Following Jesus...

Dr. Jeff Roberts, Senior Pastor
jroberts@tbcraleigh.com • Twitter: @Jeff__Roberts

This coming Sunday we will celebrate the graduation of our High School Seniors, as well as those who will have graduated from college and earned other degrees. This time of celebration is always an important moment not only for our graduates and their families, but also for us as a congregation. Much of what we do as an intergenerational congregation, or as we like to refer to it a “family of faith”, is to celebrate and participate in moments of transition in the lives of those we share life with at Trinity. It begins when a child is born and visits from ministers, deacons and Sunday School Class members remind this family they have someone praying and supporting them. It continues in a Parent/Child Dedication where parents and the church give thanks to God for the life of a child and promise to do all they can for this child to be taught about Jesus and to lead this child to faith.

Later, the church gives the child a Bible to read as they enter into the Children’s Ministry. As they transition into Middle School and High School, the church educates parents and students about the changes they are going to face physically, emotionally and spiritually. We pray that somewhere along the way through the conviction of the Holy Spirit and the free will choice of a child, they make a decision to follow Jesus and make a public profession of their faith and are baptized as an outward acknowledgement that they are going to follow Jesus.

In their years of growing up, the children at Trinity will have the opportunity to learn about Jesus, go on mission trips, attend camps, sing and lead in worship, and through weekly activities become an integral part of our congregation.

Graduation Day is another of these moments of transition, which we share with these now young adults. We have watched them grow, mature and change right before our eyes. In just a few short months many will be off to college, some off to work, and others to the military. Life for most will be different. They will not have someone looking over them every moment of the day, which they of course welcome but sometimes miss. They will have to find their own way when it comes to eating, sleeping, exercising, socializing and of course worshipping. It is our prayer that they will not only find their way through this transition, but that they will thrive in this transition.

As they enter college, our College Ministry will be available to them and stay in contact with them while they are away, so that they might be encouraged to know that the same congregation that welcomed them into this world has not let them go but continues to walk with them in a new way.

This coming Sunday is a day of celebration, but it is also a yearly reminder that we share life together. Our responsibility is not only to our family, but also to our family of faith. We are not only responsible for others, but we are accountable to others.

I love this quote from Dietrich Bonhoeffer:

“What determines our brotherhood is what that man is by reason of Christ. Our community with one another consists solely in what Christ has done to both of us. This is true not merely at the beginning, as though in the course of time something else were to be added to our community; it remains so for all the future and to all eternity. I have community with others and I shall continue to have it only through Jesus Christ. The more genuine and the deeper our community becomes, the more will everything else between us recede, the more clearly and purely will Jesus Christ and His work become the one and only thing that is vital between us. We have one another only through Christ, but through Christ we do have one another, wholly, for eternity.”

– Dietrich Bonhoeffer- Life Together

To all of our graduates “Happy Graduation”.

James Bryan Smith's Book Apprenticeship Series

The Good and Beautiful God

We all have ideas that we tell ourselves about God and how He works in our lives. Some are true--but many are false. The most important thing about a person is what they think about God. The path to spiritual transformation begins here.

Turning to the Gospels, you'll go through the process of spiritual formation that includes specific activities aimed at making these new narratives real in your body and soul, as well as your mind.

Join Dr. Jeff Roberts and the Ministerial Staff

...in learning about practicing Christian spiritual formation.

The Good and Beautiful Life

"I have never met a person whose goal was to ruin his or her life. We all want to be happy, and we want it all of the time."

Following the Sermon on the Mount, we look behind these character flaws and replace our false beliefs with Jesus' narratives about life in the kingdom of God.

The Good and Beautiful Community

Acknowledging that Christians tend to emphasize personal faith over social justice, or vice versa, Smith shows how to bring spiritual formation and community engagement together---learning to live in relationship with others as apprentices of Christ and impacting the world in which we live.

N.C. Transportation Museum, Spencer Mills Home for Children, Thomasville

Tuesday, June 10 • 8:00 am - 7:00 pm

Cost: $15 for admission, train ride and gas, plus meals: fast food breakfast, lunch at Hendrix BBQ, dinner at K&W

Limited to 30 Seats

We'll travel to Spencer for a guided tour of the 57-acre site, with a 25-minute train ride pulled by an antique diesel engine. This was once Southern Railroad's largest steam locomotive repair facility on the east coast. The 37-stall Bob Julian Roundhouse, one of the largest ever built, was constructed in 1924. It is one of the few preserved roundhouses remaining in the country and houses about 40 restored locomotives and rail cars. Though known for its trains, the museum also holds one of the last remaining 1910 Buick automobiles in the country and the Melville Dairy Wagon, part of the fleet of six wagons used in Burlington during World War II to conserve gasoline to aid in wartime efforts. The Bumper to Bumper exhibit is an impressive collection of antique automobiles ranging from a 1901 White Steam Stanhope to a 1978 Plymouth N.C. Highway Patrol car. Finally, there is a full size replica Wright Flyer on loan from the Wright Brothers National Memorial.

