Deepen The Ties That Bind

Dr. Jeff Roberts, Senior Pastor • jroberts@tbcraleigh.com • Twitter: @Jeff__Roberts

As I write my article this week, I am reminded of the years of prayer, work and deliberation that has brought us to this coming Sunday. It has been nearly a decade since a conversation in a Trustee meeting began the process that would become the Facilities Master Planning Committee. This committee has worked diligently over the years to help us arrive at this time of construction. Along the way, so many others joined in through our Capital Campaign, Financial Assessment Team, Transition Team and Construction Team. Others, who were serving on various committees in the church, also became involved in this incredible process. In addition, our church continued to discuss, deliberate, pray and vote to move forward in this important undertaking.

As you Pastor, I know the anxiety that many of you might be feeling during this time of transition. Any time we are asked to change our routine or move from familiar surroundings there is hesitancy. I am confident that our Transition Team and Church Staff have done all they can to make this move as easy as possible. We have tried to make sure that our schedule stays the same each Sunday, as well as making sure we have room for everyone when it comes to worship and Sunday School. I am sure we will discover other needs and challenges along the way, and we will work hard at addressing these as they are discovered.

This past Sunday, as I was preaching on Abraham being called to go to a place he did not know, God was speaking to me. Yes, as odd as it might sound, sometimes my sermons speak to me. I've been reflecting on the term I used, "unsettled." In Genesis, Abraham along with his father traveled to Haran and "settled" there. Later, God would call Abraham to pack up everything he had and set out on a journey to a land he would show him. In Hebrews 11, the writers remind us that Abraham lived in tents. In other words, Abraham became "unsettled." What excites me is the Bible attests that God does wonderful things in times when people are unsettled. Whether it is Abraham, Joseph, or Moses in the Exodus, the time of Exile or even the scattering of the Church from persecution in the book of Acts; an unsettling creates an incredible opportunity to experience God in new ways.

My friends, this is my prayer as we enter this important week. As we gather in the Sanctuary for worship and we recall all of those wonderful moments of worship in that room, we will also with great courage and excitement... exit on Sunday, making our own journey across the campus to the R.O.C. with the expectation of God doing something new in our lives throughout the next 16 months.

The time has come for us to be obedient to God's call to us as a congregation. What we are getting ready to embark upon will set the course for our church for generations to come. Just as those 60 years ago met and covenanted together formed Trinity Baptist Church, we too must covenant together to pray, serve, give and be faithful to each other... and to our congregation in these

Jobs For Life Champions Needed

New Class Beginning September 11

TBC is sponsoring its 16th Jobs for Life Class beginning in September with classes being held on Sundays 5:00-7:00pm and Wednesdays 6:30-8:30pm. We will begin with our "Meet & Greet" on Sunday, September 11th at 5:00pm with the first class starting Wednesday, September 14th.

"Champions" (or mentors) are special people who give encouragement and support to fellow students – cheering them on to graduation. We are looking for people who are willing to commit to 1 or 2 nights a week for eight weeks, who enjoy establishing life-long friendships. We have a training session scheduled for Sunday, August 21st, 5:00-6:00pm in room A214 for your benefit. So please pray about this and see how God wants to use you in this awesome ministry.

Please let one of us know soon about your willingness to serve. Blessings, Pat Royals proyls@royalscontracting.com, and Stephanie Treadway satread1@att.net.

MARRIAGE Enrichment Groups (First Year and Ongoing)

Begin Friday, September 9 Sign-up on Narthex Board Now!

A Marriage Enrichment Group (MEG) is an ongoing small group that provides a safe place for married or engaged couples to explore their relationship among supportive peers. Each MEG is as unique as the couples in them! All couples are there to strengthen and grow their relationship, and have fun doing it.

We will build skills toward enriching four things that will encourage a healthy marriage relationship:

- A Commitment to Growth
- An Effective Communication System
- The Creative Use of Conflict
- Frequent Expressions of Affection and Affirmation

MEGs meet once a month. The "First Year" group will meet the 2nd Friday of each month during the school year in the Underground. "Ongoing" groups (alumni) meet in a home with up to 10 couples including a Leader Couple. Each month we will address a different topic. Though there is social time, the majority of the time is spent with couples dialoguing about the weekly topic as it concerns their relationship.

Music Ministry

Rev. Steve Byers, slbyers@tbcraleigh.com

Our church accompanists, Barbara Bowen, Ramona Green, and Wayne Rogers, continue to amaze us at Trinity. As we begin to close a chapter of worship services in our current sanctuary, I am reminded anew just how much these folks add to our worship services and choir ministry at Trinity. We will not experience these sounds in the gym for a while, but we can most assuredly look forward to the day we return back to the sanctuary and hear them play with such mastery for the Master! Thank you for your great work and the dedication you offer to the Lord through the gift of music. We are blessed people.

Primetimers Choir begins on September 13 and we welcome Sylvia Pearce as director! Sylvia is one of our dedicated musicians who has led music for many years and is currently our Bells of Praise director. The Primetimers Choir has a fun and rich experience every week as they fellowship and prepare for ministry. We welcome her and her gifts as we begin a new journey together, and it is a true answer to prayer that she comes to our leadership team. The choir begins in a few weeks, so don't forget to mark your calendars and come be a part of this special group of friends and church family!

This year, we will be joining our Middle School and High School Choirs into ONE Student Choir on Sunday nights at 6:00 pm. 6th-12th grade students will learn worship songs, music, and prepare for worship leadership. Explanations of our new direction have been presented in the 6th Grade Orientation and at the Parent Student Luncheon as well as mailed this past week. We will meet in the Underground on Sunday evenings. We begin on September 11. Make sure you look at the dates and get them in your calendars. See you in a few weeks!

Sunday, August 28

Do you have a rising Kindergarten child? Is he/she ready for Worship? On August 28th, when we have Advancement Day, the rising Kindergarten children will no longer have extended care. Parents, let me encourage you to begin bringing them into the worship services. Introduce them to the ushers, worship leaders, and fellow pew friends. Encourage them to use the hymnal, give an offering and pray when we pray. Of course they will wiggle and squirm, but they are learning and worshipping. Let them know how important worship is to you. You are teaching and modeling respect and reverence for God.

Where do I go? With advancement Sunday right around the corner are you wondering where your child's new classes are?

Everyone is invited to be a part of our 2016 Fall Kick-Off Week.
