Joining Hands with God

Dr. Jeff Roberts, Senior Pastor
jroberts@tbcraleigh.com • Twitter: @Jeff_Roberts

Have you ever felt God was “calling” you to a new experience, responsibility or opportunity? We use this term “call” to describe the experience of sensing God’s leadership and guidance in our lives. Although we use this term of “call” to describe a person’s decision to pursue vocational ministry, the Bible teaches us that we are all “called” by God. Each and every one of us is called to follow Jesus. Each of us are gifted and then “called” to pursue our gifts and their use in the church and the Kingdom of God. One’s call can come in many different forms and ways. For some, it is a moment in time when a person just knows that they are called by God to a certain purpose or task. For others, the call of God is more of a process of steps filled with prayer, discernment and encouragement. In 1 Samuel we find the story of God calling the young Samuel. It is a story that is at first filled with questions and mystery. God’s call can create at first more questions than answers, but it is the questions that lead us to prayer, faith and action. Once asked if he had heard God’s audible voice, C.S. Lewis responded “O no it was much louder than that.” How can we know it is God who is speaking and how do we recognize a “call” in our lives? Join us as we consider this question this Sunday. I will be preaching on “When God Calls Your Name: The Mystery and Wonder of Following Jesus.”

TNT Begins

Come and join us for the Winter/Spring Semester of TNT. We are continuing our study of “One Extraordinary Life: A Chronological Study of the Life of Jesus.” We have wonderful small group leaders and a place for you in one of our men or women’s groups. We will kick-off the new semester with dinner together at 6:00 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall and hear a brief overview of last semester from Robin and myself. Then we will go to our small groups to receive our new material and a time of welcoming new participants and prayer for the coming semester. Our Winter/Spring Semester is from January 20 through March 24. After the kick-off dinner study, we will begin each Tuesday night at 6:30 p.m. with the men in the Fellowship Hall and the women in the Chapel. Come and join us.

Music Notes

It was good to hear from Baron Hignite this past Sunday morning in worship.

Baron has been a faithful member of our Sanctuary Choir and offers his talents to God in so many ways. Our musicians at Trinity are already working on new music for the spring months ahead. Our choirs and ensembles are always ready to welcome new members!

Speaking of new members, we had 9 new members to the Sanctuary Choir this past Wednesday night!

This is a fantastic start to 2015! I'm so grateful to see and hear our people who want to be a part of a great choir and to use their gifts of singing to praise Him in worship. Our choir has been growing musically, numerically, and spiritually, and we give God all the glory for His faithfulness and blessings. There is room for more!

The Sanctuary Choir began its journey to Easter this past weekend with our annual January retreat.

This year, we will be doing a cantata by Joseph Martin, "Testimony of Life," and it is a beautifully written collection resembling a lessons and carols service that is presented at Christmas in many churches. Combining scripture with beautiful music by our choir and orchestra, the cantata presents a great opportunity to present the gospel of Christ and the redemption for all mankind that only comes through Him. Mark your calendars for March 29 when we present the cantata in both morning services.

Music Ministry is alive and is growing at Trinity!

Find your place in the Music Ministry in 2015. If you have singing or instrumental abilities, we need you. We are always looking for more musicians to add to our worship leading ministries at Trinity. Be a part of this exciting place of ministry!

Words from Lydia

Grandmamma, a saint of the church, longtime WMU director and historian, collegiate religion department secretary, and Baptist minister's wife, was able to attend the annual meeting of the Baptist World Alliance when she was 85 years old. That year she made all of her preparations and traveled for the first time without Granddaddy. When she came back from her adventure to England, her face was illuminated with the Spirit welling up inside of her. She told us that the times of worship were like glimpsing into heaven. "All those people," she said. "They were God's people – all different races and languages – singing and worshipping God. I think I saw heaven."

I understood what she meant. Having experienced the Passion Conference with our college students over New Years, now I know what she meant. There were many times in worship that I had to be quiet, look around, and take in the beauty of 20,000 college students worshipping our great God. Everyone worships in his or her own way, and in these times of worship every way was expressed - from hands raised to heads bowed and everything in between.

Conferences like these are often spiritual high points in the lives of those who experience them, but these conferences are not the only place we can meet with God. We meet with God in the everyday ordinariness of life. May we greet each day with passion and expectation for the One, the Lord of All.

Words from Carla

I want to start off by saying thank you to those who have and continue to serve in the preschool ministry. The need in this area of any church will always grow as long as the church is inviting families in and providing great care for the children. This is what God calls us as a church to do, to reach out (invite), to nurture and disciple, and to love.

Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit. Rather, in humility value others above yourselves, not looking to your own interests but each of you to the interests of the others. – Philippians 2: 3-4

As we begin the New Year, we are in need of volunteers in several areas of the preschool ministry. An ETC volunteer (only 4 times a year, 8:30-9:30am or 10:55-12:00pm, you choose), a Sunday night discipleship teacher (we have a curriculum for you to follow and it can be Sunday nights, 6:00-7:00pm, September-May or we can rotate Sundays, if we have enough volunteers), a Sunday school teacher (9:15-10:45am Sunday mornings), a Mission Friends teacher or ETC Wednesday night volunteer (45 minutes a night, 6:00-6:45pm or 6:45-7:30pm), or a Preschool Music leader (6:00-6:45pm Wednesday nights). Please consider volunteering in this area of ministry.

Maybe you have “done your time” or “need a break”, if so I ask you to reconsider. Maybe you have never volunteered and would like to. I do not know your situation, but I do know that there are little ones who need you to be there and there are parents who need to have a time to worship and be disciplined. As you discern where there is a need and where God can use your gifts for His glory, look for opportunities that you can participate in. He will equip you; He will guide you, and stretch and grow you. We never stop growing in our faith and spiritual discipline. I am willing to help you find a place to serve where you can be all that God has designed you to be. Please contact me with any questions.

Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms. – 1 Peter 4:10

Preschool Ministry Training for all Volunteers

January 18 • 6:00-7:00pm
Room E247 (multipurpose room)

We will discuss policy and procedures, the importance of why we do what we do for our preschoolers and how we can be joyful in the process!

Dare to Discipline

February 8 - March 1
Sundays • 6:00-7:00pm
Room E247 (multipurpose room)

Join me as we talk about discipline with Dr. James Dobson. Learn about how anger can interrupt your intentions of discipline and how being consistent with discipline is important for you and child. Children thrive in situations where they know and understand limits. You'll be equipped with tools to establish a plan for shaping the will of your child without breaking his/her spirit.
