Deepen The Ties That Bind

Dr. Jeff Roberts, Senior Pastor • jroberts@tbcraleigh.com • Twitter: @Jeff__Roberts

This coming Sunday, I will conclude our series on “Essential Faith.” In our sermon series from Hebrews we have discovered the importance of faith. We have been reminded that faith is essential if we want to please God. We have learned that faith enables us to view the world from God’s perspective. We have learned that faith allows us to endure hardship in life and to view hardship as moments of spiritual growth. We have been reminded that faith must be expressed in our relationship with others and with God. We are to make every effort in living in peace with others and we are to not be ruled by impulse, but rather by faith in God. This week, we will conclude our series with the “Exhortations of Faith” from Hebrews 13.

The very first exhortation is to “keep on loving each other.” The very nature of this exhortation reminds us that love is a choice and sometimes it takes effort. The love mentioned in Hebrews 13 is not simply an emotion. It is the choice of good will and wanting what is best for others in our lives. This is especially true when it comes to brothers and sisters in Christ.

All of us have people in our lives who we feel are easy to love. Then there are others, due to conflict or even just personality differences, we find hard to love. However, the kind of love that we are exhorted to display is not based on how we might “feel” about the other person. Instead, it is based on our faith in God and the knowledge that God loves us, as well as other person. So, as we conclude our series, I want to exhort you, even as the writer of Hebrews has, “keep on loving each other.”

How can we practice this on a personal basis? First, put the needs of others before your own. As we share life together in the church, we must always think of the needs of others that are around us. Second, pray for one another. Spend time daily praying for those in our church who are struggling, or those who are sick and hurting. Pray for the marriages in your Sunday School class, and for the children and youth in our congregation. Embrace “your church” with love and lift them up to God. Third, speak words of encouragement. We all need to hear words of encouragement, and when it is spoken in love... it can make a person’s day.

As I write this article, I am aware of how much I love our church and how this exhortation is practiced in our congregation. However, we must not grow complacent in our lives together. It is my prayer that everyone who comes through the doors of Trinity Baptist Church knows they are loved, cared for and prayed for. Let’s make sure that no one is left out. Let us “keep on loving each other.”

DISASTER RELIEF NC Missions Offering Month

Prepare The Way...

The NCMO supports NC Baptist Men's Disaster Relief, Medical/Dental Bus that Trinity is a part of. Support for National and International Partnerships that make it possible for Trinity people to go into these areas as missionaries carrying the message and love of our Lord, Jesus Christ.

The NCMO is the major funding source for the ministries of the NC Baptist Men.

Volunteers Needed North Raleigh Ministries Church-Wide Food Drive

Sunday, October 2

TBC collects food for the NRM Food Pantry every Sunday as a part of the worship offering. However, on Sundays when we celebrate the Lord's Supper in worship, we have a Church-Wide Food Drive focusing on several much needed items for Back-Pack Buddies or the Pantry. Collection Bins are placed at all entrances to the building, with a person at each location to supervise the collection process. Then during the 11am worship service, all bins are combined on a truck or trailer and the food is taken directly to North Raleigh Ministries on Strickland Road. One of the NRM Volunteers meets the group there and the food is unloaded into the Pantry. The Food Drive Volunteers are back at the church around noon.

We need at least 15 Volunteers to help with this Food Drive. If you would participate on October 2, please email Hal Melton at hmelton@tbcraleigh.com or call the church office at 919-787-3740. This is a great project for a Sunday School Class, Choir, etc. or just individuals ready to make a difference in others' lives. Thanks so much!

Music Notes

We enjoyed another Sunday of worship services in the ROC this past Sunday.

Special thanks to Joy Blashaw for singing a beautiful solo in both services. And, as we continue our journey together in this new place of worship, thank you all for the kind encouraging words you've passed along about our musical offerings through usage of the sound system, the choirs, and our keyboardists. Such a level of change has not been easy for all of us, but together we are making great strides to maintain beautiful offerings to the Lord musically. We have an awesome church!

This Christmas, the Sanctuary Choir will join other area churches in the performance of Pepper Choplin's new Christmas Cantata, "Go Sing It on the Mountain" at Meymandi Hall on December 4. Tickets will cost $10 each and will be available mid-October. The cantata will be accompanied by an orchestra and will be at 7:00 pm.

The choir has already begun rehearsal here at TBC as well as with the participating church choirs. It was an exciting time together, though I had to miss the weekend of singing due to a death in our family. I owe so many thanks to our Sanctuary Choir Lead Team, Joy Blashaw and Jessica Isaacs, our Sanctuary Choir and accompanists, and to our custodial staff for pulling this even off in my absence. I've never experienced such teamwork before in 26 years of ministry, and I thanked God each day while I was away for His amazing work in His people of Trinity who understand the need to keep things moving for His glory. I am very blessed by everyone's great effort to make this an opportunity for me to be with my family without worrying about matters here. Thank you, church musicians, for doing all that you do to make our ministry together both pleasurable and so rewarding.

Why Church Matters

Do you ever hear this question on Sunday morning, "Ugh! I don't wanna go to church!" It's probably the moment right before you need to walk out the door or about the time the battle over the day's outfit begins. We may become annoyed and slightly confused. Our natural answer to that question is often something like, "Because that's what we do." However, if we really stop and think about it, what is the appropriate answer to this question? How can we explain to our young children the importance of a religious community and family of faith? How can we explain the importance of spirituality in a relevant and applicable way? I think there are a few ways we can go about this that will help not only our children but us remember why we choose to worship each Sunday:

- We need to choose to focus on church as a positive experience, rather than a chore. While we ourselves may be sleepy on Sunday morning maybe we too should think about the positive reasons we go to church and make a point to share that with our children. Remember, children mirror what we show them.
- We also need to pray together as a family often, listening to the personal prayers of each family member.
- As a family we should talk more openly about God as a loving network of kindness, empathy and forgiveness in ways that children can understand and comprehend.
- We should attend church as regularly as possible and combine it with other fun family activities, like trips to a new park, picking up donuts or going to the zoo. It's like I wrote about a few weeks ago; create family traditions that your children look forward to.

Join us in our Mission Project

Collecting Through October 28

We want our youngest members to learn about missions here at Trinity. This fall we are partnering with the Wake County Pajama Program. Pajama Program provides new pajamas and new books to children in need nationwide, many of whom are waiting to be adopted. These children live in group homes, shelters and temporary housing facilities and are shuffled often from one place to another. We are inviting and asking you to participate with us this fall as Mission Friends. Please bring in a new set of pajamas in your child's size as well as a new book that a child might enjoy reading during bed time. I encourage you to take your child with you to help select the book and pajamas. This will be an opportunity for you to have a conversation with your child about missions and why it is important to help others.

DON'T FORGET!

Parents:
Please remember to fill out a child information sheet! We need one for EACH child.

Attention Parents

Please remember to

Sign Your Child IN AND OUT

for Sunday mornings/evenings and Wednesday nights.

Thank you.
