Through the years of parenting our children, we can leave a legacy of healthy Marriage – including the main training our children will get on raising our grandchildren! Whether you are considering becoming a parent, are in your empty nest years or at ANY STAGE in between – this retreat is for you. Our desire is that our young couples learn from the older couples about parenting children at home – AND – our older couples learn from the younger couples about their perspectives of being parented as adult children. We'll enjoy meeting new TBC people and having fun in the process of intentionally growing to meet the challenges of a time in our lives we have not been through before. Come join us!! Music Ministry

Rev. Steve Byers, slbyers@tbcraleigh.com

Music Notes

Thank you, Trinity Laymen and Joy Blashaw, for leading us in worship this past Sunday morning through special music. It was a very “high” day in worship with baptism and the Lord’s Supper. It was a very meaningful day of celebration for all of us!

How is God calling you to serve musically?

I hear from time-to-time from people who “know people that used to sing in the choir” and that are not plugged in again. I want to encourage you to recall the joy you used to share with others in choir in fellowship and great music making. We are always looking for people to come and get involved in one of our choirs, and now is a great time while the season is young! There are many of you out there who have musical skills but are not actively using them for God. Pray that God will open some doors for you to come and enjoy music ministry with your church family. It is a great place to serve!

Preschool Choir Workers Needed

Wednesday Nights

God has answered our prayer in sending one person to help in Preschool Choir, but we still need another worker.

With an outstanding number of preschoolers in this choir, our current leaders need more assistance to help facilitate and manage the children. Preschooler Parents would you pray about being involved in your child’s musical experiences? Sally Melvin is the director of this choir. You can contact me in the church office (919-787-3740) or email me at slbyers@tbcraleigh.com to get involved in this important area of our music ministry.

Parents of Children’s Choirs, please bring your children at the 6:00 pm hour on Wednesdays and get the most out of our rehearsals together. We are still experiencing late arrivals that are disruptions to the choir time. The younger and older children’s choirs will be singing on October 5. We need to rehearse consistently each week. Thank you for your participation in our Wednesday Night Program to families!

Words from Lydia

This weekend, September 27 and 28, Trinity will be hosting Dr. Chap Clark as he leads us in two different conferences - a Youth Ministry Team Conference and his ParenTeen Conference.

The Youth Ministry Team Conference is designed for paid Youth Ministry professionals and for adult volunteers who have a passion for influencing the lives of students. It is highly effective for the entire "TEAM" of youth ministry leaders and workers to attend together.

The conference is based on the latest research on adolescent development, family and social systems, and the rapidly changing environment that every student faces. Chap's teaching is based on understanding and respect for all 'sides' involved in nurturing, teaching and loving this generation and of course, the same love and respect for the generation itself. The conference will provide churches training and tools they need to understand the adolescent experience and help them to more fully assimilate and integrate their students into the full life of the church family.

The church-based ParenTeen conference is specifically focused on what it means to see parenting as stewardship from God. The focus will be on how God is calling parents to respond to their children in a highly secular and fragmented culture, what biblical discipleship looks like during the teen years, and how parents who have an authentic faith have the best chance of leading their children into a lifetime of commitment to God and His kingdom work. Chap's teaching is based on the latest research on adolescent development, family and social systems, and the rapidly changing environment that every student faces.

MS Fall Retreat

HS Fall Retreat

November 7-9 • Camp Don Lee
Cost: $115

Who needs a retreat? You do! This November, we will be headed down to Arapahoe, NC to find some rest and a break from the busyness of our day to day so that we can experience God's presence and allow him to restore our souls. Come. Come to the waters you who thirst, and you will thirst no more. Registration runs from October 5 - 26.

Peru Mission Work Days

October 25 and November 1

In order for our student missionaries to gain financial support to travel to the city of Cusco in Peru, we are having two work days. You, church members, may "hire" a team of our students to come help with odd jobs around your house. And, you, students, get to be that team. The donations received from church members on each of these days will go to reduce the personal cost for each of our workers on those two days. If you are interested in having a crew come to your house to work, please contact Lydia no later than October 12.

