Joining Hands with God

Pope Francis and a Baptist

I, like many of Americans, have been interested in Pope Francis' visit to America. The sheer interest of Catholics, other Christians, and Non-Christians concerning this visit has been very interesting. As a Baptist, I have several deep theological differences with Catholicism. One important difference is I do not believe anyone needs an intermediary in regards to access to God. As Baptists we hold dear the doctrine of the priesthood of all believers. I have but one "Holy Father", but I do treat Pope Francis with respect and honor, as we should any brother in Christ. I must also admit that I was uneasy having the head of any church address congress. As Baptists we have always championed the separation of church and state. I understand that the Pope is also a head of state, but I must admit it did give me pause.

However, what has interested me in Pope Francis' visit to the United States is the reaction of so many people. Many in the media and some politicians will continue to debate Pope Francis' politics with the hope that one of our many political labels will stick. However, it seems that Pope Francis is reminding us that the gospel of Jesus transcends conservative and liberal labels. In addition, Pope Francis has reminded us of the incredible attraction of authenticity and humility. Masses of people are attracted to him and want to be in his presence. Many just wanted to get a glimpse of him.

I cannot help but think of Jesus' ministry as I have witnessed the events of this past week. I think of Jesus speaking to the powerful people of His day in such a way that their labels would not stick. I think of the crowds that followed Him and waited for His arrival. Some came to Jesus hoping for a miracle and others came out of curiosity, but they came to Jesus much like the crowds that have filled the streets during Pope Francis' visit.

What can this Baptist learn from Pope Francis' visit? First, I am reminded that the voice of the church must remain distinct from all the other voices in our culture. The church should not be harnessed and used by any political party or agenda. We have our own agenda, the gospel of Jesus Christ. This agenda transcends and should transform all others. Second, I am reminded of the sheer attractiveness of authenticity and humility.

Adult Sunday School

Several of our Adult SS classes have relocated, transitioned teachers or adjusted their classrooms. We are expanding, meeting needs and growing in discipleship.

We are honored to be a part of a church family that is willing to adjust, to share their resources with others and willing to move to accommodate needs. Thank you.

We know that there are still classes with needs. The SS Council is aware of these, working to address them, and we welcome your suggestions. For now, we are grateful for your leadership and willingness to study God's Word in the space available.

Following Jesus... continued

Jesus showed us how to treat people and love people. Jesus showed us how to change the world. It was not with power but humility and the way of the cross. The way of Jesus is so countercultural that even though as followers of Jesus, we know this to be true it is still hard to follow. Finally, I was reminded that our world needs Jesus and this need is so great that we must find ways to serve together as followers of Jesus regardless of our theological differences.

You never know who God will use to teach you and challenge you. Good to keep your eyes and heart open. It was a good lesson for this Baptist.

Operation Christmas Child

TBC Shoebox Drive

Each Individual or Family is asked to pack at least one shoebox for a child in a poverty stricken or war torn country somewhere in the world. The TBC OCC Lead Team is busy getting ready. Shoeboxes will be put together and placed all over our campus beginning with our Kick-Off on Sunday, October 25. Or you can purchase your own plastic shoebox for a dollar at places like dollar stores or Wal-Mart. We will have brochures available as well for you to see what few items are not allowed in the boxes. You choose the gender and age of the child for whom you will pack the box.

TBC's Shoebox Dedication will take place in worship on Sunday, November 15. Bring your shoebox to the Narthex where the team will set them up in the sanctuary. The children of our church will bless the shoeboxes and the children who will receive them.

Then OCC in Charlotte will add a booklet called "The Greatest Journey" about the life of Jesus and the grace-filled love offered to each of us through His death and resurrection. They will also receive an invitation to attend a 12 session Bible Study with the same title led by a pastor in their village/town.

TBC Blood Drive

Sunday, October 18

10:00am - 2:30pm • Fellowship Hall

Our church has been partnering with the American Red Cross for many years to sponsor three blood drives per year. Please mark your calendar to donate at TBC. This is a life-saving mission effort that takes minimal effort and time that can mean a lot to an individual/family. PLEASE GIVE. Go to www.tbcraleigh.com and scroll down to "Blood Drive". Click on that link and register to donate at our drive using the Sponsor Code "Trinity Baptist". THANKS.

Shoebox Packing Party

Friday & Saturday, November 13 & 14
9:00am - 5:00pm • FH

You can drop by anytime over those days to pack shoeboxes with items already collected. Invite your neighbors, your work associates, everyone you know! Our goal is to pack 2000+ shoeboxes in two days! It will be a festive atmosphere with Christmas music playing and joy-filled hearts as we pack shoeboxes that will help spread the Gospel message of Jesus to the world's children and their families...even in Muslim countries. All you have to do is show up!

