Deepen The Ties That Bind

Dr. Jeff Roberts, Senior Pastor • jroberts@tbcraleigh.com • Twitter: @Jeff_Roberts

I have always known the name Lottie Moon. Since I was a child, I have heard the story of the petite woman from Virginia whose passion for Christ and compassion for others changed lives and left an incredible legacy for missions. Lottie Moon at first rejected Christianity, but as a young adult came to faith in Christ. A very intelligent woman, she was one of the first women in the South to receive a Masters Degree. She taught in Kentucky and Georgia before following God's call to be a missionary. She felt called to go and join her sister in China and teach the girls of the Shantung Province. Lottie would serve for 39 years pleading with Baptists in the United States to give generously and freely to the work of the Gospel in China and in other places in the world. Her letters sent back home described the desperate need of the Chinese people. She spoke out about injustice suffered by the women of China and she believed that the gospel of Jesus would give freedom to all who would embrace it. The letters she wrote started a movement, especially among the women in the Southern Baptist Churches who formed the Women's Missionary Union, and they began a Christmas Offering to aid Lottie Moon's work. The offering now bears this courageous woman's name.

Lottie Moon lived out her commitment to the Gospel. She not only taught the girls in China, but she also often traveled other places in China to evangelize all whom she encountered. Facing poverty, famine and the hardships of war, Lottie Moon many times shared all that she had with those around her, leaving her in a physically depleted state. In 1912 she weighed only 50 pounds and was in a desperate physical condition. As friends pleaded for her to care for herself, she chose to make her way back to the States but died en route. Lottie Moon gave all she had, even her very life, for the sake of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Her life, like so many others, reminds us of the call of Jesus to go into the entire world and make disciples.

Lottie Moon once wrote:

"The needs of these people press upon my soul, and I cannot be silent."

The need of our world to know the Gospel has not changed even 150 years later. Our world is still filled with those who experience famine, poverty, displacement, and injustice of every kind. Our world is currently in a serious refugee crisis affecting millions of people. There are those in our world who are dying as the result of famine and poverty. There are those in our world who are persecuted because of their faith. The need is tremendous but so is the opportunity. You and

Grief Through the Holidays Session

6:30pm • Chapel

Blue Christmas Service

Wednesday, December 6

6:30pm • Chapel

Experiencing grief for the first time or for the fortieth time during the holiday season can be overwhelming and unpredictable. This year, we are offering two opportunities to honor the grief experience. On Wednesday, November 29, we will be hearing about how to prepare for those overwhelming and unexpected moments that we may experience this year and how, if we are a deacon, friend, or a family member, we can offer support to those we love who are grieving. Then, on Wednesday, December 6th, we will be sharing in a meaningful worship service that honors those we love who are no longer with us. Both of these times are a wonderful way to offer comfort to our friends, neighbors, and family, so be sure to let them know!

Dr. Roberts... continued

I can be a part of sharing the good news of Jesus that sets free the oppressed, stands for justice, feeds the impoverished and welcomes the stranger. You and I have the opportunity to give to our World Missions Offering that all goes directly to missionaries of the Southern Baptist Convention and the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship who today are "on the field" sharing the good news of Jesus in word and deed.

This coming Sunday is our Walk Down for Missions during worship. At the end of the service you will be invited to come forward during the hymn of response and give an offering to support our Missions Offering. Our goal this year is $50,000. I encourage you to pray for our missionaries and those they serve. I pray that we will open our hearts to the needs of those in our world. I pray that we, like Lottie Moon, will say, "The needs of these people press upon my soul, and I cannot be silent." Our World Missions Offering is a way to have your voice heard. Give generously and joyfully that others will know of the love of Christ.

DEACON OF THE WEEK

Glenn Wellborn has been a member of Trinity since 1972 and is a native of Boone. He and his wife, Sylvia, have two children: Lynn and David and five grand-children: Charlie, Bert, Michael, Erin and Anna. Glenn is retired from the Federal Government. He serves on the Usher Committee and serves as Chair of the Teller Committee. He volunteers for the ROC, NRM and OCC. He works with the Willing Hearts SS class. He also works with deacon Shirley Pegram.

