TBC 2017 Advent Devotional Books

Coming November 29 for Pick Up

This year, many of our church members have already been in the Advent mood as they have studied the Scriptures, prayed, and written a devotional thought for us in our Advent devotional books entitled Emmanuel: God With Us, In Us, and Through Us. Be sure to pick one up in the ROC lobby or in the Church Office beginning Wednesday, November 29.

OCC Shoebox Donations

Before the final Monday of Collection Week, Trinity members have donated a total of 554 Shoeboxes! Thanks to all who participated in this local - global missions effort! Please don't let this be the end of your OCC experience - now pray for the child(ren) that will receive your shoebox(es). Pray that they will know the love you are sending their way as a compassionate follower of Christ. Pray especially that they will come to know the Love of Jesus Christ and accept Him in their hearts as a Savior and Lord.

Special thanks to Apryl Bullock and Cissy Lewis, the TBC Shoebox Drive Coordinators. Also, thank you to the Tepper/Hoffman Sunday School Class for putting together 750 of the "GO" Shoeboxes for the TBC effort!

Blue Christmas Service
Wednesday, December 6
6:30pm • Chapel

Experiencing grief for the first time or for the fortieth time during the holiday season can be overwhelming and unpredictable. This year, we are offering two opportunities to honor the grief experience. On Wednesday, November 29, we will be hearing about how to prepare for those overwhelming and unexpected moments that we may experience this year and how, if we are a deacon, friend, or a family member, we can offer support to those we love who are grieving. Then, on Wednesday, December 6th, we will be sharing in a meaningful worship service that honors those we love who are no longer with us. Both of these times are a wonderful way to offer comfort to our friends, neighbors, and family, so be sure to let them know!

A Message from our Building Committee

Over the past few weeks there have been a number of Trinity Members asking the contractor if they could tour the new Sanctuary and classrooms. The contractor is not comfortable refusing these requests, but it puts our contractor in a precarious position.

Clancy & Theys' insurance company has very strict regulations about how projects are run and how safety rules are enforced. After all, it is the insurance company that is responsible if someone, who is not even authorized by them, should be injured on the site. Being asked to be allowed to tour the building puts Clancy & Theys in the uncomfortable position of either ignoring their own insurance company's requirements or refusing access to members of the church whose requests they also want to honor.

We've only a couple more months until the project is completed. During that time the contractor will have many workers onsite for 10-12 hours per day, six days per week. Please help us by honoring our contractor's responsibilities.

These events would not have been possible without you! It has been a very busy year with many trips, to further relationships among our fellow brothers and sisters in Christ. We have also had several opportunities for ministry which gave us an opportunity to be "the presence of Christ" and we look forward to 2018 with anticipation of more events that will draw us together.

We welcome you and your suggestions to our committee as we plan for 2018. If you are not sure who your SS Class representative is on the 2018 Senior Adult Committee, please feel free to contact me and offer your ideas also.

Thanks to all of you who volunteered to operate the Raleigh Area Central Drop-Off Location hosted at TBC. It takes a LOT of folks to help greet donors, unpack vehicles, count shoeboxes, pack them into cartons, and load them onto the tractor trailers! As of this writing, before the final Monday of collection, we have collected a total of 11,514 Shoeboxes from the Raleigh Area.

What a joy it has been watching each of you participate in this annual mission endeavor. Yes – it is a LOT of work and a LOT of waiting for vehicles to come. But God is now in the process of blessing your efforts and those of OCC Volunteers all over this country, and around the world. To God Be the Glory!

Special thanks to the OCC CDOL Lead Team: Steve Isaacs, Ray Broughton, Bill Johnston, Charla Peel, Anita Price, Dave Hadley, Bill Ryan, Stewart Price, Don Price and HL Warren.

2018 Marriage Retreat

February 23-25

Beach Cove Resort, N. Myrtle Beach
Cost: $245 Per Couple

Folks have already started calling and signing up – so don't wait – we only have 20 condos reserved. A $100 deposit is due at sign up, and the balance of $145 is due on Sunday, January 21st. This covers everything but meals.

Simply write your check to "TBC" and put a note for "Marriage Retreat". Bring or mail it to the church (Hal's attention), and you are signed up! Please don't put this check in the offering plate.

SUMMER, 2018

Family Promise HOSTING OF HOMELESS FAMILIES

For many years, TBC hosted homeless families with children with Wake Interfaith Hospitality Network. We had to put our hosting on hold when the construction project began. With the new building almost done, we are ready to begin hosting families again. In the interim, WIHN changed its name to "Family Promise".

Beth Duke is our TBC FP Coordinator. She has hosted two "Interest Meetings" to explain the mission to some who are new to the TBC Family. A Lead Team will be established this winter and begin dreaming/making plans for our first hosting week in August. Team members are needed for coordinating: living space setup/take-down crew, evening meals, van drivers, overnight hosts/hostesses, and supply purchasing.

If you are interested in serving on this Lead Team in one of these capacities, please contact Beth: beth.duke@globalsoftwareinc.com or 919-880-7251.

Music Notes

Special thanks to the Testament for leading us in worship this past Sunday morning. I'm amazed that every year, our musical groups continue to find creative ways to tell the Gospel story through song. God has blessed us with incredibly gifted musicians; I'm grateful for each one of you!

