Joining Hands with God

Dr. Jeff Roberts, Senior Pastor
jroberts@tbcraleigh.com • Twitter: @Jeff_Roberts

What are the moments you remember the most? It might be a day of celebration like a graduation day or wedding day. It could be a special Christmas or Easter celebration. It might be the day you chose to follow Jesus and the day you were baptized. All of those days are special days and when we recall them they bring to us joy. There are other days we remember which remind us of grief. The day someone close to you died or a moment when you were scared and facing a difficult physical diagnosis. It could be the day you were laid off from work or were facing an uncertain time in a relationship. There are many days, whether they are days of joy or days of challenge that we remember. Our memory is a powerful gift from God. We know the pain of watching loved ones lose their capacity to remember. In those moments we give God thanks for our memories, even those that are difficult.

This coming Sunday we will gather at the Lord's Table to again remember the Lord's death, resurrection and promise of return. When we read the story of what we refer to as the "Last Supper," we are struck with the emotions of the moment. There are the emotions of joy, sorrow, disappointment and anticipation. As Jesus prepares his disciples for his death he does so with a meal that would take on new meaning and purpose. As we come to the table this week we are going to explore the gift of memory and the power it can play in our lives as followers of Jesus. I hope you will join us this week as we begin our steps toward the cross and Easter, as we consider "Moments Remembered."

As a part of our Lord's Supper Day at church we will also be asking you to remember those who are in need in our community. Each time we gather at the Lord's Table we also use that Sunday to minister to our community. You are encouraged to bring some canned foods with you as part of our food drive for North Raleigh Ministries and also to be reminded that at the end of each of our services we will receive a Love Offering that goes directly to North Raleigh Ministries for the benevolent help in our community.

I am looking forward to coming to the Lords' Table with you this coming Sunday.

Check out www.d365.org for "Journey to the Cross" devotions and a more personal focus on Lent.

TBC's Giving Plans – Your Choice

Since 2010, Trinity has offered its members a choice of mission giving to either the NC Baptist State Convention, the Southern Baptist Convention, the NC Cooperative Baptist Fellowship, National Cooperative Baptist Fellowship, or Trinity Baptist missions.

Each year, the new budget includes an estimate of what we will give to each organization. This amount is a percentage of the undesignated offerings we receive. In addition, one half of one percent of undesignated offerings is given to the Raleigh Baptist Association.

Using the choice of designations shown on members' offering envelopes, the financial administrator applies a formula to calculate the amount of money to send to: the Raleigh Baptist Association, the NC Baptist State Convention – Southern Baptist Convention, and the NC Cooperative Baptist Fellowship - National CBF

Several examples of support from each organization include:

NC Baptist State Convention: Baptist scholarships, Baptist Retirement Homes, Baptist Children's Homes, Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem, and the Biblical Recorder

NC Cooperative Baptist Fellowship: Baptist supported colleges and universities in N.C., plus scholarships to these schools, the Baptist Retirement Homes, Baptist Children's Homes, Women's Missionary Union, and the Baptist Men.

For an explanation of the formula Trinity uses in calculating percentages, contact Jan Brown, financial administrator, in the church office.

Buffet Dinner at Ron's Barn

"Ring of Fire" at Temple Theatre

Thursday, March 5 • 4:15 - 10:15 pm

Cost: $33.50 for Dinner and Show

Due Friday, February 27

We'll travel to Sanford to enjoy a wonderful buffet of seafood, barbeque and home-style cooking at Ron's Barn, then go to Temple Theatre for a production of "Ring of Fire". In "Ring of Fire", a fabulously talented cast of performers takes you into the world Johnny Cash created in his songs. Three dozen songs from the Man in Black's songbook are stitched together to depict the rough-hewn fabric of rural Americana. From the heart of the songs, comes a show about love and faith, struggle and success, rowdiness and redemption. Featured performances include 'Country Boy', 'A Thing Called Love', 'Five Feet High and Rising', 'Daddy Sang Bass', 'Ring of Fire', 'I Walk the Line', 'I've Been Everywhere', 'The Man in Black', and Johnny Cash's final hit, 'Hurt'.

These tickets will go fast! Sign-up today to reserve your seat! The above cost includes everything: meal, beverage, dessert, tax, tip and ticket. Put your check in the lock box at the end of the B Hallway not later than Friday, February 27.

North Raleigh Ministries Love Offering & Food Drive

This Sunday!

Each of the member churches of NRM provides monies with which NRM helps our neighbors in need. At TBC, we help in two ways...first, we budget funds to help cover the expenses of the ministry. Second, when NRM was formed, we decided to collect a special "Love Offering" each time we partake of the Lord's Supper in Worship. In this way, as we remember our Lord Jesus, we also see His face in the lives of those around us that are in crisis, having emergency needs with which we can help. These funds go directly to help through the NRM Crisis Center. Please come to worship Sunday ready to give generously as you leave the sanctuary.

