Deepen The Ties That Bind

Dr. Jeff Roberts, Senior Pastor • jroberts@tbcraleigh.com • Twitter: @Jeff__Roberts

One of our largest attended events each year is our annual Fall Fest. Fall Fest this year will be on Friday night October 28, 2016 from 6:30 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. Fall Fest has transitioned over the past few years to be a “Trunk and Treat” event as well as a time for food and fellowship. There are games provided by those who decorate their trunks and our Food Committee does a great job providing the food for the event. Each year we welcome hundreds of individuals from the community onto our campus for this event. It is a time of connecting with one another and with families in our community. Many may ask why I am constantly encouraging others to be a part of this event. The answer is that this event is one of the main events each year where we meet new people in our community and connect new people to our congregation. This is why this event is so important.

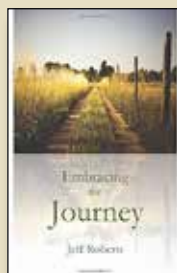

As always, this type of event takes a lot of volunteers. We need people to decorate a trunk and be a part of the Trunk and Treat. We need volunteers with set up and break down. We need volunteers to help in the Preschool area as well.

If you would like to volunteer please visit tinyurl.com/tbc-fallfest. This is an easy way to be a welcoming face for Trinity Baptist Church and to have fun doing it. I look forward to seeing you at this year's Fall Fest.

Embracing the Journey

By Jeff Roberts

My first published book “Embracing the Journey” has arrived in our church office. If you would like a copy you can come by the office during office hours and purchase one. The cost is $15 and all of the proceeds go to our “Deepen The Ties That Bind” Capital Campaign. If you would like a signed copy then there are some available in the office and I also will be available in the ROC lobby between worship services to sign them as well. Thank you for your support and encouragement regarding this publication.

Women's Fall Mission Event

Thursday, November 17 • FH
3:30pm-5:30pm or 6:00pm-8:00pm

TBC Women's Ministry will partner with Global Aid Network (GAIN) to address the special needs of women in impoverished countries. Without access to feminine hygiene supplies, women in developing countries are unable to leave their homes, are shunned, and can miss up to 20% of school or work days. LuoPads are washable and reusable sanitary products that can restore dignity and allows GAIN's ministry partners the opportunity to tell these women that Jesus loves and values them. Donations of any size towels, washcloths, and flannel fabric are needed and can be placed in bins located throughout the church. Two shifts are available to help assemble the LuoPads. You do not need to commit to the entire time slot to help. Sewers and portable sewing machines are needed, as well as those who can trace and cut out the simple pattern. This is a project for everyone! Contact Misty Deyo at (919) 272-5388 with questions.

Movie of the Month

RISEN is the epic Biblical story of the Resurrection, as told through the eyes of a non-believer, Clavius, a powerful Roman military tribune, and his aide, Lucius.

Music Ministry

Rev. Steve Byers, slbyers@tbcraleigh.com

Music Notes

Special thanks to our Student Choir for leading us in worship this past Sunday morning. Our students, grades 6-12, have been working diligently each week to prepare music for worship, Hanging of the Greens, and for ministry. We've changed to one student choir instead of divided, grade-based individual choirs. The strength of all of our students singing together has been very rewarding to work with and to experience on a weekly basis.

Parents and students of choir, remember that we've already started Christmas music for the Hanging of the Greens service on November 27. November 20 is the rehearsal day, and attendance is required. If you have questions about our obligations this year, please feel free to call. All families should have received the information about our student choir in August.

Living Praise has begun its rehearsals this past week. They meet at 6:30 and rehearses in room B-236. The fellowship is strong in this ensemble, and if you want to be a part, please contact Joy Blshaw for more information on how to get you started in this choir.

We are in need of a few folks to stay after the services to help put away the hymnals and to help store our sound equipment.

As you know, the sound equipment, chairs, and hymnals have to be put away each week during basketball season. We have had some wonderful help the last two Sundays, and we are so grateful for this help. If you would like to help, just stay after the 10:55 service. We can all get this done really quickly.

We rehearse from 6:30 to 7:30pm in the Fellowship Hall following dinner. The orchestra is for High School students and adults who are knowledgeable of reading music and willing to develop their skill. It is a really fun way to worship God and train as a worship leader.