On the way back to Raleigh, we'll stop in Thomasville for a brief tour of the Mills Home, the original Baptist Children's Home.

Join us for this exciting day. It includes a good bit of walking, but wheel chairs are available when reserved in advance. Sign-up and put your check for $15 made out to TBC in the lock box in the Senior Corner at the end of the B-Hallway or mail it to the church office. Put "Spencer" in the memo line. If you have questions, call Kathy Driver at 919-621-0236.

July 27 - August 3

Wake Interfaith Hospitality Network provides professional case management as well as food, shelter, and transportation for qualified homeless families as they work to restore their independence. WIHN is one of the few agencies in the area committed to helping homeless families stay together. We are assigned 1 host week each quarter when WIHN "guests" make Trinity their home. The WIHN Lead Team needs Trinity volunteers to help in a variety of areas, including overnight host/hostess, driving the WIHN van to transport families to & from the WIHN Day Center, providing evening meals, and spending time in the evenings with the children to give the parents a break. There are opportunities for individuals and Sunday School Classes. Sign-up sheets and brochures for the July WIHN Week will at the Registration Center in the Narthex beginning Sunday, June 29th. You can find more information at www.wihn.org. If you have questions call Jenny Wilson at 271-5967.

Jobs For Life

Begins Sunday, September 14

TBC has partnered with Jobs for Life (JfL) to help those who are underemployed and unemployed in our community to learn about God's plan for work, discover road blocks in their lives to getting a job, and gaining the skills and confidence to do an effective job search. This is done through an excellent curriculum provided by JfL. The Lead Team is ready to offer its 14th class this fall.

If you or someone you know is interested in being a student in this class, please contact the church office (hmelton@tbcraleigh.com or 919-787-3740) to receive an application. Applications are due into the office by Sunday, August 31.

And special thanks to Testament and New Covenant for their night of music this past Sunday evening. Children's Choirs Volunteers Needed

We continue to offer the opportunity for helping with children's choirs in the coming year. As you know, it takes many leaders to help make Wednesday evenings possible for our children and their families. This has served as a great outreach opportunity, too, in that many families come through the doors of the Wednesday Night Program looking for a place to belong. So, we need our choir leadership ready and welcoming! Take some time to pray about where God is leading you to serve and let's plan on finding a place of leadership for you in the choir season ahead!

Words from Lydia

Missions has always held my heart. It was on a missions trip to Chicago that I first heard my calling into vocational ministry, and every act of service in the name of the Lord since then has been a formative step on my journey with Christ. It should come as no surprise, then, that Kenya changed the lives of our missions team members. I have to thank God and thank you, Trinity Baptist Church, for supporting our team answering this call to serve God and God's people in Kenya.

I am still in the process of understanding and praying through all that happened on this trip, but one of the most important and life-giving outcomes of our time there was that I was able to witness the spiritual formation by the Holy Spirit in the life of each team member. We will all tell you that we were ministered to by the Kenyan pastors, translators, and people more than we could have ever imagined or hoped to minister to them. As we witnessed the Spirit's movement in these people and places, we began to recognize the Spirit's movement within our own hearts. We began to recognize our own insufficiencies, and we learned to rely solely on God's Spirit living, moving, and working within us and without us.

In the short time that we were there, we saw the building, dedicating, and beginning of sixteen new homes, new families, and new churches. We were witness to over 300 lives changed by the acceptance of Christ and many more changed just by being witness to such awesome sights. God has blessed us by bringing us together as brothers and sisters, and this experience in Kenya has made our world a little smaller and has brought our brothers and sisters a little closer.

It is my prayer that you, Trinity Baptist Church, will know the power of the Holy Spirit to move you into action, to urge you into serving, and to empower you to bear the Light of Christ to everyone you meet.

Words from Carla

Sing unto the Lord today, no matter how your day is going, rejoice and sing. Shout out to the Lord while you are vacuuming, washing clothes, making sandwiches, or washing dishes!

God promises these things:

- He will be with you ALWAYS!
- He is mighty to save you! You can trust Him because He is sovereign.
- He takes great delight in you! God is proud of you, His child.
- He will quiet you with His love! Do you need quieting today? He loves you, and will soothe you.

We need volunteers for Wednesday nights during our adult Bible Study.

Wednesdays Evenings

6:30 - 7:30pm

If you would be interested in volunteering contact Carla at cbabb@tbcraleigh.com or (919) 787-3740 ext.4859

- He will rejoice over you with singing! WOW! What a thought! We rejoice over Him regularly, But He, unbelievably, rejoices over us too! He loves you and sings over you!

Relax and spend time giving joy to your child as your Father gives to you. Teach your child to sing to God with a simple song like "Jesus Loves Me."

Enjoy these moments!

"The Lord your God is with you, He is mighty to save. He will take great delight in you, He will quiet you with His love, He will rejoice over you with singing."
