Winter Marriage Retreat

March 6 - 8, 2015
Beach Colony Resort

Parenting – It Makes a Difference in Marriage

Through the years of parenting our children, we can leave a legacy of healthy marriage—including the main training our children will get on raising our grandchildren! Intentionally keeping our marriages alive and well during the years when it seems our whole world is focused on raising responsible kids is a key ingredient to success...both ours and theirs in the years to come. Whether you are considering becoming a parent, are in your empty nest years or at ANY STAGE in between – this retreat is for you. Our desire is that our young couples learn from the older couples about parenting children at home – AND – our older couples learn from the younger couples about their perspectives of being parented as adult children. We'll enjoy meeting new TBC people and having fun in the process of intentionally growing to meet the challenges of a time in our lives we have not been through before. Come join us! Registration is open NOW. Contact Roberta Melton at rmelton8184@gmail.com. Cost is $255 per couple including ocean front condo at the Beach Cove Resort at N. Myrtle Beach, meeting room, and program fee. Meals are on your own. A deposit of $100 is due at sign-up. Make checks to TBC.

Don't Miss This!

December Is

World Missions Offering Month

Last Sunday we kicked off our annual offering that supports all our OVERSEAS missionaries, their families and their ministries with our Missions Walk-Down during worship. Trinity's Goal is $50,000. This goal is set by our Missions Steering Committee. Last Sunday we received $22,072. We surely will reach our goal if everyone participates. Please give generously as we commit as a church family to spreading the Gospel of Jesus' love around the world through either Southern Baptist or Cooperative Baptist Career Missionaries in 2015.

Please find your special offering envelope – either in your packet at home or in the pews in worship. If you have a preference, please mark which organization you wish your offering to go to. Check BOTH if you would like it to be divided between the two. THANKS!

Christmas Cantata

December 14 • Both Morning Services

About Jay and Amy Rouse...

Our guest musicians this week have a heart for worship. Together and separately they are making a difference in the world for the cause of Christ.

Jay has been described as “... a keyboard artist with great finesse and expertise along with the humility of a man whose life reflects a sincere passion for Christ.” Jay has enjoyed a brilliant career as a keyboard artist and has served as accompanist for many artists including Kathy Troccoli, Russ Taff, Buddy Greene and the Gaither Vocal Band. He has traveled extensively with Sandi Patty as music director and accompanist. He is the vice-president for Publishing at Praise-Gathering Music Group. He has composed some of the top-selling choral anthems in the past few years and has become one of the leading arrangers, orchestrators and producers in Christian music publishing. He oversees the creative development of new publications for PraiseGathering Music Group, Gaither Music Company and Integrity Music, while continuing to create new publications of his works.

Jay's wife Amy has been a featured soloist with The Bill Gaither Trio, and was a part of their recording “Bill & Gloria Gaither and Friends... a Praise Gathering.” Her work with Bill and Gloria has also privileged her to be a part of the Homecoming Video Series. Most recently she appeared along with Sandi Patty at the Cathedral's Farewell Concert and on the Gaither Christmas Video titled A Time For Joy. She has traveled with Sandi Patty as a backup singer and has performed with Radio Bible Class in Grand Rapids, Michigan as a featured soloist and member of the “Discovery Singers” on their weekly television show, Day of Discovery. They recently featured her on the Discovery House release titled “Lullabies,” a collection of children's songs. She also sings regularly as a studio musician in the central Indiana area giving her the opportunity to work some of the leading artist and producers in Christian music.

Both Amy and Jay have also done extensive touring as a part of the group Image. This group was born out of their desire to see the church understand true worship and experience the amazing blessing of God's manifest presence in the lives of His children. It is to that end that they continue their work to this day. While all of the “things” they do sustain their daily routine and allow them to thrive in this fast paced world, the true calling on their lives continues to be a deeper and growing relationship with Jesus Christ. Out of this well-spring flow all of the blessings and energies needed to share His goodness and His light with a dark and needy world.

