Joining Hands with God

Dr. Jeff Roberts, Senior Pastor

jroberts@tbcraleigh.com • Twitter: @Jeff__Roberts

Last week, I shared with you information about the meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention. This past week, I attended the 2016 Assembly of the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship in Greensboro. This is always a great time for me personally, as I get the opportunity to see so many friends from seminary and other states where I have served. I always think the relationships are the best part of the CBF Assembly. I was also proud of several actions initiated by the Fellowship this year. To understand CBF you have to first understand that unlike the Southern Baptist Convention, the CBF is not a denomination. CBF is a partnership of churches, individuals and ministry organizations who have covenanted together to do ministry together. The CBF's major reason for existence is to create a partnership for global missions. To achieve the goal of global missions, CBF partners with Baptist Unions and Organizations all over the world.

In my opinion there were two important initiatives undertaken this year by the CBF. The first one was to adjust its model for funding full time missionaries. At a time when many mission organizations are moving to self funding or short term missionaries, the CBF is choosing to make the presence of long term resident missionaries a priority. The CBF believes that the transformation of the gospel in communities and with people groups all over the world require a long term presence. The presence of a missionary who lives with the people and builds relationships and proclaims the gospel message is still the best model for ministry. To this end, the CBF adopted a new funding process where every missionary will receive equitable support. In addition, the new model will seek to give local churches the opportunity to help fund ministry and programs of our long term missionaries. In this model, two things are important for a local church like Trinity. First, our gifts to Global Missions Offering is of utmost importance in keeping missionaries on the field. Second, we must continue to send our own short-term mission teams to partner with CBF field personnel. In recent years, our work in Belize and in McCreary County, Kentucky are great examples of our short-term teams partnering with CBF Partnerships.

Another initiative I am proud of CBF to undertake is called the Illumination Project. The Illumination Project is a process which will guide the CBF through cultural and theological differences that might cause disunity in our partnerships. Since the CBF is not a denomination, it does not require uniformity when it comes to it's partnering churches. Our unity is found in our willing cooperation with one another. Celebrating the autonomy of the local church, CBF churches are diverse in certain practices of faith. These differences might range from who the church chooses to ordain, a church's ministry partners, or requirements of baptism and membership, to a church's view on more culturally divisive issues. The Illumination Project is a process to help CBF continue to value unity through cooperation and a global mission with global mission partners.

As I thought about the Illumination Project, I thought about Trinity Baptist Church. As I look out each Sunday, I see our wonderful and unique membership. I sometimes wonder how we, as a church, have found such unity in our diversity. On each pew in worship and in each Sunday School class there are those who disagree on almost every major cultural issue of our day. In our study of God's word we celebrate different interpretations, meaningful conversation and dialogue. Yet, we are united in ministry. Why? We are committed to the Lordship of Jesus. We believe the Bible is our authority for the practice of faith and we are committed to study it and choose obedience to its instruction. We are committed to love each other above all else. We are convinced we should love those who are not a part of our church as our neighbors. Our unity at Trinity is no great secret. It is the result of being a faithful to Jesus and to one another.

It has worked for Trinity. I am convinced it will work for CBF. Our world is in desperate need for us to bear witness to the risen Christ. There is too much at stake for us not to do it together.

West Virginia Flooding TBC Response Plan

NC Baptist Disaster Relief is responding to the flooding devastation in WV. We have notified those in charge that Trinity will be focusing on the area around Hines, WV, where Star Davis has relatives including the pastor of Hines Baptist Church. This is in Greenbrier County one of the hardest hit areas.

As soon as plans are finalized for the first mission we will send a mass email to all church families. So please begin to pray that God will open doors for you to go and help. This area is still underwater and is expecting more flooding rain today.

Also, if your Sunday School Class wants to help, here is a list of items Star has from Hines Baptist Church: cleaning supplies, shovels, brooms, towels, washcloths, clothes, blankets, and canned food. We can also send funds to Star's uncle who is pastor of Hines Baptist Church for that small congregation to use to reach out and help their neighbors in need.

Music Notes

Special thanks to Jessica Isaacs for leading in worship this past Sunday morning while I was away on vacation. How great it is to know that when I am away, I can rely on friends and gifted musicians to lead and keep things going for our choirs and worship!

FirstLight Choir will resume this Sunday at 8:00 am. This is our rehearsal time for each Sunday through Labor Day.

