Following Jesus...

Dr. Jeff Roberts, Senior Pastor
jroberts@tbcraleigh.com • Twitter: @Jeff__Roberts

In some way, the first two Sundays of May epitomize our devotion to being an intergenerational congregation. The first Sunday is led by our Sr. Adults as we celebrate faithfulness and give thanks to God for his faithfulness and our church's past. On the second Sunday of May, we take time to dedicate the youngest of our congregation as parents stand before their church and vow to raise their children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. It is on this day we think of the future and by faith believe the same God who was faithful in the past has a future for us together.

As an intergenerational congregation, we are devoted to creating moments where we learn from one another and we share in the burdens and hopes of every generation. We find strength in hearing the stories of friends who have walked with God for many decades, and we find encouragement from younger adults and youth who are teaching us what it will mean to engage our culture with the good news of Jesus in the future. I want to encourage you not to take this gift of multi-generations lightly but to celebrate it and to find ways to connect with people of all ages in our church.

One way you can create new relationships across generations is to be a part of our Summer Bible Study on Wednesday nights. This summer, we will be offering the trilogy of books: The Good and Beautiful God, The Good and Beautiful Life and The Good and Beautiful Community. We have had nearly 150 people in the small groups studies over the past three years featuring these thought provoking books. These small group studies allow us to spend time in discussion and reflection with others. You can sign-up for one of these three Bible studies in the Narthex or on Wednesday nights. We begin our summer study on June 4 at 6:30 p.m. Even when you have to be away this summer, this book study is designed so you can continue to read along with the group and be able to participate in discussions once you return.

I always look forward to these Wednesday nights in the summer because it gives me, as your Pastor, time with church members and allows me to build relationships. I hope you will join us.

Deacon of the Week

Kim Sanderson has been a member of Trinity since 1990 and is a native of Rose Hill, NC. She is a Financial Controller for Murphy Brown, LLC. She serves as Sunday School Teacher and Extended Session worker. Kim works with the Hope Alive Adult Sunday School class. She also works with Deacons Boyd Dimmock and Eddie Deyo.

Did you know that... Trinity spends $15,280 per year on paper, postage, supplies and related items. These items seem small or incidental to many of us, but very important items that ensure that our Church operation is progressing smoothly and efficiently. The Stewardship Committee wanted to call your attention to this as part of our initiative to keep members in the know about how our monetary gifts are used.

Cost: 1 lb. - $4 • 4 lbs. - $15 • 8 lbs. - $28

We are teaming up with Hudson Memorial to provide hope for thousands of children in South Sudan through quality education.

The proceeds will be used to provide scholarships to train teachers in South Sudan. Currently, most boys in that country have only a 2nd grade education and girls even less; while many teachers do not have a 6th grade education. These scholarships are for teachers to attend a boarding school to learn how to more effectively teach and thus raise the general level of education of the children of that country.

Buy strawberries to help train a teacher, educate a child, and transform a family.

Senior Adult Ministries...the Better Half of Life

Senior Adult/ Baptist Heritage Day

Sunday was a special worship and fellowship day for the TBC family. Our Senior Adults, those in our Church Family who serve as the "grandparents" of this family of believers, led the congregation in worship, then celebrated our 58 year history on Six Forks Road. They enjoyed a wonderful lunch as they watched a presentation entitled "Remembering the Past, Celebrating the Present, and Anticipating the Future" with pictures and descriptions of the history of our church and plans to come. They also honored the remaining 10 of 91 Charter Members who bravely set out to begin a new church sponsored by the Raleigh Baptist Association. They are: Kathryn Byrd, Dot Drew, Lois Early, Margaret Greene, Marie Norris, Marion & Dorothy Petty, Gene Roberts, Hugh Shaw, and Rachael Thomas.

Special Thanks goes to Shelba Sneed and Betty Cannady for putting together the worship and luncheon, and to those who volunteered to participate in leading worship. Thanks also to Kathy Driver who planned and hosted the Senior Adult Committee's annual Shredding Event mission project on Saturday.

This year's Baptist Heritage Award to honor one who invested heavily into Baptist life in NC and around the world, was presented to Ruby Fulbright, former missionary to Zambia with her husband, Ellis, and Executive Director of NC Womens Missionary Union for many years including the turbulent years of separation from the Baptist State Convention of NC.