Unless you want to volunteer to serve as a helper on a 4 1/2 hour shift 8:30-1:00 or 12:30-5:00 one or both days. Volunteers will work in one of several "stations", putting together shoeboxes, making sure bins are full of items for boys and girls of all ages, labeling shoeboxes and putting the shoeboxes into cartons. You can sign-up to be a volunteer on the Narthex Registration Board. We will need a lot of volunteers!

Operation InAsMuch

Fall, 2015

We can increase our core value of fellowship at TBC by doing a local mission effort together as Sunday School classes. Flyers are in each Sunday School Class box. Get a planning team together NOW and make a difference in our own neighbors lives.

Be creative! Prayerfully open your eyes and ears to how your class can literally Join Hands with God in Raleigh/Wake County. All we ask is that your projects be completed before November 13. We can all do something for Jesus Himself through spreading acts of love and kindness to those around us.

Music Ministry

Rev. Steve Byers, slbyers@tbcraleigh.com

Music Notes

Special thanks to Ellen Barnes for her solo in both morning worship services, as well as the Sanctuary Choir for the tremendous anthem they sang in the 10:55 am service. It is such a joy to work with the music ministry at Trinity where people love to sing and lead in worship. God is doing great things with our musicians, and I pray for many years of commitment and faithful service to Him from all of us.

There will be no student choirs this Sunday, October 4. We will resume on October 11.

We are just 2 months away from Hanging of the Greens! The important dates for our children's and student choirs are November 22 for the Mass Rehearsal Day and November 29 for the Hanging of the Greens Service. You will be getting more information about those two dates with times from the directors. It is really important to be here for the rehearsal day, as this is the only time to rehearse your part in the service. There will be no other rehearsals after November 22.

Find Your Place in the Music Ministry

If you have singing or instrumental abilities, We Need You.

We are always looking for more musicians to add to our worship leading ministries at Trinity. Consider getting involved in music ministry and being a part of an exciting place of ministry!

You can begin this Fall.

Both GA and RA members will be doing an individual or SOLO mission project this year. We will be discussing it this month—so all children have the fall and winter to think of a project, complete it, and make a display to present in March on Children's Day. You can start today if you want. This also means that both GA girls and RA boys will be able to race a car this year in the car race. Our Mission Fair and Recognition will be the same evening as Children's Day. The Race will be on the Wednesday before or after.

So you can start early to do a mission project. Find out in your classes on Wednesday nights.

We will also be ending the formal RA and GA classes in March and adding on Block classes during the time slot. These Block classes may consist of extra crafts, recreation, missions or music. Stay tuned!

Join a Children's Ministry Lead Team

Lead teams take the responsibility for an event or project in ministry and organize, promote and implement the specific event. Lead Teams involve parents, teachers, other adults and children in the children's ministry. They require involvement and effort for the short term.

Please volunteer for Children's Day, Preschool Easter Egg Hunt, Grade School Easter Event or VBS!

Guiding Your Child Toward God

Welcome to the most holiest responsibility of parenthood. Life's most challenging and rewarding experience—"Training up your child in the way he/she should go." As a parent, you may have a greater influence on your child than any other person in the world. "Children are a gift from the Lord" (Psalm 127:3)—a real blessing. God has granted you one of His choicest blessings.

God makes parents responsible and accountable for each gift God gives. You become your child's first teacher. You are responsible to protect, nurse, comfort, guide, instruct, encourage, and meet needs with tender loving care.

The way a newborn relates to his/her earthly parents illustrates in earthly form the way in which you, the parent, relate to God, your Heavenly Father/parent. As your child is totally dependent upon you for his/her life, you are totally dependent upon God, for your life. May your love be like God's—patient, kind, giving, caring, forgiving, and loving.

Seek to be the best parent you can by studying God's Word, fellowshipping with other Christian parents, bringing your child to church, talking with them constantly about faith and praying with your child. A child will model first and discover later. Be the Model!

Child Information Forms

We would really like for you to complete these forms and return them to the designated areas. Please complete one for each child even if most of the information is the same. We want to make sure we know of allergies or the best class/grade placement. This also helps us get to know your child better.

Next Parent/Child Dedication

November 22 • Both Services

Please contact me at kmetcalf@tbcraleigh.com or RaNada in the church office (919-787-3740) if you are interested in participating. Thank you.

Missing Pagers

Please check and see if you missed returning a pager. We are missing quite a few and would love to have them to use again. No questions asked. We assume you secured your correct child. SMILE.