It is here! We begin our Christmas season at Trinity officially with the Hanging of the Greens service this Sunday, November 26, at 6:00pm. Again this year, we will be celebrating in the ROC until our sanctuary is completed. Our rehearsal this past Sunday went pretty well considering the loss of power in E building, but our choir leaders and students as well as the Sanctuary Choir didn't let that deter us from getting the job done! Special thanks to Phil Holland for running the sound for the rehearsal and to Joy Earp for keeping us all organized and focused on our roles in the service! Hollie Cox and the Flower Committee are to be commended for working for months on decoration and preparation for beautifying our worship space for this service and the holidays. The amount of work this team does to prepare is exceptional and very much appreciated!

Spread the Joy

This is a special time of the year as we enter into the Holiday season. Through Thanksgiving, we are reminded of all that God has blessed us with and the many things for which we are thankful. Through Christmas, we experience the happiness that came with the birth of Christ. Through all of the time with family and friends, it can be a season of great joy!

This holiday season our focus as a youth group is to "Spread the Joy"! We are striving to do that through our church, through our friends, and through our neighbors!

Our Friends – Bring A Friend to TBC

11th Grade TBC Student, Andrea Shealey said, "It only takes 7 words to change someone's life." The 7 words she was referring to were "Will you come to church with me?" We all have friends at school or on our teams, bands, etc. that have never experienced the joy of being a part of a Youth Group family. We also have friends who have never truly experienced the joy of having a relationship with Christ.

We have the opportunity to share that joy, simply by inviting them to attend on a Wednesday night, Sunday morning, Sunday night, Ski Trip, etc. Then, as a youth group, we all have the opportunity to be welcoming to our guest and to make sure they know they have a place at Trinity!

Our Neighbors – D-Team's Deck the School Halls

This Christmas, our D-teams will be supporting students in need from Moore Square Middle School. These students are from families that are experiencing income and housing instability. This means that the families are often moving from place to place, doubling up with family or friends, or living in shelters or hotels. Because they are just striving to meet basic needs like shelter, food, and water, Christmas gifts are not guaranteed to be under the tree on Christmas morning like they are in many of our homes.

Each D-team will be given a student, and as a group, you will decide what gift(s) you would like to give this student for Christmas, and how you would like to go about getting these gifts (shop together, bring money to D-team leaders or to Christian, etc.). You will be given the student's age, gender, and a few ideas about what the student likes. Some examples of gifts are: holiday/fuzzy socks, soccer/basketball, candy, nail polish, playing cards/games, or anything (inexpensive) that you think a 11-13 year old boy or girl might like. Then, on November 29th, you will be given extra time to bring and package these items during D-Teams. Whatever your D-Team chooses to give will help to make this a joyful Christmas for a student in need!

Ski Trip 2018

January 19-21

Everyone is invited to the ski trip this year: Middle School, High School, and we'll even have some college students joining to help lead worship, Bible study, and more! Be on the lookout for a registration that will be in the mail soon!

Advent Items for Families

Advent materials for children and their families are available in various areas of our church. Plan to make this Advent special as you share together the meaning and hope of the season. We are providing something different on the grade-school hallway this year. A poster will be displayed each week during Advent for children to color as they walk down the hall. Family Devotion packets are available for families as well. In the packet you will find devotions, an Advent calendar and an Advent wreath to color and assemble for your family worship time.

Advent is a time of reflection, hope and waiting. As we wait and anticipate the holidays, my prayer is that each family will find Nativity in the season and a place to bow at the manger. Love came down at Christmas. Rejoice!

RAGA Offering for Global Missions

During this November we are asking children to collect pennies, dimes, nickels, quarters or dollars for Global Missions. We hope you will do extra chores or save coins to help the missionaries across the world. We will also have the Global Mission wishing well out in the lobby for a fun way to give.

Be sure to bring your offering to your mission class by November 29 or to the Mission Walk Down service on Sunday, December 3. Get collecting!

Mission Offering Walk Down Sunday, December 3

We'll have an opportunity to give an offering to Global Missions at the end of our Worship services. GAs and RAs will be at the front to collect your gifts in baskets. Start collecting now and come ready to share the Good News by giving to missions around the world.

TBC FAMILY Christmas Tree

The Tree is up!

The Children's Ministry is responsible for the Christmas tree in the FH. This is a special tree decorated with ornaments provided by you—the families of Trinity. All you have to do is find an ornament relating to the Nativity, write your family name on it with the current year—2017-2018 and bring it to the tree in the FH. If you cannot make it to the FH—bring it to the office and we will get it to the tree.

Be a part of a wonderful Trinity tradition and bring a Family ornament for the tree!

Katie Medlin, kmedlin@tbcraleigh.com

During November each year we all seem to count our blessings a little bit more than we do throughout the rest of the year. We want our children to be thankful as well. When children are very young, it's easy to remind them to say, "Thank you," but as kids grow, so does their need to say more than a quick thanks. Their challenge is to develop a thankful heart. The following ideas are intentional ways to help your children grow in the area of gratitude:

Nurture a Thankful Heart: At least once a week, as a family talk about what you're thankful for. Describe a blessing, an answered prayer, happy news or a fun activity. Write all these things down in a journal. This simple activity will help your kids (and you) realize how blessed they are and cultivate thankful hearts.

Teach Thankfulness: Make it a point to express gratitude in the presence of your toddlers. You might say, "Thank You, Jesus, for the beautiful fall colors — the red and yellow and purple leaves." Or while you're in the checkout line at the grocery store say, "Thanks, Jesus, that we can buy this yummy food." In this way, they're recognizing that Jesus is involved in the details around them. Children will learn from your simple behavior to be thankful to Jesus for His daily care and provision.

It was once said that Thankfulness is a learned discipline that cures our discontent and fosters joy-- let's give that gift to our children as well! Happy Thanksgiving, my friends!

With Gratitude, Katie