A Message from our Building Committee

Over the past few weeks there have been a number of Trinity Members asking the contractor if they could tour the new Sanctuary and classrooms. The contractor is not comfortable refusing these requests, but it puts our contractor in a precarious position.

Clancy & Theys' insurance company has very strict regulations about how projects are run and how safety rules are enforced. After all, it is the insurance company that is responsible if someone, who is not even authorized by them, should be injured on the site. Being asked to be allowed to tour the building puts Clancy & Theys in the uncomfortable position of either ignoring their own insurance company's requirements or refusing access to members of the church whose requests they also want to honor.

We've only got a couple more months until the project is completed. During that time the contractor will have many workers onsite for 10-12 hours per day, six days per week. Please help us by honoring our contractor's responsibilities.

Thank You

Thank you so much to all the members of the Senior Adult Committee who have planned, coordinated and made possible the many events for our Senior Adults this year and to those of you who help with these events. These events would not have been possible without you! It has been a very busy year with many trips, to further relationships among our fellow brothers and sisters in Christ. We have also had several opportunities for ministry which gave us an opportunity to be "the presence of Christ" and we look forward to 2018 with anticipation of more events that will draw us together.

We welcome you and your suggestions to our committee as we plan for 2018. If you are not sure who your SS Class representative is on the 2018 Senior Adult Committee, please feel free to contact me and offer your ideas also.

Thanks to all who participated in this local - global missions effort! Wanted to give you a report of our final numbers:

TBC Members: Donated 656 Shoeboxes!

This is wonderful. If you have not turned in your shoebox, it is still not too late. We have a Sunday School class going to work at the Processing Center. Bring your shoeboxes to the Church Office no later than Monday, December 11 and we will get them on the Church Bus to Charlotte (see below).

This was our 11th year serving OCC as the Raleigh Area Collection Center (Central Drop-Off Location now). We collected 20,883 of our 24,000 goal (88%).

Please don't let this be the end of your OCC experience – now pray for the child(ren) that will receive your shoebox(es). Pray that they will know the love you are sending their way as a compassionate follower of Christ. Pray especially that they will come to know the Love of Jesus Christ and accept Him in their hearts as a Savior and Lord.

OCC Processing Center Trip

Come experience what happens to the Shoeboxes after they leave TBC. It will be a day of great fun and excitement, as we work alongside each other preparing the OCC shoeboxes for shipping.

Music Notes

This year's Hanging of the Greens was another successful event as we kick-off the Christmas season with the rich tradition of choir-led pageantry.

Looking back over these two years in the ROC for the service, I believe that our children, students, and adult leadership adjusted well to the temporary worship center and all that was required to make this a meaningful experience to all of us. I cannot thank enough

Joy Earp who directs the Hanging of the Greens, the Flower Committee and helpers under Hollie Cox's direction, all of the choirs and their leaders, our accompanists, Phil Holland for doing the sound, and the many families who made sacrifices to be here to support this annual tradition. Without all of these people being involved, the work of this ministry couldn't be done. Please join me in thanking them for a job well-done. Blessings on each one of you!

Special thanks to Naomi Johnston for sharing with us her songwriting and vocal talent in worship this past Sunday.

Naomi has been an active participant in our Student Choir and Student Ministry and is a freshman at Belmont University. We look forward to hearing more of her gifts in worship in the years to come!

Spread the Joy

This is a special time of the year as we enter into the Holiday season. Through Thanksgiving, we are reminded of all that God has blessed us with and the many things for which we are thankful. Through Christmas, we experience the happiness that came with the birth of Christ. Through all of the time with family and friends, it can be a season of great joy!

This holiday season our focus as a youth group is to "Spread the Joy"! We are striving to do that through our church, through our friends, and through our neighbors!

Our Friends – Bring A Friend to TBC

11th Grade TBC Student, Andrea Shealey said, "It only takes 7 words to change someone's life." The 7 words she was referring to were "Will you come to church with me?" We all have friends at school or on our teams, bands, etc. that have never experienced the joy of being a part of a Youth Group family. We also have friends who have never truly experienced the joy of having a relationship with Christ.