We are in need of volunteers to provide snack supper on Sunday Nights for the MS and HS Students. Volunteers are reimbursed. Contact Mandy Warren or Sharon Tiller if you are interested.

High School Sunday Parking

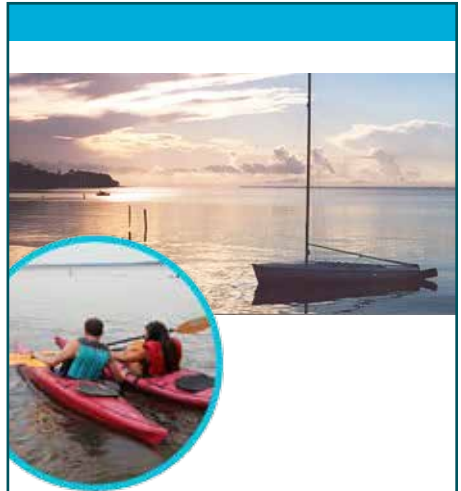

As we prepare for our exciting new building project, we are hoping to ease our parking woes in a couple of ways. What we are asking for our high school students who happen to drive separately from their parents is this:

- Ride with your parents in ONE CAR
- Park on the back property behind the ROC on Manchester.

This is just one simple way that we can be a part of helping our church as we seek to make room for others!

Basketball Practices

Practices are now underway. Make sure that you have turned in your registration forms.

Passing on Faith Requires Intentionality

By Mark Holmen

Faith-talk requires that we intentionally involve ourselves in the lives of our children. Mark Holmen insists that parents know what is going on in their child's life and experience life with them. He encourages talking about everyday items with them as well as being involved with the big decisions in their life. He suggests that in addition to being intentional about communicating with your children, be intentional about modeling and sharing your faith with them.

What does intentionally showing your child how to live God's way look like? It looks like tiny steps taken every single day. It requires joyfully showing and telling them some of the same things over and over. It is being transparent with them from day one so they not only understand what the goal is, but they will also desire it themselves. It starts with the faith in your own heart. It starts today, whether your children are tiny or taller than you are.

- Let your children see you read God's Word and pray.
- Tell your children how you are growing and learning new things.

- Enjoy getting together with other believers.
- Pray with your children every day. Begin today.

This week we began our "Becoming a Church Member" class with our children. It is an awesome opportunity for children to learn about their faith in a classroom setting. However, it is not the best way. The best requires children learning and discovering faith in relationship with the significant adults in their lives. Parents are the key to a faith that sticks with their children. I hope you will accept this challenge.

Mission Projects

for our RA and GA children and others

In light of the recent hurricane and flooding down east, our children have been asked to help in small ways. Check out these projects and help wherever you feel led.

Decorate white trash bags for the Baptist Men's Laundry Relief: When people bring their laundry to be cleaned by the laundry truck, the volunteers place one families laundry in a trash bag. Our children were asked to write verses or decorate the bags with positive sayings.

Comfort kit instructions are provided on the hallway.

Needs list: Choose 4 Items to include in your gallon bag. For all kits: Bibles and small notes are always welcomed.

How to Help Young Children Express Their Feelings

Young children frequently feel overwhelmed and frightened when they're in the grip of powerful emotions, resulting in behaviors that can leave you as parents unclear on the appropriate course of action. Because young children are not familiar with identifying their feelings and expressing them in a suitable manner, they sometimes act out in ways such as biting, hitting, or throwing temper tantrums. These are proven strategies for aiding children in learning to process and express their emotions in a healthy way.

One thing we can teach preschoolers to do is be able to name their feelings. Children have a natural tendency to want to identify and name everything, so work with that instinct when a child begins to exhibit behavior in response to emotional stimuli. You can use games, posters, videos, and puppets to teach children the names of a range of emotions.

We can also teach our children positive expression techniques. Make sure to keep in mind that some children are more verbally adept than others, and it may be easier for these children to learn to develop the necessary skills for positive self-expression. Also remember that young children also naturally look to teachers, parents and other adults for guidance, so providing a good role model for your child helps them cultivate positive patterns.