Also bring a BIG bag of non-perishable Food Items with you. Folks at the NRM Food Pantry say they particularly need: Canned Pasta, Canned Corn, Mac & Cheese. The Young Adult Sunday School Class will load the food up and take it to NRM Sunday afternoon. - THANKS!

Music Ministry

Rev. Steve Byers, slbyers@tbcraleigh.com

Special thanks to the Bells of Praise who did an outstanding job in both morning services playing hymn arrangements for the preludes and offertories. Under Sylvia Pearce's leadership, this group has really developed over the years and it is a joy to see their strong desire to lead in worship and to hear them ring with great musicianship each time they ring.

Also, we are grateful for Kurtis Konrad, one of our high school students at Trinity, for his worship leadership at the organ while Wayne Rogers was away. It is really an honor to be involved in a church that recognizes the developing talents that have come our way from time to time. Kurtis comes from a very musical family, and we're so pleased to have all of them worshipping at Trinity and using their gifts for God.

Singers Needed

We are especially in need of singers for our 8:45 am service to fill the loft with FirstLight. We rehearse at 4:00 pm each Sunday afternoon and we have a great time together. It is an ongoing prayer to see this choir grow by willing servants joining and faithfully serving God in our worship services. There are so many people at Trinity who have choral backgrounds and we need you! Let's talk about getting you started in a choir soon!

Words from Karen

What is Lent?

Lent is the period of 40 days before Easter, not including Sundays. Lent began on Ash Wednesday-which was February 18. This begins seven weeks of a time of reflection, repentance, and preparation for Easter.

The Lenten season is a significant time for teaching children about Christ's life and ministry. Our church began observing Lent this week. Families can begin by quietly focusing their hearts on Jesus. We can take a break from day-to-day living and think about what Christ has done for us. Often people choose to give up, fast or deny themselves something so they can focus on what Jesus is all about. You may also wish to give of time, money or resources toward some significant charity or person during this season.

Some resources for children will be available around the Grade School and Preschool Suites for families to use for observing Lent and preparing for Easter. A Seder meal will be offered for grade school children to attend on Maundy Thursday. Many other church activities or worship events are scheduled. Keep checking the newsletter and other promotional areas for events.

The Power of Presence

An article for all fathers by John Blase

I recently found myself in an uncomfortable situation. I was given the Nintendo Wii controller by my son and in no time at all lost all my “lives” and allowed the virtual galaxy to run amuck. My son was quite gracious in the moment. Dad, it's o.k. Just sit with me and watch and you'll get it. I know you will. And so I did. I sat and watched and sat and watched and sat and watched.

Another moment like this occurred. Not a lot of anxiety in this one, but I had to sit down. My daughter asked me to look through a catalog with her. Just sit with me, dad. This'll only take a minute. We sat and looked at every page until we came to the reason for our sit-down. The correct size and color were emphasized, followed by a hug around the neck, a kiss on the cheek, and something like you're the greatest dad ever!

Moments like this seem to be popping up all over my fathering landscape. Moments where I'm reminded of something called the power of presence. Now, lest you think I'm the greatest dad ever, rest assured that for every moment when I've stopped to smell the roses with my children, there have been twice as many moments where the roses had to take a back seat to my own, “more important” little world. But kids are gracious and I'm learning. I'm learning how utterly vital it is to them that I, the father, set aside my adult privileges and sit for awhile and humble myself and enter their world. I don't have to get the high score or even like hoodies; I just have to be there, with them, my presence passing along something to them that may be real close to that word L-O-V-E.

Incarnational fathering. An intentional setting aside of the me in order to enter into the them. And in that moment or moments, it's not necessarily what I say or do, but that I'm there. Now we all know there are moments of action and trailblazing and preparedness that children desperately need from their father. However, I believe there are just as many moments when they long for a power from us that comes primarily from our presence; humbling ourselves, like Christ our example, and entering their worlds. You could call it “fathering in the image of God” – the greatest Dad ever.

Sometimes, doing something for my kids and getting it over with (quickly) so I can get back to what I want to do is nothing more than a broad road to ruin. The narrow road, the one that leads to life, it's not doing anything but being there, physically present, and resting in the promise that the Father up above is looking down in love.

Fathers, don't overlook the power of your presence. Power via humility. It doesn't make a lick of worldly sense. But it may just make an eternal difference in the lives of our sons and daughters. Just sit with me dad. It'll only take a minute...

In your relationships with one another, have the same mindset as Christ Jesus:

Who, being in very nature of God, did not consider equality with God something to be used to his own advantage; rather, he made himself nothing by taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness.

– Philippians 2:5-7

There is still room, come join us!
