Deepen The Ties That Bind

Dr. Jeff Roberts, Senior Pastor • jroberts@tbcraleigh.com • Twitter: @Jeff__Roberts

This past Sunday we experienced a moving day of worship and community at church. Our children called us to worship. We were moved to hear our children singing out “God of Wonders.” How inspiring to hear a younger generation praising God and crying out “You are holy.” We witnessed our children receive Bibles as a gift from the church; a practice that reminds us that the Bible remains the authority for the practice of our faith in our congregation. In the afternoon, we welcomed over 600 people, many of them from our community, to a memorial service for one of our church members. Although it was a sad occasion, the service was a true celebration and worship service. We turned our attention from disease to God’s presence, goodness and faithfulness. I watched our congregation respond to this family and our community with love, support and hospitality. I am constantly amazed and inspired by our congregation’s love of God and others.

However by the end of the day, when our deacons gathered for their monthly meeting, our attention had moved from all the good things that we had experienced that day to our concern and love for our Baptist brothers and sisters at First Baptist Church in Sutherland Springs, Texas. The horrible news of a shooting during a worship service has shaken all of us who make corporate worship a part of our weekly activities. Our deacons stood together, held hands and lifted prayers on behalf of the victims and their families. We prayed for comfort for those who are grieving. We prayed for the one who committed this horrible crime and his family as well. We prayed for peace in our own hearts and in the hearts of those in our congregation who might be afraid when they heard this news. We were sadly reminded that this was not the first time church gatherers had been the targets of violence. We must confess, not with fear but with faith that we live in a time when the evil of violence can sadly become a part of our daily lives in almost any arena of life. Our deacons ended our time together by praying a word of thanksgiving for God’s presence even in the midst of terrible news.

It is natural when we hear such news to wonder what precautions our congregation takes to make our campus as safe as we can when we gather for worship. I do not want to publicly list all of the precautions that occur each week, but I do want our congregation to know that we are diligent when it comes to safety. We follow practices each week that involve campus security and watchful eyes. You can help in this effort simply by being watchful and share with our ministers, ushers and greeters anything that might seem suspicious to you. Ultimately, we must continue to be a place that welcomes all people to come and worship the Lord and trust God’s care for us.

This coming Sunday, November 12, you are encouraged to bring your Operation Christmas Child Shoe Boxes with you to worship, as we will dedicate them for God’s use. This is also the last Sunday to participate in the election of our Deacons, Trustees and Pastoral Advisory Council. The ballot boxes are located in the ROC Lobby and ballots are available there as well if

Christmas Unwrapped

Tuesday, November 28
6:00-8:30pm • Fellowship Hall
RSVP by Wednesday, November 15

You're invited to join the women of Trinity for dinner and a time of devotion as we present Christmas Unwrapped, an interactive experience to discover the importance of thinking inside the box this Christmas. We're opening presents early to reveal insights and inspirations for celebrating Christmas.

Speaker: Dale R. Lewis, a personal and professional development consultant, will help us incorporate ideas for purposeful preparations, celebrations, and moments to acknowledge God's greatest gift to us – Christ.

If you're feeling the need to do something different this Christmas to celebrate the birth of our Lord, let us help you to unwrap some special inside-the-box options and you just might experience your best Christmas ever!

Donations for dinner will be accepted with any excess funds to be donated to NRM.

Schedule of Events:

- 6:00pm Check-in and Mix and Mingle
Fellowship begins
6:30pm Dinner with program to follow
8:30pm Event ends

To register: Because this is a catered event, it is essential reservations are made in advance. TBC Shoebox Drive

October 29 - November 12

Dedication Sunday: November 12

Goal: 100% Participation

Individuals and families are asked to pick up a red and green shoebox from multiple locations around the campus. Instruction brochures are in each box. Pack at least one or two for children in poverty situations around the world. Dedication Sunday, bring your shoeboxes to worship and stack them next to the ROC worship center glass wall.

Each child who receives a shoebox will also get a booklet in their own language that tells the story of Jesus. They will also receive an invitation to attend a 12-session Bible study led by a local pastor. Be part of this local mission that transforms into a global mission!

Music Ministry

Rev. Steve Byers, slbyers@tbcraleigh.com

Special thanks to the Music Makers, Young Musicians, and Kevin Gard for leading in worship this past Sunday. Kevin is especially gifted in bass guitar and rendered the beautiful hymn tune of "How Great Thou Art," a beloved hymn we sing in worship from time to time.

Under Alma Hoffmann's and Linda Dollar's direction, these two children's choirs are enjoying learning new songs for worship. The song, "God of Wonders" was the theme song for our current children's choir year as they study "All Creation Sings" as their focus for worship music. They are busy preparing for Christmas, especially for Hanging of the Greens on November 26. It will be here very soon!

Children's Christmas Cantata Choir

We Need More Children!

Children in Grades 1 – 5 are encouraged to consider being a part of the Christmas Cantata Children's Choir with the Sanctuary Choir as we prepare for our big season of music. This year's cantata has a song that we need a children's choir to sing, and it is over and above the normal Children's Choir activities.

To decorate the Fellowship Hall Christmas Tree

Children's Mission Day

Mission Day was a huge event for our children. Many thanks to Dana Sumner for chaperoning our children. We learned about Cecilia Beck and her mission work in Shelby, North Carolina. We participated in ways we can Love God and Love Others even at home. Our children are becoming mission minded and young missionaries.

TBC Family Christmas Tree

The Children's Ministry is responsible for the Christmas tree in the Fellowship Hall. This is a special tree decorated with ornaments provided by you—the families of Trinity. All you have to do is find an ornament relating to the Nativity, write your family name on it with the current year –2017 and bring it to the tree in the Fellowship Hall. If you cannot make it to the Fellowship Hall—bring it to the office and we will get it to the tree.

Be a part of a wonderful Trinity tradition and bring a Family ornament for the tree! The Tree will be up around Thanksgiving.

Children's Day

Coming Next Year

Children will be participating in all aspects of the morning worship services. If you are a grade school child that plays an instrument or has a special talent and you are willing to share with us in the service, please contact me. Also, begin to let me know if you would like to have a speaking part. We may not be able to use everyone but we would like to try to use you if possible. Mark the date!

I also need parent and adult volunteers for the children's day lead team. Contact me.

SOLO Mission Projects

GA and RA boys and girls may begin this Fall to work on Mission Projects. All grade school children are encouraged to do an individual mission project and both can choose to race in the RA car race in March. Plan now and begin serving in a special way.

Meet our November Missionaries

The Frye Family

They work with College Students.

3 Fun Facts about Our Missionaries

- The Fries live in Delaware, Ohio, and have 3 sons: Ian and twins, Scott and Connor.
- Mr. Frye loves to participate in triathlons, which are races where you run, swim, and bike.
- One of the best ways that the Fries have found to minister is by throwing a party for college students. The students like to get together, share a meal, and talk with one another. The Fries like to use these parties to teach the students about God.

Prayer Requests

- Pray that God will guide more people to teach college students about God.
- Pray that every new college student would hear about God's love.
- Pray that God would get college students excited about going to church.
