Joining Hands with God

Dr. Jeff Roberts, Senior Pastor
jroberts@tbcraleigh.com • Twitter: @Jeff_Roberts

For the past 15 years I have had the joy of serving as your Pastor. I cannot begin to express the depth of emotions I feel when I make that statement. In so many ways, Trinity Baptist Church has formed and become a significant part of my identity. In the late 1980s, when I served as your Minister to Students, you gave me opportunities to grow and learn. You welcomed my children into this world and became our second family. When I returned in 2000, you continued to be family to us in so many ways. Your generosity has ensured that we have wanted for nothing and have enabled me to provide for my family in a very comfortable way. Your words of encouragement and concern for me personally are a constant reminder that our relationship of pastor and congregation is a sacred one of community. I am a blessed man. I have spent some time this week thinking about our journey of 15 years. We have grown in number and campus size but I hope more than that we have grown and matured as followers of Jesus. I know that you have always afforded me the freedom to grow as a Pastor and I hope you have felt the same freedom to grow. We have said good-bye to hundreds over these 15 years due to death, moves or those who simply came our way for a while. We have welcomed well over a 1,000 new members during this same time who have chosen to join us as we join God in what God has for us to do in this world. As your Pastor I am thankful for each and everyone who has made Trinity such a special place.

As I look to the future, I am sure that God is not through with us. In fact, I believe we are beginning a new and exciting time as a congregation. There will continue to be change around us, and I hope within us, as we allow God to continue to form us into the family of faith that is needed for the future where God has planted us. I count it a joy to be your pastor.

This coming Sunday we continue our series "Made in God's Image." This Sunday we will be considering together the Biblical teaching concerning the sexual relationship. Although this sermon will not be graphic in any measure, we are creating a separate worship experience for our children during the worship hours. Our children 5th grade and younger will be excused during the service and taken to the Multipurpose Room for a special time of worship that is a continuation of this past week's Children's Day. I think it is going to be an important day for us all as we seek to discover a good gift from God that was meant to be a blessing and joy. I will be looking for you as we consider this important topic.

Music Ministry

Rev. Steve Byers, slbyers@tbcraleigh.com

Music Notes

It was a beautiful day of worship at Trinity as we celebrated the precious gift of children and their leadership in our church. Special thanks to our preschool and children's choirs and their leaders for leading us in song. Our children's choirs work each week to learn new songs for worship and in concert, but they also learn strong biblical truths as they study and work each semester. Please pray for our future worship leaders! Thank you, parents, for bringing your children every week to be a part of our music ministry.

Attention Sanctuary Choir

We sing at Capital Towers on February 16. If you missed last week's rehearsal, we began our song preparation for the night of music. We sing at 7:00 pm and need to be in place no later than 6:50 pm. Make plans to come and minister to the fine folks at Capital Towers. They really appreciate the specialty of this night, and it will be a joy to share with them your special gift of singing!

FirstLight Singers Needed

There is always an open invitation to join a choir at Trinity. We are especially in need of singers for our 8:45 am service to fill the loft with FirstLight. We rehearse at 4:00 pm each Sunday afternoon and we have a great time together. It is an ongoing prayer to see this choir grow by willing servants joining and faithfully serving God in our worship services. There are so many people at Trinity who have choral backgrounds and we need you! Let's talk about getting you started in a choir soon!

Children's Sundays

Made in God's Image

I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made."

– Psalm 139: 14

February 8

We had a wonderful Sunday with our children leading and participating in the worship services. I am so pleased to work in a church that respects our children and allows them an opportunity to serve in this way.

We are made in God's image. In some refracted way, each one of us possesses a small portion of the image of God in a quality that is wondrous and strange. This all powerful, all loving, all knowing, all present, all kindness, all good God is in each of us. We must look for it in each other. We must accept it with each other and affirm one another in creation.

We are created in God's image through Creation and redemption... Just because we are His.

Thank you to an awesome Children's Day Lead Team: Dot Drew, Mable Christian, Bruce Eickhoff, Jo Anne Harper, Skip Granberry, and Leslie Hunt. Your leadership and organization is appreciated and your effort toward our children is greatly valued.

February 15

A special worship event for the children.

Both worship services will have a unique time where children leave and worship in the Grade School Suite—Room E247. Children will be escorted from the worship services to the Multipurpose room for a special worship experience and either taken to Sunday School or picked up from that room. Security procedures will be provided in the Sunday Bulletin.

Words from Carla

Since Children's Day was this past Sunday and our theme for the month of February is "Made in God's image", I'd like to share from Hugs for Mom because a Mom's role in a child's life is important especially reflecting the image of God. Dads, your role is equally important but today let's talk about moms.

When it comes to matters of eternity, moms can see beyond disheveled hair, freshly torn jeans, and smudged faces. Moms can look into the tearful eyes of an un-happy two year old or the questioning eyes of a moody teenager and see not only what it is – but what can be.

As you interact with your children in your daily routines – routines that may seem mundane and far removed from eternity – remember that you are imparting a sense of something much bigger than the here and now. You are imparting seeds of faith. As your children watch you react to sadness, joy, tragedy, success, and failure, they begin to learn what it means to have faith in something beyond themselves.

Your gentle reassurance when things go wrong, your unfailing confidence in the face of apparent failure, your ability to trust God when life seems to be falling apart – these responses give faith structure and meaning. You are the "embodiment" of faith – faith "with skin on." You are the image of Christ to your children, your husband, and those who share in your life.

When you look in the mirror and embrace each morning, wake up knowing you are wonderful and fearfully made. The light that shines from you is the light of Christ and He gives you the strength, courage, discernment, and the ability to be all He has created you to be!

"I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made"

– Psalm 139:14

February 8 - March 1
Sundays • 6:00-7:00pm
