Deepen The Ties That Bind

Dr. Jeff Roberts, Senior Pastor • jroberts@tbcraleigh.com • Twitter: @Jeff__Roberts

I am sometimes overwhelmed by the commitment and service of the members of Trinity Baptist Church. This was the case last week when a group of members showed up to help us vacate the Sanctuary and finish setting up the ROC. Under the supervision of Stewart and Kim Price, the transition move went quickly and smoothly. Many members showed up to move boxes, hymnals, and furniture. There were many of our retirees and others who either took a vacation day from work or stopped their normal schedules just to be a part of the process. I cannot say thank you enough.

We have completed day one in the ROC for worship, and I am so thankful for all those who have worked so hard to make this transition possible. We purposely chose for our first day to be on the holiday weekend. We believe having a smaller crowd to move will give us insight on things we might have overlooked or could not foresee. We will continue to grow in our understanding of moving people from place-to-place, as well as creating the time needed for members to get from worship to Sunday School or Sunday School to worship. All in all, it was a great day of worship. This coming Sunday, we will dedicate the ROC as our new worship space during our worship services. I am looking forward to being with you on this special day.

This weekend is also our North Hills 5K. This race, through our North Hills community, has become an important yearly time of connecting with our neighbors, all while raising money for the "Backpack Buddy" program for North Raleigh Ministries. Come and be a part of race day. You can volunteer, run, walk, or just enjoy welcoming folks to our campus. I hope to see you there on Saturday morning at 9:00 a.m.

Class Begins Wednesday, September 14
Sundays • 5:00-7:00pm

These 16 classes (2 per week for 8 weeks) are designed to strengthen the students' confidence in themselves and the assets they bring to potential employers. JfL also magnifies the spiritual aspect of Work – God worked, created the world, and continues to work in our lives today. It also helps prepare the students for a successful job search, getting resumes tuned up, honing online job search skills, and also perfecting a “60 Second Commercial” about themselves.

If you know someone who is looking for a job, please encourage them to take this Jobs for Life class. Flyers are available in the church office or by contacting Stephanie Treadway at satread1@att.net.

SUPPORT / PRAYER GROUP

Adult Children of Aging Parents

Thursday, September 8 • 6:30pm • Parlor

If your senior adult parent(s)' care weighs heavily on your mind, this every-other-month gathering is for you. All of us struggle with “honor your father and your mother” and what it is at this stage in our lives. Hearing each other's stories and how you are dealing with this helps participants understand that they are not alone. It gives us the opportunity to lift each other and our parents in prayer.

An email reminder is sent out several days before the gathering. To get on the list, please send an email to hmelton@tbcraleigh.com. Join us when you can! It is not a Bible study, and so you can miss and jump back in.

Roberta and Hal Melton will go over the purpose and function of MEGs in this Information / Interest Session. You'll also get to hear testimonies from couples of all ages who have experienced the first year and realized the benefit it is to growing their marriage for life. Following this first session, you can commit to one of the groups and begin enjoying these monthly Friday night sessions together with other couples who you will get to know well over the course of September - May.

All you need to do is let us know you are coming so that we can have ample dessert and drink ready for the meeting. Email Roberta at rmelton8184@gmail.com. There's nothing for you to bring. Music Ministry

Rev. Steve Byers, slbyers@tbcraleigh.com

I want to thank you, church, for the many phone calls, emails, and personal greetings of encouragement over the last week while I was away with my father in Virginia. I truly missed being here to celebrate such a fantastic day in our church, but I left town knowing that all was done with excellence and that the leadership was in place to carry it through. I cannot thank you enough for the grace you extend to us as staff on a daily basis, as we, too, have family members needing care and support through difficult times. I am mindful of those famous words from a well-known hymn that give me encouragement: "What a privilege it is to carry everything to God in prayer." I know you joined us in our time of need, and know that you and your families are lifted in prayer also as you face each of life's challenges and triumphs. Thank you so much for your care.

What a joy it is to share with you the celebration of over 30 years of service by our Trinity Laymen! This quartet has proclaimed the love of Christ through gospel music with joy and great passion. Sadly though, Bill Gard, one of our faithful musicians who sings lead in the group, has announced his retirement from the quartet after many solid years of dedication and love for sharing Jesus with others through music. After speaking with him this week, he is sad but also looking forward to a new era for the Laymen. You can see that he has poured his heart into the music and the message they shared, and we will miss him greatly. Mark Valletta, one of our dedicated tenors at Trinity, is going to become the newest member of the Trinity Laymen and carry on the rich tradition of music this quartet provides here and beyond our doors. As you pray this week, give thanks to God for the Laymen, for Bill, for Mark, and for the incredible gift of music God has given to us in our church. God has blessed us immeasurably at Trinity, and our music ministry has much to offer and uphold in worship leadership. What a joy it is to see people step-up to the call of need and service and use their gifts for God's glory!

