Deepen The Ties That Bind

Dr. Jeff Roberts, Senior Pastor • jroberts@tbcraleigh.com • Twitter: @Jeff__Roberts

As we come to the end of 2016, I have so many feelings about this past year. I am thankful to be a part of this great congregation. This past year has been a very important in the history of our church. When you are living through pivotal moments you don't normally realize how important they might be in the future. We embarked on an incredible challenge with the construction and renovation on our campus. This project has disrupted our programs, ministries and routines like none other in our history. The scope and length of the project is a great challenge to us. However, I am so proud of the way we have remained faithful during this time. I am grateful how we went through the process of our decision-making. Although we were not all in favor of the project, we were able to discern together God's will for us and make our decision. We did this remembering that the fellowship of our church and following God's will was the most important part of this process.

In our time of transition our spirit has been tremendous. We have embraced our transitional worship space in the ROC with enthusiasm. We have found new routines, places to sit and even discovered new people in the church that we did not even know attended worship at Trinity. Our ministries have learned to be flexible and nimble. Our Sunday School classes, Music Ministry, Recreation Ministry and Student Ministry have demonstrated a willingness to lead us in spirit and deed by moving from place to place over these past few months and have done so with grace and with keeping the purpose of ministry primary.

As a congregation we have demonstrated faithfulness in attendance, participation and giving. I am so grateful for everyone who has continued to make attending worship, giving to our budget and campaign a priority in their life. Thank you for demonstrating your love for our Lord and His church.

The beginning of 2017 will present us with our biggest test thus far in this process. As the new year begins we will face the "rolling shut down" of two of our education buildings. We will begin with Building B and then move to Building D as we prepare these buildings for the attachment to the new construction. These buildings will be shut down for an estimated 4 to 5 weeks (not at the same time) for the renovation to occur. This will again cause us to be flexible and be creative in space use.

I have always assumed that the first quarter of this year would be our most demanding of the process and so, I want to encourage you to continue to do what you have been doing. As we begin a new year, recommit yourself to following our Lord Jesus by being present and engaged at church, as well as being faithful to your church.

I am looking forward to this challenge in the life of our church. Beginning on January 8, I will be preaching a new series entitled "Questions from the Wilderness." We will explore questions we find in the book of Exodus as God's people were living in a time of relocation and uncertainty. They were on their way to something new and were living each day with the promise of God. I am looking forward to this series. I am still convinced that God is going to "renovate our hearts" during this time of campus transition.

As we enter this New Year, what are some things you can do as a member of Trinity?

Pray - Pray for our construction and transition team as they are constantly facing important decisions on our behalf.

Engage - This is not the time to become less engaged in the church, but rather a time when your church needs you to be more engaged. Encourage each other with being present and involved in the activities and ministries of the church.

Give - Continue to be obedient to God's word and tithes and fulfill your pledge to our Capital Campaign. If you have not made a pledge to our Campaign, then consider beginning to give toward our project.

I shared with our staff at our Christmas party this year my pride in the way they have handled this transition. I encouraged them to remain faithful and I reminded them that as we enter 2017, our conversation and discussion would soon move from the transition to moving into the new building and back to our sanctuary. It is going to be an exciting time. You don't want to miss all that God is doing in and through TBC.

I close this final newsletter article with the words of the Apostle Paul, "I thank my God with every remembrance of you." I am so blessed to have the privilege to be your Pastor. I am so grateful that God allows me to be a part of this wonderful congregation and to be a part of this exciting time in the history of our church. I am excited for challenges and the experiences that 2017 will bring. Most of all, I am excited about what God is doing and that I get to share it with you.

Deacon of the Week

Week of Dec. 25

Pat York has been a member of Trinity since 1997 and is a native of Raleigh. She and her husband, David have three children: Julia, Katheryn and Nash. Pat works as Global IT Business Analysis Director at Quintiles Transnational. She is an ETC Volunteer and serves with the Endowment Committee. She works with the Allen/York SS Class. She also works with deacons Laury Holley and Paul Gubbins.

Week of Jan. 1

Sam Spilman has been a member of Trinity Baptist Church since 1997 and is a native of Fayetteville. He and his wife Karen, have one child, Rosemary. Sam is a Director with Duke Energy. He serves as SS Teacher and also serves on the Middle School Advisory Council. He works with the Adult 4/Coed 6 SS Class. He also works with deacon Rhonda Davis.

Fellowship Dinner

Wednesday Night Fellowship Dinners will resume January 4, 2017

If your name was on the permanent reservation list in the fall, you will remain on the list unless you contact the church office: 919-787-3740 or rthornton@tbcraleigh.com.

There are a total of 20 fellowship meals on the calendar for the winter/spring.

If you want to pay for the semester on or before January 4 it will be $100 for adults, $60 for children.

