Following Jesus...

Dr. Jeff Roberts, Senior Pastor
jroberts@tbcraleigh.com • Twitter: @Jeff__Roberts

One of the opportunities and responsibilities of being in a Baptist church is the election of leadership. We do this throughout the year by voting to approve various committee members and ministry program leaders. Also, each year we are given the opportunity to elect new Deacons, Trustees, and Pastor Advisory Council Members. This process involves many dedicated people who give much of their time, prayer, and discernment. The process begins with our Church Council nominating a Deacon Nominating Committee from various age groups in the church to seek names for Deacon Nominations. Our standing Nominating Committee does the work of nominating names for Trustees and Pastor Advisory Council. These nominating committees do their work of prayer and discussion. Then they begin the process of contacting individuals to ask them to consider serving in these roles if elected by the congregation.

Each year, we seek to have approximately twice the number needed for election who are willing to have their names placed on the ballots for your consideration. This means that every year there are many who have said “yes I will serve” who do not get that opportunity to do so at this time. This can be disappointing and sometimes disheartening. I want us all to make sure we thank all those who were willing to serve and be nominated. Without our candidates being willing to be nominated, our process would not work. I personally am grateful to everyone who said yes. Thank you for making yourself available to serve and trusting the process of our church.

This past Sunday, our ballots were counted and the following people have been chosen to serve in the following capacities:

Trustees: Gary Mills, Johnny Teal, David York

Pastoral Advisory Council:
Clair Green

In addition, I am delighted to share with you this week that at Church Conference the church voted to approve the motion from our Personnel Committee concerning Rev. Did You Know...

Did you know that Trinity spends over $35,000 on church literature each year. This expenditure ensures that we have the proper publications including Sunday School booklets, children's literature and many other publications. This expenditure helps to ensure that we have the proper study guides for Sunday School and various other programs to help enhance our spiritual growth.

Congratulations

Kevin & Karen Bell and big brother & sister, Griffin & Blakely, as well as the grandparents, Bill & Brenda Joyner, on the birth of their baby boy, Nolan Halstead Bell, on November 10th.

All shoeboxes must be returned to the church by Monday, November 24, 5:00pm.

Wake Interfaith Hospitality Network (WIHN)

Thank you to everyone who gave so graciously and willingly of their time to make the WIHN program (hosting up to 5 homeless families with children in our facility) at Trinity the success it has been for the last 9 years. The Lead Team is well aware that it isn't possible to implement and carry out this program without the many volunteers who sign-up to help out during each Hosting week. Whether you were on the set-up and take-down crew, drove the van, cooked and served dinner each night, stayed with the WIHN families overnight, spent time with the kids in the evening or showed up when extra help was needed, know that you have pleased God and His words to you are "Well done, good and faithful servant".

As one WIHN mom wrote in our journal: "My heart is full of appreciation for all that you did for making me and my daughter feel special and safe. We really enjoyed staying here and it has been most fun and rewarding. We will never forget you. God bless."

It's time for giving thanks... and NRM would like to thank all the TBC members who pick up food donations each week and deliver them to the Food Pantry throughout the year. They are so important in helping with this ministry! Thank you: Maury and Pat O'Dell, Mike Bowersox, Susan Teal, Helen Monteith and family, George Mathis, Julie Lee, Glenn Wellborn, and Carmen Anglin & family.

Music Ministry

Rev. Steve Byers, slbyers@tbcraleigh.com

It was a good day in worship this past Sunday morning with Kurtis and Caroline Konrad, the ensembles of Living Praise and New Covenant joining forces to lead worship. Both of these ensembles are working tremendously to get ready for their concert with the orchestra on December 7. Mark your calendars so that you won't miss this great night of music!

Hanging of the Greens is just 3 weeks away! It's hard to believe that this year is coming to a close, but it will go out with a wonderful season of Christmas music ahead. You don't want to miss our Preschool Choir, Children's Choirs, Student Choirs, and Sanctuary Choir as they participate in the "greening" of the sanctuary. I've heard from many people that this is the one night that ushers the Christmas season in for their family, and I have to agree! Come enjoy the sights and sounds of the holiday season with your church family!

Parents of choir students: The Mass Rehearsal on November 23 is very important for each student to learn his or her part in preparation for the service. Make sure you have reserved this time in your family planning.

Words from Christian

On Wednesday, November 5th, our students participated in a Wednesday night activity that was different from our typical Northbound and D-Teams schedule. Our students had the opportunity to fix-up their favorite sugar-free desserts and head out in small groups to visit many of our homebound members. For both the students and the homebound members it was a night filled with good food and even better conversation. A few groups even showed off their vocal talents and sang hymns and worship songs. As Thanksgiving and Christmas approach, we look forward to the special moments we get to share with our families. We cherish the time that we share around the table. For all involved, this was one of those special moments. It was a time when we were surrounded by our church families and were able to simply enjoy each other's company and feel the presence of Christ in the places that were visited.

Advent materials for children and their families will be available in various areas of our church. Plan to make this advent special as you share together the meaning and hope of the season. We have advent calendars for older children, youth, and adults and advent books for younger children. Stop by and select one or two for your family.

Another great resources for family or personal devotions this season is an online devotion from Passport Camps. Go to www.followingthestar.org and find scripture, prayer, and meditative thoughts, accompanied by gentle music, which can be accessed every day. This website becomes activated on November 30.

Family Christmas Tree

The Children's Ministry is responsible for the Christmas tree in the Fellowship Hall. This is a special tree decorated with ornaments provided by you—the families of Trinity. All you have to do is find an ornament relating to the Nativity, write your family name on it with the current year—2014, and bring it to the tree in the Fellowship Hall. Become part of a wonderful Trinity tradition, and bring an ornament for the tree!! The tree will go up on November 30.

Words from Carla

I heard the song “Better Than A Hallelujah” on the radio and the words spoke to me and prompted my writing to you this week. Sometimes we mistakenly praise God only in the times when things are going great or as we planned. We often forget that we can praise God in our storms because He wants to hear our hearts. I encourage you to praise God in all times of your life. Struggles will come and go, but this world is not about our comfort. It is about the gift of a Savior who loves us so unconditionally that He waits with open arms to comfort, give peace, sustain, and hold us in our moments when we think hope is very slim. In these times, we cry out to God and soon begin to feel the burdens lifting because God is always working to restore His people. He breaks chains, He fights for us, and He holds us, giving our hearts rest so we can push forward for His glory. Let Him guide you in all you do. He desires a relationship, so talk to Him. Our cries are melodies in His ear, because we put our trust in Him completely!

Better Than A Hallelujah

We pour out our miseries
God just hears a melody
Beautiful, the mess we are
The honest cries of breaking hearts
Are better than a Hallelujah

As a parent, we can become tired and weary with day-to-day tasks. Take a moment and talk with your heavenly Father. He is waiting and ready to listen. Oh, how He loves us!

Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.