Fall Retreat Chaperones: We are excited about our weekend retreat to Camp Don Lee on October 21-23. Registration forms have been mailed out! Please turn those in as soon as possible so we can make sure we have enough S'mores for everyone!

HS SUNDAY PARKING

As we prepare for our exciting new building project, we are hoping to ease our parking woes in a couple of ways. What we are asking for our high school students who happen to drive separately from their parents is this: 1) Ride with your parents in ONE CAR. 2) Park on the back property behind the ROC on Manchester. This is just one simple way that we can be a part of helping our church as we seek to make room for others!

Fall Retreat

October 21 -23 • Cost: $115

We will be returning to Camp Don Lee for our Fall Retreat this October! This retreat is open to both High School and Middle School students. It will be a weekend filled with worship, games, rest, and time spent together. Registrations are in the process of being mailed out and are due by October 2nd.

PRESCHOOL & CHILDREN'S Ministry Lead Teams

Lead Teams are individual teams that come together to promote, organize, plan and implement an event or ministry activity. We use adult and child volunteers. We offer 4 Children's Ministry Lead Team events throughout the year. This is a wonderful way to connect in a personal way with our Children's Ministry. Please consider joining a lead team. Contact Karen or Katie or sign-up in the Narthex or on the Grade school hallway. You will be contacted about serving. Here are our Lead teams: Children's Day, Easter Event-Preschool, Easter Event-grade school and VBS.

Words from Katie

As we begin a new church year, I've been reviewing the ways that preschoolers learn so we can teach our children to the best of our abilities. I wanted to share some ways that they learn. As you look over the ways that preschoolers learn from an article by Tommy Sanders, I encourage you to think of ways you can incorporate his learning styles within your preschool ministry. We have been given and trusted with the great (and rewarding) task of teaching our youngest members. May we do it with joy, grace, and to the best of our abilities!

Senses: Preschoolers learn to discover the things God has made through touching, smelling, tasting, hearing, and seeing.

Curiosity: Exploring the world is a lifelong process. Curiosity in the adult world is evidenced by space programs, science, technology, archaeology, and through many careers and fields of study. A preschooler's curiosity drives him to explore, discover, and ask "why?"

Hands On Experience: "Hands-on" means teaching the child in an activity that leads her to a greater understanding of a Bible truth. In hands on teaching, preschoolers are guided through an activity toward a Bible truth that can be understood and applied in that moment and in the child's life.

Satisfaction: When a child is involved in satisfying experiences, the child gains a sense of accomplishment. As a result, the child can realize that he is unique and created in the image of God.

Relationships: Relationships form eternal connections between the child and biblical truth. For preschoolers, who do not have the benefit of adult language, the relationship with a teacher becomes a living commentary on the Scripture.

Imitation: How does a child learn to respect and love others? She begins to learn by the way she is loved and respected. Preschoolers follow the lead of adults in their lives. Actions as well as words of adults teach the child.

Play: Playing and learning are inseparable for preschoolers. Play offers the greatest opportunity for Bible teaching. Through play, a child can learn and apply important truths, relate in positive ways to others, accept responsibility, and solve problems. But play is just activity unless the teacher guides the activity and discussion toward foundational biblical truths.

Repetition: "Not this Bible story again." This statement is uttered by some adults who teach preschoolers. These adults don't understand that preschoolers need the repetition of Bible truths and Bible stories. Repetition allows the child to build on previous foundational truths and understand more fully the truth he has already heard.

Join us in our mission project:

We want our youngest members to learn about missions here at Trinity. This fall we are partnering with the Wake County Pajama Program. Pajama Program provides new pajamas and new books to children in need nationwide, many of whom are waiting to be adopted. These children live in group homes, shelters and temporary housing facilities and are shuffled often from one place to another. We are inviting and asking you to participate with us this fall as Mission Friends. Please bring in a new set of pajamas in your child's size as well as a new book that a child might enjoy reading during bed time. I encourage you to take your child with you to help select the book and pajamas. This will be an opportunity for you to have a conversation with your child about missions and why it is important to help others. Collection will be September 7th through October 28th.

Please let Katie know by September 7th if you will need childcare for the September 11th viewing of War Room.
