Deepen The Ties That Bind

Dr. Jeff Roberts, Senior Pastor • jroberts@tbcraleigh.com • Twitter: @Jeff__Roberts

This past Sunday, we voted to approve our 2017 budget and I want to thank everyone who is a part of that important process. Our Finance Committee, Treasurers and Trustees do a wonderful job each year in determining the financial needs of the congregation. In addition, your continued stewardship allows our congregation to offer so many opportunities for worship, fellowship, discipleship, missions and ministry. As your pastor, I want to thank you for this important process and support.

This week you should receive the ballots for our Deacon, Trustee and Pastoral Advisory Council. Each and every year, we have the opportunity to participate in choosing from our congregation men and women who will serve faithfully in these leadership roles. This year, we will again elect 20 deacons who will serve a three-year term. You will be asked to elect 3 Trustees and 1 new Pastoral Advisory Council member.

The process for choosing these nominees occurs over a period of time through the work of our Deacons and Nominating Committee. They have done a tremendous job in seeking candidates for these positions, who are faithful to our church and have demonstrated servant leadership. I want to thank everyone who agreed to be on the slate of nominees.

I encourage you to take this time of choosing a candidate seriously. Spend some time praying over the candidates. Pray for their families and for their ministry here in our church. Pray for those you will select and for those you do not select. Pray that God will use us all in the place God has for us to serve.

As it is indicated in the letter, we will be receiving these ballots until Sunday, November 13, 2016. The ballot boxes will be in the ROC lobby on Sunday and can be found in the Church Office during the week. The bulletin boards in the ROC lobby will also have the pictures of all of our nominees. The last time to turn in your ballot will be at the end of the second service on November 13, 2106.

Take time to be a part of choosing our servant leaders this year.

Women's Fall Mission Event

Thursday, November 17 • FH
3:30pm-5:30pm or 6:00pm-8:00pm

TBC Women's Ministry will partner with Global Aid Network (GAIN) to address the special needs of women in impoverished countries. Without access to feminine hygiene supplies, women in developing countries are unable to leave their homes, are shunned, and can miss up to 20% of school or work days. LuoPads are washable and reusable sanitary products that can restore dignity and allows GAIN's ministry partners the opportunity to tell these women that Jesus loves and values them. Donations of any size towels, washcloths, and flannel fabric are needed and can be placed in bins located throughout the church. Two shifts are available to help assemble the LuoPads. You do not need to commit to the entire time slot to help. Sewers and portable sewing machines are needed, as well as those who can trace and cut out the simple pattern. This is a project for everyone! Contact Misty Deyo at (919) 272-5388 with questions.

Operation Christmas Child

TBC Shoebox Drive
Thru November 13
Goal: 100% Participation

It's the season of OCC! Individuals or families are asked to pack at least one shoebox per family member to share God's love with children in poverty-stricken or war-torn countries somewhere in the world. Shoeboxes can be found at Fall Fest's Trunk or Treat and all over our campus beginning October 30th.

Our Shoebox Dedication service will take place in the worship on Sunday, November 13th. Bring your shoebox to the ROC worship center. The children of our church will bless the shoeboxes and pray for the children receiving them.

Raleigh Area Collection Center November 14-21 • TBC

This is our 10th year as the Shoebox Collection Center for Raleigh and north to the VA line. We will collect 42,800+ Shoe Boxes packed for children in need around the world by individuals, churches, schools, businesses and civic groups. This takes a LOT of volunteers. Please use one of the following means to volunteer for at least one 2-hour shift:

On-Line: Go to TBC's Website and click on "OCC Collection Center Volunteer". On LOGIN page, enter password "tbc"; click "send". On SIGN-UP page, select time/day you want to volunteer, enter name, e-mail and phone number; click on SAVE.

Music Ministry

Rev. Steve Byers, slbyers@tbcraleigh.com

Special thanks to our Orchestra for leading us in worship this past Sunday morning. This was our first time experiencing worship in the ROC together in support of congregational singing. We will make some changes here and there as time goes by to accommodate all of our ensembles in this temporary place of worship. Thank you, church, for your patience as we experiment and learn from each new opportunity we have through music and worshipping in the gym.

Special note to Parents and Students of Children's Choirs and Student Choir...

Parents and students of choir, remember that we've already started Christmas music for the Hanging of the Greens service on November 27. November 20 is the rehearsal day, and attendance is required. If you have questions about our obligations this year, please feel free to call. All families should have received the information about our student choir in August. The "dress rehearsal" on November 20 is important because we need to rehearse new entrances, exits, rooms, and our songs in a completely different environment. If your student will be absent due to not being available on rehearsal day, please notify your choir director so that we can have a final count. Room in the ROC for 5 choirs needs to be planned for before rehearsal day!

High School Sunday Parking

As we prepare for our exciting new building project, we are hoping to ease our parking woes in a couple of ways. What we are asking for our high school students who happen to drive separately from their parents is this:

- Ride with your parents in ONE CAR.
- Park on the back property behind the ROC on Manchester.

This is just one simple way that we can be a part of helping our church as we seek to make room for others!

Disaster, Displacement Can Trigger Stress in Kids

Stress doesn't just affect adults. Changes in a child's life can have a big impact. In families dealing with devastating flooding across eastern North Carolina, children may be feeling lots of pressure.

Here are a few signs for parents to look out for:

Negative changes in behavior: For younger kids, withdrawal from their favorite activities, becoming clingy to a parent or even a sudden change in their appetite are all red flags. Becoming hostile towards family and abandoning friendships are more common signs among teens.

Interaction with others: how your child interacts with others outside of the home can indicate if stress is factor. Experts say a good way for parents to tap into their child's behaviors is communicating with each other, teachers, and coaches.

Listen to your child: Kids may often express how overwhelmed they are with words like "angry" or "annoyed," or they speak negatively about themselves. Parent should keep an ear out for key words or phrases that may indicate a source of stress.

Seek support: Parents should know that tackling the stress in their child's life is not something they have to do alone. Licensed therapists can provide the support and guidance their child needs.

Pajama Program Project

This fall we are partnering with the Pajama Program that is here in Wake County. It provides new pajamas and new books to children in need nationwide, many of whom are waiting to be adopted. These children live in group homes, shelters and temporary housing facilities and are shuffled often from one place to another. We are asking that you bring in a new set of pajamas in your child's size as well as a new book that a child might enjoy reading while getting ready for bed. I encourage you to take your child with you to help select the book and pair of pajamas. This will be a great opportunity for you to have a conversation with your child about missions and why it is important to help others. We will be collecting the pajamas and books through the end of October.
