Deepen The Ties That Bind

Dr. Jeff Roberts, Senior Pastor • jroberts@tbcraleigh.com • Twitter: @Jeff__Roberts

This coming Sunday, June 4, is always a special day in the life of our congregation. This Sunday we will celebrate with our high school and college graduates and their families. This year is one of our largest classes in many years. We will be recognizing 39 high school graduates as part of our worship at 10:55 a.m. Join us for this special time of worship and celebration as a congregation.

Many of you may have heard of the “Romans Road to Salvation”. It is an evangelistic tool using passages from Romans to lead someone to faith in Jesus. This summer I will be preaching from the book of Romans. I am calling my series the Romans Road to Transformation. I will begin this series on Father’s Day. I hope you will join us through the summer for worship and this series. The final four sermons in the series will be part of an August emphasis entitled “Our Church’s Greatest Need.” As we have in the past few summers, we are encouraging you to come, and if you would like to dress more casually than normal, then you are encouraged to do so. I am looking forward to our summer together.

Fellowship Hall

Feed the Hunger is a NC based organization committed to addressing both the food distribution problem that prevents people worldwide from getting the nutrition they need, and the spiritual hunger faced by those in extreme poverty. On June 24, TBC will host a Feed the Hunger packathon to pack 24,000 meals that will be distributed by Feed the Hunger's international partner churches around the world, and by TBC missionaries traveling to Pine Knot, Kentucky this summer.

Sign up for one of the two available shifts (10:00 AM to 12:00 PM OR 1:00 to 3:00 PM) using one of the posters located throughout the church or by calling Misty Deyo at 919-272-5388. This energetic and fun project is sponsored by the Women's Ministry, but anyone 5 years and older are invited to help pack meals for the hungry during the event. Approximately 100 volunteers are needed per shift to perform a variety of roles in the packing process, so there is a job for everyone! For questions contact Misty Deyo at 919-272-5388.

Music Notes

We enjoyed the musical offerings of one of my former students from Asheboro, Adam White, this past Sunday in worship.

Adam is a graduate of Gardner-Webb University and is seeking his Master of Music in Trumpet Performance when he enters Columbus State University (Georgia) this fall. Adam is the son of Frank and Carmen White who were former members of Trinity in the mid to late 1980's. It is such a joy to have had him here and to see how God has used him through the years as he developed his gifts in music.

Student Choir: Graduate Sunday is June 4. We will sing in the 10:55 am service and will rehearse before the service at 10:30 am. Please remember that this is a very important day in the life of our church and student ministry. We are leading the worship service with special music and we need all of you here! Looking forward to another great day of worship together as we musically send-off our graduates to the next step of their lives.

This Wednesday night is the last week of B.E.A.T.S music blocks where we will present a program during the church-wide BBQ night at Trinity. Parents, please check with your directors about participation on May 31, as we have given parts out for the night's

Concepts a Child Needs to Have to Make a Profession of Faith

Have you ever thought about what one needs to know or feel secure about when making a decision to follow Christ the rest of their life? Eugene Chamberlain wrote a small book many decades ago titled: "When Can a Child Believe?" It laid a huge foundation for us in the children's faith business. Here are some of his thoughts.

The Bible offers only one plan of salvation. Many Bible students identify four major elements in this plan: Repent, Believe, Accept, and Confess. Check out these concepts a child needs to understand and be aware of when discovering faith and following Jesus the rest of his/her life.

1. God is my Creator.
2. God expects certain behavior from me.
3. I do some things that are not pleasing to God, but my overall behavior does not meet God's expectations.
4. I am so sorry that I do not meet God's expectations that I wish never again to displease Him.
5. I want God to forgive me for not meeting His expectations.

Keep your children connected to God's Word and the Fellowship of Believers this Summer!

Sunday School: every week 9:45am age graded classes

Vacation Bible School: June 15-17
A concentrated study focused on discovering God's Good Gifts designed especially for children, youth and adults. Fun, Games, Crafts and Bible Study

Summer Camp: Passportkids, July 3-6
Montreat; Kids Camp, September 14-16,
Camp Willow Run

6. God sent His Son, Jesus, to be my guide and model.
7. Jesus Christ died because God wanted me—and other people to be saved from the consequences of living my way rather than living His way.
8. If I trust Jesus to be my Savior, God will forgive me for my wrongdoing and wrong attitudes.
9. If I ask Jesus to be my Savior, I must also promise to do my best to live always as He shows me how to live.

— Eugene Chamberlain
Author, When Can a Child Believe

One of the joys of my ministry is to teach classes on helping children understand the process of becoming a church member at Trinity. The key element of this discussion is to understand what it means to accept Jesus as your Lord and Savior and become a Christian. This is first and foremost in our lessons. I have listed some concepts that Eugene Chamberlain shared many years ago which are still relevant today. I do not teach these concepts in any order. But I share them in this newsletter for parents or others to know as a guide when questions arise.

I also like to emphasize that there is no quick alliterated plan for becoming a Christian. It is not a simple memorizing chart that leads one to an eternal relationship with our Lord. It is a day-by-day walk through prayer that establishes this relationship and continues one's faith experience. Be wary of providing your child with a false sense of security. Rather encourage the relationship and get down on your knees with them before the Father. Make their prayer exactly that. Theirs alone. Only they can establish the relationship with Jesus. We can only watch and pray.