Jay, his wife Amy and their two children, Thatcher and Londyn live in Anderson, Indiana.

Special thanks to Testament, Dawn Trollip, and Jack and Kathy Stanford for providing worship music in both services and for lifting us up with such inspiring songs of Christmas. Sunday night's performances of Living Praise, New Covenant, and the Trinity Orchestra were spectacular! Thank you to all of you for your hard work this season and for continuing the musical excellence during this busy season of ministry at Trinity. What a wonderful turnout from our supportive church congregation!

Church-wide Christmas Caroling

Words from Lydia

This past Wednesday night, our middle and high school students shared in a special time of worship where we participated in a traditional Candlelight Moravian Love Feast, sang songs, and read Scripture that led us to experience the hopeful expectation of the birth of Christ. We even got to make Chrismons and paper stars. Though we are not Moravian, we were able to participate in a time of Christian fellowship that breaks denominational ties and harkens to the days of Acts 2:46. We were invited to think through what the hope of Jesus means to us in our lives and in our particular situations. And as we meditated on hope, we began to anticipate the coming of the Source of all hope, all peace, all joy, and all love. This Advent season, I hope that you, too, will feel the excitement and anticipation as we prepare to celebrate the coming of our Christ and as we look forward to the day He returns.

Education & Families

Rev. Karen Metcalf Eickhoff, kmetcalf@tbcraleigh.com

“For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.”

This week we had a chance to give an offering toward missions and missionaries that serve around the Globe. Today we have an opportunity to share this gospel with those who live and work along side us. Take this verse into the Advent Season and share the good news.

God did send His Son... and His name is Jesus!

Believe it and share it!

Words from Carla

Rachel Cruze, Dave Ramsey's daughter, grew up learning how money works. She has a heart to empower this generation to save, give, and live intentionally. Here are some tips about spending and using your money and time wisely during the Christmas season!

Set a dollar amount.

And stick to it! No matter what, do not spend more than that amount. It's also important that your spending limit makes sense for your budget. If you're already living paycheck to paycheck, it's a terrible idea to spend hundreds of dollars on Christmas gifts.

Prioritize who you are giving to.

If you have $100 in your budget, then you can either get 10 gifts worth $10 or two gifts worth $50. It's your budget, so you can choose how to spend it. But you also need to accept the fact that some people might not make the cut.

Avoid the malls.

That's difficult for me to say because I love shopping! But you can find better deals online if you spend the time and do the research. Obviously, you shouldn't wait until December 23 if you want to buy something online. So give yourself some time for shipping and you'll avoid all the stress that comes with shopping at the mall during the holidays.

Consolidate your time.

In other words, as much as it's possible, do everything at once. Take one day and knock out all your Christmas shopping instead of spreading it out over three weekends. You'll save so much time and hassle by taking this approach.

Keep Christmas in perspective.

Remember, this is just stuff, and Christmas is about more than just getting a bunch of stuff. If you have to cut back this year, don't beat yourself up. Enjoy your time with family and friends. And know that you might have more flexibility in your budget next year.

I can't stress that last point enough. If you're totally stressed out over your Christmas budget, then you're doing Christmas wrong. Take a breath and remember why we celebrate this amazing holiday in the first place! Also children can make cards and gifts from things around the house. Be creative and let them create a gift! When I was attending Campbell Divinity School, I wanted to give something to those whom I had entered this journey with, but there were so many and I knew I could not afford to buy them all something, so I went into the back yard and picked up sticks and began breaking them into smaller sticks then I took twine and wrapped two sticks together at the center forming a cross. I then hot-glued a piece of twine at the top so the cross could be hung as a Christmas decoration, on a cabinet knob, in a car, etc. I just received an email from a colleague who was decorating her tree and wanted to let me know she still had her cross and it meant so much. A simple gift, but given from the heart.

Keeping Christ as the Focus,
Carla