SS Transitions

January 2: Building B is compromised and off limits for 4-6 weeks. Please note the Sunday School adjustments:

- Adult 2 & 3 departments and one Adult 4 class will be meeting jointly in the FH for their lesson presentation. Creative coordination will need to be encouraged per class to keep up with outreach and ministry within individual classes. Plans are now for attendance sheets to be on display on long tables near the wall. We ask class secretaries or a class designee to manage their class roles at the table. Sue Fry will be nearby to assist with any SS rolls or records needs.
- The College class will be meeting in the Parlor during this transition.
- Adult 5, Coed 4 will be meeting in E245 on the grade school hallway.
- The Sunday School office will be on wheels and located in the FH or surrounding areas/hallways. Classes in the A building will need to walk to find Sue and where to retrieve and return their boxes. Classes in the A building will need to walk to find Sue and SS cart in the FH.

Year-End Contributions

Any contributions that you want to be on your 2016 tax statement, must be turned into the Financial Administrator by December 30th. The ONLY exception to this rule is an envelope postmarked by December 31st. Please remember that the church office will be closed: Thursday, December 22nd, Friday, December 23rd, Monday, December 26th and Monday, January 2nd.

Any stock contributions for 2016 must be received by Trinity or in Trinity's account by December 31st to be counted as a 2016 contribution. If you have any questions, please call Jan Brown BEFORE the first of the year at 919-787-3740. Thank you for your support of Trinity!

ANNUAL TBC Marriage Retreat

February 24-26 • Beach Cove Resort, N Myrtle Beach

Give your Marriage a Christmas present by making plans for a Winter Get-A-Way! This year's theme, "The Road Less Traveled", will be focusing on some common roadblocks (like time management, mistrust and lack of quality communication) that all marriages face from time to time. We'll look at how to build a solid foundation that will enable couples to get through these times with the help of marriage enrichment practices. The aim is to provide preparation, purpose and planning within your marriage – a road that only successful marriages go down. Our leader couple will be Reginald and Julia McClain of Clayton. They have been married for 20 years and are a Better Marriages Trained Leader Couple.

Cost of the retreat including your private Oceanfront Condo with living room and kitchenette, and program fee is $245 per couple. A $100 deposit included in the total is due by January 8. Make your check out to "TBC" and note for "Marriage Retreat". Don't wait – rooms are going fast! Encourage your SS Class members to join you! We'll have a fun time from Friday evening at 7:00pm to Sunday worship, concluding at noon. Sign-up by contacting Hal Melton at hmelton@tbcraleigh.com or 919-612-4400.

KY Pineknott Center Hills & Hollers Ministries

Clothing Needed

We continue to collect clothing for our friends in McCreary County, KY. Joe Ward and a partner drive a truck up there every 4-6 weeks to supply this clothing Co-Op that serves over 1,500 families in this poorest county in the USA.

Right now their main needs are: jeans, coats and mittens / gloves (kids, adults – all sizes). They also need lots of children's clothing of all kinds... especially younger sizes.

Please bring as much as you can before January 7. At that time, TBC's building B will be closed for a month as part of the construction. That is where our large collection bin is located and we can't find another place for it. We will still continue to collect somehow, but it will help the crew that sort the clothing to get as much as they can before that building closes.

January 21 • February 11 • March 18

Join with other Trinity members and help build a home for a Raleigh family in need. The home will be built in the same neighborhood as last years' off of New Hope Road. Details coming later – just save these dates! Trinity must supply 25+ workers each of these Saturdays, PLUS provide lunch for 35. Work schedule is 8:00am-3:00pm.

Thanks!

Christmas is a wonderful time of year.

This is a time to reflect and renew for the New Year. As we await the birth of Christ and anticipate all that 2017 hopes to bring us, I am thankful for you as persons of character and for you as my church. You are an awesome congregation to serve and I cherish each opportunity. Thank you for understanding my flaws and attempts to lead as best I can. I am excited about the New Year even though I realize we will be uncomfortable or compromised in our facilities. The hope of new and improved space is encouraging. Peace be to each of you as we walk together into 2017.

Children's Day

March 5, 2017

Children will be participating in all aspects of the morning worship services. If you are a grade school child that plays an instrument or has a special talent and you are willing to share with us in the service, please contact me. We may not be able to use everyone but we would like to try to use you if possible.

Lead Team Volunteers Needed

We still need a lead team to work with our children and handle extra responsibilities this year. Let me know if you would like to serve on this lead team!

Words from Katie

Community is one of God's greatest gift to us as His people. Community is from the world as God wants it to be. It is the gift of a rich and challenging life together, one that we need and can receive with joy. Christian community is simply sharing a common life in Christ. The biblical ideal of community challenges us instead to commit ourselves to life together as the people of God. At Trinity we see time together, and growing through Christ's love, as an important time to grow together and become more like Christ.
