Following Jesus...

Dr. Jeff Roberts, Senior Pastor
jroberts@tbcraleigh.com • Twitter: @Jeff__Roberts

I hope the season of Lent and now Easter at Trinity has been as meaningful to you as it has to me. Our weekly moments spent in the shadow of the cross has helped me to spend time reflecting on the cross and the forgiveness of our sins. Our actors and musicians were excellent in leading us each and every week. Easter was a glorious day of celebration from our Sunrise Service, through both of our worship services. What a thrill it was to see two very large crowds for worship, to baptize 7 new Christians and to worship our risen Lord.

The question we must ask after every Easter is “now what”? What are we to do knowing Jesus is alive? Jesus tells us. Jesus sends us into the world with this good news. We are to go from our place of worship into our community serving others, sharing the good news of Christ by word and deed. At Trinity there are so many ways for you to participate in being on mission. This month you can be on mission by giving, serving and even playing.

Be on mission by giving. We are continuing to receive our Home Missions Offering. This offering goes to support missionaries and missions which focus on North America through the Southern Baptist Convention and the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship. As Baptists we make the choice of cooperation. As an autonomous church we are not required to give beyond our own ministries and programs, but we know that the Kingdom of God is larger than our little corner of North Hills in North Raleigh. We give to mission offerings to join others in ministry in ways and places we cannot go ourselves. If you have not given to our Home Missions Offering, I encourage you to do so. There are mission envelopes in your set of envelopes that are mailed to you at home and there are others in the pew rack, or you can contact the church office and we will make sure your gift is received. We are on mission by giving.

Be on mission by serving. This coming Friday and Saturday is our Spring “OperationInAsMuch”. We will go into our community and serve in 23 different mission opportunities. I hope you have already signed-up to serve on one of our teams. If not, you can show up on Saturday, April 26th at 8:30 am in the Fellowship Hall, and we will find you a place of service. You can be on mission by serving. If not

Be on mission by playing. Our annual golf tournament is May 19th at Heritage Golf Club. This is our 10th anniversary of this golf tournament. This is a great day of fellowship with Trinity members and an opportunity to invite friends to be a part of a Trinity event. This tournament supports the Shaw Mission Fund at Trinity. Our ROC site gives this information about the Shaw Mission Fund:

Hugh and Maude Shaw, charter members of Trinity Baptist Church, established the Shaw Missions Fund. This fund provides:

Scholarships for Trinity Baptist members to participate in mission trips.

Resources that teams will use on a mission trip: construction materials, children's curriculum, medicines, etc.

Over the past several years, Trinity adults have gone on mission trips to West Virginia, New Hampshire, Kentucky, Alaska, New Jersey, Cuba, Honduras, Belize, Ukraine, and the Dominican Republic. The Disaster Recovery team has traveled to the North Carolina coast, West Virginia, Florida, Alabama, Louisiana, and to Gulfport Mississippi to help with disaster relief. The Trinity Baptist Student Ministry has taken mission trips to Puerto Rico, Massachusetts, Grifton, Miami, Peru, Charleston, and Kentucky in recent past. The Mission Steering Committee is responsible for the disbursement of the Shaw Fund.

Senior Adult Ministries...the Better Half of Life

Rev. Hal Melton, hmelton@tbcraleigh.com

Sunday, May 4

Senior Adult/ Baptist Heritage Day

The first Sunday of May we celebrate our annual Senior Adult/Baptist Heritage Day by recognizing a Baptist Leader who has made a significant contribution to Baptist life. We also honor and celebrate our own Senior Adults who have been faithful in their service and commitment to our church over the years.

Our Senior Adults will be participating in both worship services and they will be honored with a special lunch immediately following the second worship service. There is no charge for the meal but Seniors must make a reservation by signing the book at the B-hallway bulletin board by April 30 if they plan to attend.

Reaching Out – With Compassion Visiting TBC Members

Nursing Homes & Homebound Visits

Every 3rd Wednesday each Month

Wednesday, May 21 • 10:00 am • Meet in the Fellowship Hall

Many of our Trinity members are currently living in nursing homes, rehab centers, or are homebound and unable to get around. If appreciative smiles brighten your day, then join together with others on Wednesday, May 21 at 10:00am in the Fellowship Hall. You'll be sent out in pairs with specific persons to visit and directions how to get to their home or facility.

