Deepen The Ties That Bind

Dr. Jeff Roberts, Senior Pastor • jroberts@tbcraleigh.com • Twitter: @Jeff_Roberts

Eugene Peterson writes in A Long Obedience in the Same Direction:

Repentance is not an emotion. It is not feeling sorry for your sins. It is a decision. It is deciding that you have been wrong in supposing that you could manage your own life and be your own god. It is deciding that you were wrong in thinking you had, or could get, the strength, education and training to make it on your own; it is deciding that you have been told a pack of lies about yourself and your neighbors and your world. And it is deciding that God in Jesus Christ is telling you the truth. Repentance is a realization that what God wants from you and what you want from God are not going to be achieved by doing the same old things, thinking the same old thoughts. Repentance is a decision to follow Jesus Christ and become His pilgrim in the path of peace. Repentance is the most practical of all words and the most practical of all acts. It is a feet on the ground kind of word.

As we begin a New Year, we will be making all types of resolutions. We will “try harder” to eat healthier, exercise, find a hobby or pursue a passion. In all our trying to form and reform our lives, if we do not live in repentance toward God we will again arrive at the end of another year and wonder why we still are not fulfilled, and full of abundant life. All of our efforts will again come to nothing without God at the center.

As we enter 2017, I want to ask you to consider repentance. Repentance, as Peterson says, “is not feeling sorry for your sins” or some other emotional response, but instead making a choice of the will to seek God and follow Jesus. Repentance means to change direction. What needs to change in your life this year for you to follow Jesus? What priority needs to be adjusted? What habits need to be broken and what new habits need to be established? What change of mind needs to occur? What action and attitude toward others needs to be confessed and changed?

As we begin 2017, I am going to be preaching on “Questions From the Wilderness”. We will be journeying through the book of Exodus with God’s people as they made their way from Egypt to Canaan. Along the way, they were being formed into the people of God for a land of promise. It was a long journey. There were those who never reached the promise land. There were those who turned aside along the way. What should have been a short journey took 40 years. It took that long for God to reveal Himself and to teach the people. What will we learn in 2017? What is God going to teach us as His people here at Trinity? I am excited to find out as we begin this New Year. However, for us to begin with the right attitude, we must begin with repentance. I want to encourage you to make seeking God’s Will and following Jesus your most important resolution this year.

I am looking forward to this year of ministry together. I will see you Sunday as we take our first steps into 2017 together.

ANNUAL TBC Marriage Retreat

February 24-26 • Beach Cove Resort, N Myrtle Beach

Give your Marriage a Christmas present by making plans for a Winter Get-A-Way! This year's theme, "The Road Less Traveled", will be focusing on some common roadblocks (like time management, mistrust and lack of quality communication) that all marriages face from time to time. We'll look at how to build a solid foundation that will enable couples to get through these times with the help of marriage enrichment practices. The aim is to provide preparation, purpose and planning within your marriage – a road that only successful marriages go down. Our leader couple will be Reginald and Julia McClain of Clayton. They have been married for 20 years and are a Better Marriages Trained Leader Couple.

Cost of the retreat including your private Oceanfront Condo with living room and kitchenette, and program fee is $245 per couple. A $100 deposit included in the total is due by January 8. Make your check out to "TBC" and note for "Marriage Retreat". Don't wait – rooms are going fast! Encourage your SS Class members to join you! We'll have a fun time from Friday evening at 7:00pm to Sunday worship, concluding at noon. Sign-up by contacting Hal Melton at hmelton@tbcraleigh.com or 919-612-4400.

KY Pineknott Center Hills & Hollers Ministries

Clothing Needed

We continue to collect clothing for our friends in McCreary County, KY. Joe Ward and a partner drive a truck up there every 4-6 weeks to supply this clothing Co-Op that serves over 1,500 families in this poorest county in the USA.

