Deepen The Ties That Bind

Dr. Jeff Roberts, Senior Pastor • jroberts@tbcraleigh.com • Twitter: @Jeff__Roberts

Happy Thanksgiving! Merry Christmas! Happy Holidays! Happy New Year! Our greetings during the holiday season are a reminder that this is a time to celebrate and be happy as many gather with friends and family. The holiday season is a time of office and Sunday School parties. There are evenings spent attending Christmas concerts and plays. The church calendar is full in the attempt to help us prepare spiritually for the celebration of Christmas.

During this busy season we are reminded often to be happy and to be merry. However, we know that many of us struggle with “happiness” during the holiday season. While we might put on a smile and make ourselves attend a celebration, there are times during the holiday season that grief and sadness overcome our attempt to be happy and merry.

The holidays can be a very difficult time for many of us as we find ourselves in the process of grief. Grief, during this season of the year, can seem deeper and cause us to feel lonely and isolated. It is important for us to always be mindful of those around us during this season of the year. We might want to stop and remember what another person has recently experienced as we wish them Merry Christmas and Happy New Year. It is good for us to remember those who have recently suffered loss and to grant to them moments of grace, if they are not always in the most festive spirit during the season.

Let us remember that loss comes in many forms. Many of us will face this season with the fresh grief of the loss of a loved one to death. Some of us will face the season unemployed with the loss of work. Still others will face this season with a change in family relationships. It might be separation and divorce, or it might simply be the first time that your adult children are not going to be with you for Christmas. These life changes cause many to experience grief.

If you know someone who is experiencing grief this Christmas season or maybe that someone is you, I want to encourage you to join us for our Blue Christmas Service this coming Sunday night at 6:00 p.m. in the Chapel. Please feel free to offer this service to co-workers, neighbors, family members and friends. This service is a time of scripture reading, prayer and acknowledging our grief. It is a time for us to be encouraged by the presence of others. We will be reminded that we are not alone when we have these feelings during this season. We will also open our hearts to the hope, peace, joy and love we find in Christ. We will be reminded that these gifts of Christ far out weigh any passing happiness or sadness in our lives.

I hope to see you this Sunday evening at 6:00 p.m. in the Chapel for the Blue Christmas Service.

More Transitions Are Coming

According to our builder, the current plan is for Building B to be shutdown due to construction beginning during the month of January. This should last 4 to 5 weeks once the process begins. Preparations are being made for Sunday School and other programs that utilize this building during this period. Construction will not occur until after January 1, so Sunday School classes should plan to meet as usual on January 1.

ANNUAL TBC Marriage Retreat

February 24-26 • Beach Cove Resort, N Myrtle Beach

Give your Marriage a Christmas present by making plans for a Winter Get-A-Way! This year's theme, "The Road Less Traveled", will be focusing on some common roadblocks (like time management, mistrust and lack of quality communication) that all marriages face from time to time. We'll look at how to build a solid foundation that will enable couples to get through these times with the help of marriage enrichment practices. The aim is to provide preparation, purpose and planning within your marriage – a road that only successful marriages go down. Our leader couple will be Reginald and Julia McClain of Clayton. They have been married for 20 years and are a Better Marriages Trained Leader Couple.

Cost of the retreat including your private Oceanfront Condo with living room and kitchenette, and program fee is $245 per couple. A $100 deposit included in the total is due by January 8. Make your check out to "TBC" and note for "Marriage Retreat". Don't wait – rooms are going fast! Encourage your SS Class members to join you! We'll have a fun time from Friday evening at 7:00pm to Sunday worship, concluding at noon. Sign-up by contacting Hal Melton at hmelton@tbcraleigh.com or 919-612-4400.

KY Pineknott Center Hills & Hollers Ministries

Clothing Needed

We continue to collect clothing for our friends in McCreary County, KY. Joe Ward and a partner drive a truck up there every 4-6 weeks to supply this clothing Co-Op that serves over 1,500 families in this poorest county in the USA.

Right now their main needs are: jeans, coats and mittens / gloves (kids, adults – all sizes). They also need lots of children's clothing of all kinds... especially younger sizes.

Please bring as much as you can before January 7. At that time, TBC's building B will be closed for a month as part of the construction. That is where our large collection bin is located and we can't find another place for it. We will still continue to collect somehow, but it will help the crew that sort the clothing to get as much as they can before that building closes.

January 21 • February 11 • March 18

Join with other Trinity members and help build a home for a Raleigh family in need. The home will be built in the same neighborhood as last years' off of New Hope Road. Details later – just save these dates! Trinity must supply 25+ workers each of these Saturdays, PLUS provide lunch for 35. Work schedule is 8:00am-3:00pm.

Thanks!

Music Ministry

Rev. Steve Byers, slbyers@tbcraleigh.com

Special thanks to Testament for their musical offerings in both services this past Sunday morning. It has been a while since we have heard from them in worship, and I know you join me in saying they have been missed! Thank you for adding so much to our worship experiences at Trinity and for your ministry beyond.

Special thanks to our accompanists for helping us to get ready for the Meymandi Concert, Joy Blashaw and Jessica Isaacs for rehearsing us at various times, to Mark Munday for transporting the music stands, and to Mary Brown for being our "Ticket Czar" for the event. We had so much fun and have been encouraged by working with these other 6 churches under Pepper's direction.

Education & Families

Rev. Karen Metcalf Eickhoff, kmetcalf@tbcraleigh.com

Christmas Nativities

Nativities are wonderful for preschool and grade school children. I have collected nativities for many years. Let me encourage you to set one out in your home. Allow your children to touch and place figures all around the scene during the holidays. Discuss the story of Jesus' birth from Luke. Sing carols like "Away in a Manger," "Joy to the World," and "O Come all ye Faithful." Make the season special and make it real for your family. Preschoolers can appreciate the story of a tiny baby born in a barn. Let children ask questions and pray for people everywhere to hear the story of Jesus' birth. You may even add hay to the manger each time someone in the family does an act of kindness. Remember the true meaning of Christmas and share with your little ones.