The Sanctuary Choir will not rehearse July 13, 20, and 27 and August 3. We will be doing familiar songs in worship each Sunday that we know well. Our rehearsal time on Sunday mornings will be our only rehearsal for these anthems. After the construction begins, rehearsals will resume on August 10. With the construction beginning sometime in August, our rehearsals will shift to the Chapel on Sunday nights at 7:30 pm. This rehearsal time remains through Labor Day.

In just a couple of months we will begin our fall schedule of choir rehearsals. Some rooms will change due to the construction, but all changes will be available in the church newsletters as plans and needs require. We will have to experiment with some of our musical groups when we worship in the gym. We will be making some challenging steps to get the gym ready for worship and we ask for your patience. Begin to pray for our transition to the gym and for what God has in store for us there.

HS Sunday Parking

As we prepare for our exciting new building project, we are hoping to ease our parking woes in a couple of ways. What we are asking for our high school students who happen to drive separately from their parents is this:

- Ride with your parents in ONE CAR
- Park on the back property behind the ROC on Manchester.

This is just one simple way that we can be a part of helping our church as we seek to make room for others!

Education & Families

Rev. Karen Metcalf Eickhoff, kmetcalf@tbcraleigh.com

Words from Karen

I am a firm believer that our children need and deserve our best quality teachers and leaders. They need commitment and dedication modeled for them in an effort to grow into the person God can use. My soul knows God is preparing someone right now to share his/her faith this way. I hope you are in prayer for God's discerning work to be in your life.

Currently, we have the most awesome and Spirit-led adults teaching our children each week. However, there comes a time when one needs adult interaction, deeper spiritual teaching, and just a chance to re-energize for the journey. This is where we find ourselves with leadership this year. I am so grateful for the commitment that many of our teachers have given—over 10+ years in one grade school classroom. This is unheard of in many churches. Thank you does not seem adequate. But we know our reward is not of this world.

This said -we must look to the need at hand. I ask you to pray with me, encourage me, encourage our Nominating Committee, and seek to be open in your own life to how God could use you in the teaching ministry at Trinity. You are an awesome congregation to serve. May God's spirit continue to guide us in all we seek to do and be in 2016-2017.

VOLUNTEER: Be a part of Extended Teaching Care!

Extended Teaching Care (ETC) is a ministry that allows parents of our congregation to place their babies and preschoolers in a secure environment where they can learn while parents worship. We are looking for adults who love children, want to nurture children, and are looking for a way to serve here at Trinity. Remember you only serve 4 times a year! Your volunteering makes a BIG difference in the kingdom and allows us to teach our youngest about the love of God. It makes a difference in the life of a child AND their parents!

Please call the church office, or email me at kmedlin@tbcraleigh.com if you are interested or have questions.

Teaching Opportunities

The nominating committee needs your help! They are now in the process of filling positions for the fall. When you are called please prayerfully consider where you can serve!

Missing Pagers

We are missing quite a few pagers. If you have accidentally taken a pager home on a Sunday morning please return it as soon as possible!

Remember Our Mission Project

Disaster Relief: Children's Comfort Kits

During VBS we started collecting comfort kits for children in preparation for the aftermath of a disaster like a hurricane. Various Baptist Conventions and other Baptist Men's organizations could take comfort kits to children that are victims of a disaster. This year we are collecting items for a Child's comfort kit or a Baby comfort kit. We are providing gallon size ziploc bags to use for the kits. (We ask that you choose four items from the list below, mark the age on the provided form and mark the possible gender then return the sealed kit to VBS or SS.

Age breakdowns are as follows:

Baby: 0-3 months, 3-6 months, 6-9 months, 9-12 months, 12-18 months, 18-24 months

Child Package: 2-3 years, 4-5 years, 6-7 years, 8-9 years, 10-12 years

Needs List: Choose 4 Items to include in your gallon bag.

Baby: diaper, baby nail clippers, sippy cup, pacifier, diaper shirt, handi-wipes, small soft washable toy or soft book.

Child: new small stuffed animal, wash cloth, doll, books, puzzles, small games, colors/coloring book, small toy (age appropriate—cars for boys, etc.), comb/brush

For all kits: Bibles and small notes are always welcomed.

We appreciate all who choose to help with this ministry. What a fun way to be proactive before a disaster happens. Just look for the extra forms around on the grade school hallway or in the church office. Feel free to grab a gallon size bag and bring it with you to church for collection! We will be doing this through the end of June. Thank you!