Right now their main needs are: jeans, coats and mittens / gloves (kids, adults – all sizes). They also need lots of children's clothing of all kinds... especially younger sizes.

Please bring as much as you can before January 7. At that time, TBC's building B will be closed for a month as part of the construction. That is where our large collection bin is located and we can't find another place for it. We will still continue to collect somehow, but it will help the crew that sort the clothing to get as much as they can before that building closes.

January 21 • February 11 • March 18

Join with other Trinity members and help build a home for a Raleigh family in need. The home will be built in the same neighborhood as last years' off of New Hope Road. Details coming later – just save these dates! Trinity must supply 25+ workers each of these Saturdays, PLUS provide lunch for 35. Work schedule is 8:00am-3:00pm.

Thanks!

Music Ministry

Rev. Steve Byers, slbyers@tbcraleigh.com

Music Notes

Our college students led worship this past Sunday morning with such grace and beauty. From the music to the spoken word, these students have shown how much they've grown and continue to grow in the Lord. I am very grateful to have been a part of the service as a member of the congregation and to participate under their leadership. Good luck with 2017 and finishing out this next semester! Praying for a year full of opportunities of service for you.

We have had a tremendous season of music from our musicians at Trinity Baptist. Many of our musicians were faithful to cover the Christmas Eve and Day services while I was away, and for that I'm eternally grateful. Though many of our ensembles or choirs weren't featured in a concert setting, we did hear from them in our worship services throughout the month of December. Thank you for remaining flexible as we figure out the best ways to feature our ensembles in the midst of a changing rehearsal and performance landscape while we are under construction!

I know that I have mentioned it before, but I want to offer a special word of thanksgiving to the Sound and Video Team and accompanists for their work every week in setting up and tearing down our sound and video equipment. These folks have stayed after services to break down and store equipment and then return to set up on Saturdays prior to worship. It is a tremendous amount of work. And though it has only been a couple of months, they have proven that we can get things done when we work together. Please take a moment and offer your words of encouragement to them. It has been a lot of work each week.

Words from Katie

As we change our calendars each new year, it's an invitation to new beginnings and fresh starts. A year's worth of mostly blank pages beckon us to make our mark on the future. It's an opportunity to decide our families priorities for the year. It also is a time where hope opens her door. I encourage you to think about how you and your family will spend 2017—what will be your focus? Here are a few things we should all consider for ourselves, our family, and our church for 2017:

What can we do to more fully savor the life God has given us? We know that each day is a gift. How will we enjoy each day that we are given this year? I encourage you and your family to live your life to the fullest. What are some things that you have always wanted to do as a family? Could you make 2 or 3 of those happen in 2017?

Count our blessings. One of my favorite quotes is: "Every day may not be good, but there's something good in everyday." Growing up in our house we each had to say three positives about our day each night at the dinner table. Although some days as a child it was a painful exercise as I have gotten older it is a daily practice for me. It is something that centers me and reminds me of how blessed I am.

How can we use our spiritual gifts in 2017? 1 Corinthians 12 says, "Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit. And there are varieties of ministries, and the same Lord. There are varieties of effects, but the same God who works all things in all persons." How can you and your family use your gifts to encourage others, build up the Church, and to help expand the kingdom? There are so many ways to serve. I hope in 2017 you can find your place.

Pray more. While I could go on and on in my list I think ending with this one for now is perfect. As a church, TBC has been focusing on prayer in our adult discipleship classes this past fall and we will continue in 2017 with this focus. As Christians we are commanded to pray. My prayer for us in 2017 is that my family, your family, and our church family here at TBC will be a praying people. Philip

Yancey, one of my favorite writers says this of prayer: "The main purpose of prayer is not to make life easier, not to gain magical powers, but to know God."

We are praying for you and your family here at Trinity. May 2017 offer us all an opportunity to grow closer as a community of believers and to God. I'm very excited for our year together. May God bless you and your family!

Grace and Peace, Katie