At noon, those who can, meet at Wendy's as a group for lunch. This is a great way to bring joy to some Trinity Family members you may have never met...and who need it so badly.

We go visiting each 3rd Wednesday of the month at 10:00am. See you then!

Music Ministry

Rev. Steve Byers, slbyers@tbcraleigh.com

What a great day we had in worship on Easter Sunday! Thank you to our worship leading choirs, Instrumental Ensemble, and Michelle Miller, for leading us in the musical offerings to God on this special day of the church year. Easter is my favorite Sunday of the year, and I enjoy being with our church family on this day. The music of Easter is very celebratory and exciting! It has been a very busy season for the church musically, but we still have more opportunities for our choirs to share in worship and in concert ministry. Stay tuned to the church newsletter for upcoming dates of music for the church body to enjoy!

Choir rehearsals resume on April 23. However, there will be no Instrumental Ensemble that evening. All children's choirs and ensembles will resume their normal rehearsal times.

Words from Andy

A couple of weeks ago, our high school students, during Northbound, were asked to think of questions they were always afraid to ask in church. Many of our students wonder and often hesitant to ask difficult questions because they are not sure how adults would respond. They do not want to be judged, so they keep the questions to themselves. What we desire for our students is that our homes and our church are safe places where they can ask questions.

Andrew Zirschky at the Center for Youth Ministry Training says, "If we are going to respond adequately to the doubting experiences of youth, we need to ensure that young people ... have patient, understanding companions who can guide and care for them through the twists and turns of the journey of doubt." Our parents and adult leaders at church are the companions Zirschky describes.

As parents and adult leaders, we often do not have answers to the difficult questions our teenagers sometimes ask. Brad Griffin of Fuller Youth Institute suggests we have four words in our back pocket for those moments: "I don't know, but..." It's ok to admit that we do not know but together, we can seek out the answers. To help develop the spiritual growth in our students, we have to be open for doubt-filled questions and respond with patient and loving responses. May the Lord place us in these moments as we walk with our teenagers through their spiritual journey.

Words from Carla

Spring has sprung and we are off to warmer weather! We have just celebrated Easter and summer plans are in the near future. As you make plans to be with loved ones for a family reunion, go on a family vacation, or just take a day to be with each other, be sure you take Christ with you. By this I mean, Christ should be an important part of our lives each day, even while on vacation.

It is important that our children see us as disciples of Christ every day, not just at church or around certain people. Live a disciplined life that is honoring to Christ in everything you do and that example will be portrayed to your children as well. This will be the legacy you pass on to the next generation.

Family Connections

Cooking in the kitchen provides a time where kids see their parents in a servant role at home. Let them be a part of serving by preparing a meal together for now, to freeze for later, or for a neighbor.

Easy Enchiladas

- |                           |                             |
|---------------------------|-----------------------------|
| 1 lb. ground beef         | 1 can cream of chicken soup |
| ½ c. chopped onion        | 2 c. grated Cheddar cheese  |
| ½ c. chopped green pepper | corn or flour tortillas     |
| 1 can enchilada sauce     | 1 can refried beans         |
| 8 oz. milk                |                             |

Sauté ground beef, onions, and green peppers. Drain fat and set aside.

In a separate mixing bowl, combine enchilada sauce, milk, soup, and 1 cup grated cheese. Soften tortilla shells (if using corn) in microwave for easy rolling. Spread each tortilla with approximately 1 tablespoon of refried beans; then spoon on some of the beef mixture.

Spoon on some of the cheese-soup mixture and roll up the enchilada. Place it in an aluminum foil pan. Repeat until you've used all the tortillas. Pour any extra sauce over the enchiladas. Sprinkle with remaining cheese. Prepare a baking instruction label, if freezing, and stick it to the pan lid. Bake 30 minutes at 350 degrees.

***Let the children help spoon on the cold mixture and roll the enchiladas.
