Following Jesus...

Dr. Jeff Roberts, Senior Pastor
jroberts@tbcraleigh.com • Twitter: @Jeff__Roberts

I can remember the thrill as a child of being chosen by the teacher to go outside and clean the chalk erasers. (We were easily amazed) I don't know if it was because you were able to go outside or if it was the thrill of knocking the erasers together and watching the chalk fly. I can only remember that being chosen was thrilling. If you grew up when chalk and erasers were used, you truly understand the meaning of the term "wiping the slate clean." Of course, those in later generations will remember dry erase boards and pens. I assume our best analogy of "wiping the slate clean" today is our delete button on our computers. We have always longed for a way to "wipe the slate clean" and start over. Whether it is covering a drawing in the sand, erasing a chalkboard, wiping a dry eraser board or deleting an item digitally; we long to be able to start again.

There are many moments in life we would like to be able to do over. We can recall moments of failure or when we did not do our best. We can remember moments when knowing what we know now, we would have made a different decision. God had such a moment. In Genesis 6:5 we read:

Following Jesus... continued

The Lord saw how great man's wickedness on earth had become and that every inclination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil all the time. The Lord was grieved that He had made man and His heart was filled with pain. So, the Lord said, "I will wipe mankind, who I have created, from the face of the earth-for I am grieved that I have made them. But Noah found favor in the eyes of the Lord."

God arrived at a point where the sin of men and women was so great that God wanted to start over. This is the story of the flood. What can we learn from this story when God "wiped the slate clean"? This coming Sunday we will consider the story of Noah as we continue our series on "Vacation Spots of the Old Testament". My sermon will be from Genesis 6 and it is entitled "Noah's Sea Cruise and God's Reset". I hope you will join us for worship and Sunday School.

June 4 - August 17 • Wednesday Evenings • 6:30 - 7:30pm

James Bryan Smith's Book Apprentice Series

The Good and Beautiful God • B231

We all have ideas that we tell ourselves about God and how He works in our lives. Some are true--but many are false. The most important thing about a person is what they think about God. The path to spiritual transformation begins here.

Turning to the Gospels, you'll go through the process of spiritual formation that includes specific activities aimed at making these new narratives real in your body and soul, as well as your mind.

Join Dr. Jeff Roberts and the Ministerial Staff

...in learning about practicing Christian spiritual formation.

The Good and Beautiful Life • B239

"I have never met a person whose goal was to ruin his or her life. We all want to be happy, and we want it all of the time."

Following the Sermon on the Mount, we look behind these character flaws and replace our false beliefs with Jesus' narratives about life in the kingdom of God.

The Good and Beautiful Community • B236

Acknowledging that Christians tend to emphasize personal faith over social justice, or vice versa, Smith shows how to bring spiritual formation and community engagement together--learning to live in relationship with others as apprentices of Christ and impacting the world in which we live.

Childcare is available for Bible Studies upon request.

Music Ministry

Rev. Steve Byers, slbyers@tbcraleigh.com

Special thanks for Jordan Roberts and Liz Brantley as they shared their duet in worship this past Sunday morning. Thank you, Joy Blashaw, for leading in my place while on vacation, and for Barbara Bowen filling in for Wayne while he is away. I thank God for the tremendous, giving hearts of musicians like we have here at Trinity. We are blessed to have people who will step in and lead with passion and commitment. Thank you all for the excellent job you do all year long!

Choir rehearsals for the Adult Choir will continue through June 25, but we will be taking a short break in July. We will not rehearse in July until the 27th of the month. Choir members, please add these dates to your calendars.

Our Instrumental Ensemble is now "Trinity Orchestra" and will be featured at our Patriotic Celebration on June 29. This group has really grown over the past few years and has dedicated itself to accompanying worship and to be a featured group in our music ministry. But there is room for more! We will be rehearsing through June and take a break in July. We will resume again in August. Plan to be a part....dust off your instruments stored in the closet, take a deep breath, and go for it! We'd love to have you join this fantastic musical ensemble in praising God through orchestral music.

Patriotic Celebration

June 29 • 6:00 pm

This will be a great time to come eat and fellowship as we celebrate our nation's birth together. We will have a cookout and music provided by the Trinity Orchestra, as well as the Adult Choir. Pepper is an active composer, conductor and humorist and has gained a reputation as one of the most creative writers in church music today with a diverse musical background. Many of you have heard him before in concert and have enjoyed his music and humor. Our Adult Choir had the honor and privilege of singing his music at Carnegie Hall last February. Mark your calendars for this special night at Trinity.

Words from Andy

Thank you for all of your kind words of affirmation and encouragement over the past couple of weeks concerning my completion of the Doctor of Ministry degree from Fuller Seminary. The doctoral journey over the past 3.5 years has been fruitful and actually pretty fun. This is not to say that I didn't have moments where I considered whether I was cut out for the program. This degree pushed me academically to points I did not know I could reach. It caused me to be more diligent with my time and ruthlessly stick to a self-imposed schedule. More than anything, it allowed me to develop a love for reading and learning.

I have thoroughly enjoyed the journey of learning and growing as a minister. Through the program at Fuller Seminary (Pasadena, CA), I've made lasting friendships with colleagues who are making an impact for the Kingdom through the program. I've learned a wealth of knowledge from my academic mentor, Chap Clark. Above all, I've learned to love God more and to love people with greater compassion and grace. It truly has been an incredible journey.

I want to thank Trinity Baptist Church for allowing me to pursue higher education. You've allowed me to be away from the church to learn and grow. You've allowed me to apply what I was learning to our ministry together. You've encouraged me when I needed a little boost of confidence that this was possible. I want to also thank Lydia Tatum for taking up the slack when I was away and when I was preoccupied with reading and research. Of course, this journey would not have been possible without Amy's support. Thank you for always making the sacrifice as I pursued my goals.

I am truly a blessed individual to have so many people in my life who desire the very best for me. I am humbled by your love and support.

Words from Carla

Some of my most favorite times with my children were in the summer. Going swimming, having picnics, bike rides, movie nights, going to the beach, playing board games, serving Christ together, and just spending time with one another have become treasures I will always keep close in my heart. Making time to be together has always been a priority for our family. I have learned that time goes much too fast and they grow up in a blink of an eye. I am blessed and grateful that they now remember and cherish those moments too. We still find time to be together amongst all our busy schedules. Yes, it is difficult, but another important lesson that God has revealed to me. He allowed Jeff and I to raise and share our faith with our children and to never wait

Reminder: ETC Volunteers

ETC hostesses begin working on your volunteers for the next church year. ETC will begin new on August 31.

If anyone is willing to volunteer and help with ETC for the next church year, please let me know. We would love your help! Thanks!

Missing Pagers

Please check at home, in your car, in your purse, diaper bags, etc. and see if you have any pagers from the preschool area. We are missing several. If you have one, please return them to an ETC hostess or Carla. Thank you!

until tomorrow to share a cherished moment today. I am grateful God blessed me with a wonderful husband and my children with an awesome Godly father.

I have to thank God for always placing “surrogate” men in the lives of a child, who may not be fathers biologically, but they have invested time and shared their faith and love in a little ones’ life. You are honored and remembered on Father’s Day and every day.

Whether you are called Dad, Daddy, Pop, Pa, Father, etc., God has given you a gift in a child; enjoy being loved. To all the Fathers, not just on Father’s Day, I pray you have incredible days filled with God’s blessings!

VBS is off to a great start!

We are wandering in the wilderness with Moses and his sidekick, Milicah.

Stay tuned...

Next week, we will report on our adventures. TRUST GOD!