Yes, it was a very good day in the life of Trinity Baptist Church, and one that propels us forward into the next 58 years of Joining Hands with God in this place, in NC, in the US, and around the world where God leads.

Music Ministry

Rev. Steve Byers, slbyers@tbcraleigh.com

We have had a wonderful start to our spring concert season. Thank you, Primetimers, Bells of Praise, and The Trinity Laymen for bringing us a fantastic day and night of music this past Sunday. From beginning to end, all of you led us in worship and praise to our Lord and Savior, Jesus. Thank you for the time you dedicate throughout the whole year to our music ministry and church community.

Parents of Children's Choirs... There will be one more children's choir rehearsal after their concert on May 21. This is a night of fun for the children, so keep it on your calendars!

Preschool & Children's Choirs, Missions Recognition

Sunday, May 18 • 6:00 pm

Our children have been active in preparation for this month's spring concert, and it is our hope you will come and support them as they present their music to God in worship. At such young ages, we teach them to be worship leaders in our church with the hope that one day they will continue using their gifts wherever they go to worship. Bring your family and friends to hear the sounds of children's voices as they offer their praises to God.

Summer is a great time to make a short commitment to the Adult Choir or FirstLight. Why not make a special effort to try something new for a short period of time like this summer to be a part of our music community at Trinity? We'd love to have you. Many of you out there have gifts and skills you could be using in our music ministry, and we invite you to find your place where you can serve the Lord through music with us. If you have any questions, please feel free to call and I can assist you with the right ensemble for your voice and lifestyle.

Words from Andy

God has commanded us to go and make disciples to all ends of the earth. In living out this commandment, a team of 30 college students and young adults will be headed to Kenya on May 13-24 to partner with NC Baptist Missions and Kenya Baptist Association in their Houses for Hope project.

The Houses for Hope project focuses on building homes (think huts) in remote villages to gain an opportunity to share the message of Hope through Jesus with everyone in the village. Kenyan Baptists hope to establish a church in each of the villages they build a home. Through our team's work, we will build 16 homes in 16 different villages with the hope of establishing 16 churches in Kenya. This seems like an overwhelming task but through the power of the Spirit, all things are possible!

Even though there will be 30 people on this team, each of you is going with us. Your financial support through the general offering help make these mission experiences possible. Your support of the college students and young adults through the years has prepared them for such a time as this. We ask for your prayers as we go. Please pray for safety in travel and while we are in Kenya. Pray for strength and endurance throughout the 11 days. More than anything else, pray that we will boldly and faithfully share the love of Christ with everyone we meet.

If you would like to hear about the mission experience, there will be a special mission report on Thursday, May 29 at 6:30 in the Chapel. We would love to share with you the impact God made in and through us.

Words from Carla

Happy Mother's Day to All Moms!

Message for Mommy

Being a Mom is a tough job. It does have rewarding moments, but it also entails moments that can cause mothers to feel anxiety at its highest. When these moments arise, remember what Paul teaches us in Philippians 4: 6-7. Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guide your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. That means no concern is too big for God to handle or too small for Him to care about. He cares about everything in your life! Everything from a baby's cry to the power bill, from relationships to bad habits we need to eliminate. He is the author of peace! When you have reason for anxiety but choose to grin a lot, others will see the peace that comes from Him by your calmness. When Christ dwells in you, you can live without anxiety! Present EVERYTHING to God in prayer! He can handle it!

Teachable Moments

Teachable moments with your children will present themselves today. Don't let them pass unnoticed. Be alert to answer your children's needs. Sometimes you may be too tired or busy to notice a yearning child at your feet. Pause for moments to listen to your children everyday. Pray that God's wisdom will flow from you, even in the casual moments. Thank God for persons who provide positive influences in your children's lives. Be grateful for teachers and leaders who help develop spiritual growth in the next generation. Pray for yourself and other adults who influence your children. Teach everyday lessons for physical, social, mental, and spiritual growth. Read a Christian children's book with your child, have prayer with them at bedtime, help them memorize a short Bible verse, or let them see and hear you read the Bible.

She speaks with wisdom, and faithful instruction is on her tongue.

- Proverbs 31:26
