskets for police, firemen and EMS stations.

Think about your Child's Talents: When making your list as a family think about what everyone is good at and interested in. For example, if your child enjoys drawing, let them make cards for those in the hospital or for those who are homebound. Does your child like being outside? Think about ways to volunteer as a family outside. Does your child like to bake or cook? Think about ways to engage with your child's interest and gifts!

Whenever you are thinking about volunteering remember to try to make it a family event. If your child seems reluctant to volunteer have them invite friends to go along with them. Remember to discuss with your child why you are volunteering as family and talk to them about how God wants His people to help others. (Luke 10:37; 2 Corinthians 1:24; 2 Corinthians 9:7)

Our children are the future. They can learn to help make the world a better place, and we can help by teaching them to give and help others.

Parent/Child Dedication

Sunday, November 19

This is a special part of our worship service that encourages parents as they dedicate and commit their newest born child/ren into Christian nurturing. Be on the lookout for information coming your way soon. Mark your calendars for this special day! Contact Katie at kmedlin@tbcraleigh.com if you'd like to participate.
