Following Jesus...

Dr. Jeff Roberts, Senior Pastor
jroberts@tbcraleigh.com • Twitter: @Jeff__Roberts

It is that time of year again, when we bring to a close one year and then consider a new year to come. We all know there is nothing magical about the difference between 11:50 p.m. December 31 and 12:00 midnight January 1, and yet there is something special about letting one year go and embracing a new year. Depending on your own circumstances, 2014 might be a year you will fondly remember and others are very happy to say "Happy New Year." Most of us will look back on 2014 and find it is like most years and most of our lives. The year was filled with moments of great joy and great sorrow. The year was filled with routine and special memories. We give God thanks for being present to us regardless of our experiences in 2014.

As we turn our attention to 2015, we find hope for what a new year can offer to us. It can be a time of hope and a new determination. If you are like most people you will make some sort of new year's resolution. There is always the ever popular to lose weight, or get in shape. Some of us will set resolutions concerning our employment and job performance. Many will make more personal resolutions, such as spending more time with loved ones or taking up a hobby. As followers of Jesus, many of us will want to become more disciplined in our spiritual lives. This might include reading the Bible more frequently or attending worship and tithing. We might make a resolution to become involved in a mission effort of our congregation.

I have found that setting the goal and naming the resolution is normally the easy part of the new year. I am always keenly aware of the goals I want to reach and what needs to change in my life. The hard part is not only keeping those goals, but also knowing how to begin.

Senior Adult Ministries...the Better Half of Life

Rev. Hal Melton, hmelton@tbcraleigh.com

Whether you traveled with the Senior Adults, attended a program on senior housing options, attended a brick dedication in the columbarium, attended the celebration for those married 50 years or more, visited shut-ins, brought your paper for shredding, or took part in any other of our events, thank you for participating in the 2014 Senior Adult Ministry here at Trinity. The Lord has blessed us mightily! The love and financial support of members, the dedication of seniors who work behind the scenes, the willingness of those who always say "yes" when asked to drive the vans, and the encouragement by staff who understand and celebrate the contribution of seniors to the life of our church -- all these blessings make the Trinity Senior Ministry possible.

If you have not participated in programs targeting Seniors yet, get on board! Anyone old enough to have an AARP card (most of us!) is welcome. If our destinations, program topics, etc. have not triggered your interest, let us know what will. Our 2015 program is under construction now. We are always looking for new ideas and we welcome your input.

We wish you peace, joy and love in the New Year!

Music Ministry

Rev. Steve Byers, slbyers@tbcraleigh.com

Music Notes

I am so grateful for the commitment and dedication shown to our church by all of our choirs and ensembles through the fall season and the month-long Christmas celebrations at Trinity. While away on vacation, I pondered how wonderfully blessed we have been by all of our musicians and the leadership it takes to carry on our worship experiences on a weekly basis. I am amazed at how God has worked through so many gifted people at Trinity, and I look forward to another new year of music-making together.

Let this be the time you commit to coming to a choir or ensemble and getting involved in our music ministry. Make a new year's resolution to be involved in an area of ministry that touches so many people who come through the doors of our church.

Sanctuary Choir Retreat

January 9-10

This is an important time for our choir to focus once again on musical preparation for our Easter season. Some of our members have asked if they could come back to the choir and this is the greatest time to get involved! Besides rehearsal, we devote our time to fellowship and growing closer as ministry friends. Each year we begin our Easter music by rehearsing and getting a good start to the season. Palm Sunday comes quickly this year on March 29, so we have to get to work and would love to have you come join us! Give me a call and we can begin to get your music and place in the choir loft ready for you!