We have the opportunity to share that joy, simply by inviting them to attend on a Wednesday night, Sunday morning, Sunday night, Ski Trip, etc. Then, as a youth group, we all have the opportunity to be welcoming to our guest and to make sure they know they have a place at Trinity!

Our Neighbors – D-Team's Deck the School Halls

This Christmas, our D-teams will be supporting students in need from Moore Square Middle School. These students are from families that are experiencing income and housing instability. This means that the families are often moving from place to place, doubling up with family or friends, or living in shelters or hotels. Because they are just striving to meet basic needs like shelter, food, and water, Christmas gifts are not guaranteed to be under the tree on Christmas morning like they are in many of our homes.

Each D-team will be given a student, and as a group, you will decide what gift(s) you would like to give this student for Christmas, and how you would like to go about getting these gifts (shop together, bring money to D-team leaders or to Christian, etc.). You will be given the student's age, gender, and a few ideas about what the student likes. Some examples of gifts are: holiday/fuzzy socks, soccer/basketball, candy, nail polish, playing cards/games, or anything (inexpensive) that you think a 11-13 year old boy or girl might like. Then, on November 29th, you will be given extra time to bring and package these items during D-Teams. Whatever your D-Team chooses to give will help to make this a joyful Christmas for a student in need!

Ski Trip 2018

January 19-21

Everyone is invited to the ski trip this year: Middle School, High School, and we'll even have some college students joining to help lead worship, Bible study, and more! Be on the lookout for a registration that will be in the mail soon!

Advent Items for Families

Advent materials for children and their families are available in various areas of our church. Plan to make this Advent special as you share together the meaning and hope of the season. We are providing something different on the grade-school hallway this year. A poster will be displayed each week during Advent for children to color as they walk down the hall. Family Devotion packets are available for families as well. In the packet you will find devotions, an Advent calendar and an Advent wreath to color and assemble for your family's worship time.

Advent is a time of reflection, hope and waiting. As we wait and anticipate the holidays, my prayer is that each family will find Nativity in the season and a place to bow at the manger. Love came down at Christmas. Rejoice!

RAGA Offering for Global Missions

We'll also have the Global Missions wishing well out in the lobby for a fun way to give.

TBC FAMILY Christmas Tree

The Tree is up! We would love more ornaments from you and your family.

All you have to do is find an ornament relating to the Nativity, write your family name on it with the current year—2017 and bring it to the tree in the FH. If you cannot make it to the FH—bring it to the office and we will get it to the tree.

Become part of a wonderful Trinity tradition and bring a Family ornament for the tree!

Children's Day

February 25, 2018

Children will be participating in all aspects of the morning worship services. If you are a grade school child that plays an instrument or has a special talent and you are willing to share with us in the service, please contact me. Also, begin to let me know if you would like to have a speaking part. We may not be able to use everyone but we would like to try to use you if possible. Mark the date!

I will also need parent and adult volunteers for the children's day lead team. Contact me.

What Is Advent?

This past Sunday we had our beautiful Hanging of the Greens service where we prepared not only our place of worship for the season of Advent, but hopefully our hearts as well.

Advent is a call to followers of Christ to remember the birth of the Savior. The word advent stems from a Latin word that means “coming” or “arrival.” The season begins on the fourth Sunday before Christmas and, depending on the year, can range from 22 to 28 days. Its purpose is to help believers remain focused on the birth of Christ and Jesus’ glorious return.

Some of the most popular commercial Advent calendars are cardboard. I encourage your family to read Scripture and have devotional readings to help you all as a family remain focused on how Jesus came to earth as their Savior.

The Advent season is divided into four weeks, and each week features a different liturgical theme. Traditionally, the first week remembers the hope and expectation of the Jewish people as they looked forward to the Savior’s arrival — and it also reminds believers today to wait expectantly for Jesus’ second coming. The second week focuses on preparation: Over many centuries, God prepared the hearts of the Jews for Christ’s coming, just as He is now working in our hearts to prepare us for Christ’s second coming. The third week joyfully celebrates the coming of the Messiah, and the final week celebrates God’s peace and love.

My prayer is that you and your family will feel and sense God’s peace, joy, and love this Advent season!
