Joining Hands with God

Dr. Jeff Roberts, Senior Pastor

jr Roberts@tbcraleigh.com • Twitter: @Jeff__Roberts

This past Sunday evening, during our Church Conference, our 2016 budget was presented and after discussion there were no amendments offered. This means that this coming Sunday, October 25th, we will vote on our budget at the end of each of our morning worship services. Ballots will be provided for all church members present to vote a simple yes or no in approving our budget for next year. I want to thank our Finance Committee for all their hard work in creating a ministry budget that we believe meets our needs for ministry and missions and also exemplify good stewardship.

Our church continues to be healthy in regards to our stewardship due to several factors. First, our congregation continues to be obedient to God and generous in spirit. Your tithes and offerings are evidence of your discipleship. When we are obedient in tithing our income and giving of our resources two important blessings come to us. We are freed from the tyranny of greed and the pursuit of wealth. When we freely and generously give to God, we are reminded that God is God and money is not. We also discover the blessing of being part of something with an eternal purpose. If you are not tithing and giving to your church, I encourage you to discover the joy of giving to the Lord.

A second reason our church continues to be healthy financially is good stewardship. Our ministers and committees are mindful that the funds that are provided in our budget are gifts given to God. They seek to make good choices in how funds are spent and for what purpose they are spent. This is evident in that every year our budget is not spent. In addition, in budget preparation important conversations are had to determine what is necessary for this coming year and not simply what has been done in the past.

Finally, we remain in a healthy state financially because we have some incredible leaders when it comes to our financial processes. Our Finance Committee does an excellent job each year along with our Tellers, Treasurer, Trustees and Financial Administrator. These leaders oversee our collection and dispersion of our giving. Their hours of time given to this process gives us all a sense of security that when we give we can know that as we release our tithes and offerings to the Lord, these gifts will be used to strengthen Trinity’s mission in our community and world.

As we vote on our budget this coming Sunday, let us continue to give to God’s work that is occurring through our congregation. Let us remember the God loves a cheerful giver. So, let us give generously and joyously.

NC Baptist Disaster Relief Call-Out for NC & SC Flood Areas

We are ready to respond to the flooding disaster in SC and NC. We have 3 sites at this time for relief efforts: 1 site in Brunswick County, 1 in Longs, SC and 1 in Socastee, SC.

Trinity's Baptist Men & Women's Disaster Relief would like to have a team respond each month for at least the next twelve months. The teams will leave on the 2nd Sunday of each month at 1:00pm and return the following Saturday evening. Our assigned area will come from NC Baptist Men.

Our first team will respond November 8-14. Next teams will respond December, 13-19, and January 10-16. Sign-up sheets for all teams are posted on the Narthex Registration Board. Please serve on at least one of these teams – there is something for everyone to do!

We will be showing God's love to people that have had years of their lives reduced to total loss. We will be removing water damaged items, removing sheetrock and flooring so the house can dry out and be repaired at a later date. Thank you for your support of this ministry!

Music Ministry

Rev. Steve Byers, slbyers@tbcraleigh.com

Our Bells of Praise at Trinity have grown so much over the past few years, and the musical offerings in worship this past Sunday morning were fine examples of their growth and worship leadership. Thank you for your beautiful music in worship. I was especially moved by the song "Come to Jesus" by Chris Rice, which is an anthem our Sanctuary Choir has presented chorally in worship. The words are so moving, and I wanted to share them with you for your own personal reflection...

Weak and wounded sinner

Lost and left to die

O, raise your head, for Love is passing by

Come to Jesus, come to Jesus

Come to Jesus and live!

Now your burden's lifted

And carried far away

And precious blood has washed

away the stain...so

Sing to Jesus, sing to Jesus

Sing to Jesus and live!

And like a newborn baby

Don't be afraid to crawl

And remember when you walk,

sometimes we fall...so

Fall on Jesus, fall on Jesus

Fall on Jesus and live!

Sometimes the way is lonely

And steep and filled with pain

So if your sky is dark and

pours the rain...then

Cry to Jesus, cry to Jesus

Cry to Jesus and live!

And when the love spills over

And music fills the night

And when you can't contain

your joy inside...then

Dance for Jesus

Dance for Jesus

Dance for Jesus and live!

And with your final heartbeat

Kiss the world goodbye

Then go in peace, and laugh

on glory's side...and

Fly to Jesus, fly to Jesus

Fly to Jesus and live!

Laying the Foundation

There is no more appropriate place for a child to learn to trust than in your family! Such security becomes the basis for learning to trust God and beginning to feel His love. Make sure your child understands that your home is safe and that the people there are caring ones.

Here are some specific ways to lay a foundation of secure feelings in babies:

- Respond. Don't ignore your baby or dismiss his or her crying or other behavior as "just crankiness." Make the effort to understand and help.
- Provide interesting things to do, to look at, and to listen to.
- Talk in a quiet, respectful and soothing way. Never respond in anger. Singing to your child may calm both of you. Or

We are blessed at Trinity to offer quality care for these services. Thank you for your effort to continue this ministry of worship.

try talking to your child about how you want to respond gently and helpfully to his or her fussiness---singing may help you do that. Pray, asking God to give you gentle-ness in place of anger.

- Be observant. When you see trouble coming, distract your child with another activity or toy.
- Remove your child from danger or potential problems, talking to him or her as you do so will help your child understand what you are doing.
- Take time to watch your child, to ask and to respond in appropriate ways to him or her. This tells your little one he or she is important to you---and to God.
- Pray with your child.
- Sing or hum tunes of faith and assurance to your child.
- Talk about church as a positive and safe place to come.
- Speak positively about God and Jesus. Say often "Jesus loves you and so do I."

All that we do and say will lay a foundation of faith and trust in your young child. Be aware of Christ's presence in your own life and be open to talk about it with your children.