Education & Families

Rev. Karen Metcalf Eickhoff, kmetcalf@tbcraleigh.com

Words from Karen

Words of appreciation are difficult and yet vital for expressing the outpouring of love and support my family feels at this time of grief. My dad was an amazing father, pastor and friend to many. He was a vibrant leader in the church and community and dedicated follower of Christ. His presence is sorely missed, but the tributes are very real and genuine. Thank you for allowing me this week to grieve and support my mother in this new journey of life.

My heart has been warmed by the response to discipleship, TNT and other ministry programs that continue with flawless interruption in my absence. You are an awesome congregation to serve. I know you will allow me time to grieve and heal in the days ahead.

Since my father was a devotional as well as pastor. Let me share his devotional thought written the week he died.

The Future In Perspective

Someone has said, "The future is not what it used to be." Although filled with fertile thought the author of this statement is unknown. Perhaps we could speculate as to the disposition of the person who would make such a comment.

Maybe it was a pessimist who had a dismal attitude toward the future. It may reflect someone's inability to express hope. In this person's mind the negative may dominate the positive always creating a bleak outlook. He or she may have become so disillusioned with life there is little for which to look forward. It is an unsettling way to live for those who feel the best is behind them and the future can never be what it used to be.

On the other hand, however, the comment may have come from an optimist. The statement could express great hope in the future. This person may sense that the greatest days are ahead. In this person's mind the positive always prevails over the negative creating a sense of hopeful anticipation. If the future is not what it used to be, it could be better. It is a beautiful way to live and has the backing of the scriptures which point to an end time of joy and celebration. It is a matter of faith that we trust the processes of life to lead us to God's special future.

It may be possible that the statement was made by an older person who is trying to adjust to change. The kinds of things he or she anticipated early in life are no longer a reality. The years have taken their toll and the future looks different through aging eyes. It is not a matter of the future being better or worse. It is simply different. Changing times give an older perspective a new vision. The future is not what it used to be because nothing is what it used to be.

Furthermore, the statement could have been made by a young person. It may be that young eyes do not see a future as bright as their predecessors. Youth have a way of questioning and challenging a system they feel has jeopardized their future. They also have a capacity to dream the impossible dream. They have time and health on their side. For them the future can be what they make it.

Whether optimist or pessimist, young or old, the words of a gospel song may speak best to us about the future. "Many things about tomorrow, I do not seem to understand, but I know Who holds the future and I know Who holds my hand."

– Calvin S. Metcalf

Camp Willow Run

In 21 years I have never missed a camp experience or retreat with our children. It is with a sad heart that I was not able to make it to this one. However, I am so grateful to the chaperones that stepped up and volunteered to lead and carry on in my absence.

Thank you to Mary Langley for stepping in my place and leading the group of chaperones and children to camp this week. She is amazing and her experience with this group of ministers was very helpful. Thanks also to Leanne Ray and Jim Tiller for all the effort with our boys and girls. You are awesome!

Words from Carla

As I met with several leaders in the Preschool department, I gave them a scripture to keep with them. This does not only apply to those of us who are in leadership positions within the church, but is a reminder for all Christians that we are to model Christ in our daily walk with others. It is a reminder of God's love and encouragement for us all.

More than any brand named item we could ever purchase to wear, our heavenly father has already picked out the most important and most beautiful piece of garment for us. Wear it daily! Let everyone see it, especially our children!

So, chosen By God for this new life of love, dress in the wardrobe God picked out for you: compassion, kindness, humility, quiet strength, discipline. Be even-tempered, content with second place, quick to forgive an offense. Forgive as quickly and completely as the Master forgave you. And regardless of what else you put on, wear LOVE. It's your basic, all purpose garment. Never be without it!

Colossians 3:12-14 (The Message)
