Deepen The Ties That Bind

Dr. Jeff Roberts, Senior Pastor • jroberts@tbcraleigh.com • Twitter: @Jeff__Roberts

Every good story has a main plot and many sub-plots. Hopefully, in a novel or movie the sub-plots actually support and are intertwined with the main plot of the story. This summer, we have been making a journey through Romans using the title of “The Roman Road to Transformation.” We have considered how the Holy Spirit is at work in each of our lives, transforming us to the likeness of our Lord Jesus. As we enter August, we will continue in the book of Romans, but we will be creating a sub-plot that surely is intertwined with the main plot of personal transformation. During the next four weeks, we will be exploring the role of the church and our role in the church. Under the sub-plot title “Our Church’s Greatest Need,” we will consider how we can make a difference in the life of our church. Join us as we consider:

August 6 • Our Church’s Greatest Need - Simple Faith

August 13 • Our Church’s Greatest Need - Sacrifice

August 20 • Our Church’s Greatest Need - You!

August 27 • Our Church’s Greatest Need - Love

Also, remember we resume our Sunday night activities and fellowships this coming Sunday night. This Sunday night, August 6, we will hear from our students regarding their mission trip to Oklahoma; we will also share in a time of fellowship afterward. We begin in the Fellowship Hall at 6:00 p.m.

DEEPEST SYMPATHIES

The Family of TBC Member Paul Williams upon his passing on Wednesday, July 26, in Cary.

Cecil and Rhonda Davis (and their children Austin Davis (Lauren) and Brett Davis) upon the passing of Cecil's mother, Norma Warren Davis of Raleigh.

Donna Broughton and her family upon the passing of her husband, John Broughton, on Saturday, July 29, in Raleigh.

WELCOME TO TRINITY

Terri Anderson Granberry of Raleigh joined by letter.

Nicholas, Megan, Sara Ann, and Nat Thorpe of Wake Forest joined by letter.

DEACON OF THE WEEK

Paul Gubbins has been a member of Trinity since 1990 and is a native of Raleigh. He and his wife Rhonda, have two children: Michael and Grant. Paul is a Lumber/Building Materials Associate with Home Depo in Wake Forest. He serves on the Committee on Committees and serves in the Sanctuary Choir and the New Covenant Ensemble. He works with the Allen/York Sunday School Class. He also works with deacon Laury Holley.

North Raleigh Ministries will Receive all Clothing Donations for McCreary Co, Ky Mission

Our partnership between TBC, North Raleigh Ministries and Hills & Hollers Ministries in KY is growing stronger and more organized. We are changing our donation procedure for KY Clothing. All clothing and supplies will be donated at North Raleigh Ministries (9650 Strickland Rd #161, Raleigh, NC 27615). These items will be put on sale to provide funds for the NRM Crisis Center. Two major benefits to donating directly to NRM: a person will help you remove items from your vehicle, and you will receive a receipt that can be used as a tax deduction.

A TBC team and other volunteers will remove certain unsold clothing to be sent to KY for their clothing co-op. Monthly trips will still be made to make sure the Pine Knot Center in KY stays well stocked.

From time to time the Pine Knot Center will have specific needs for underwear, socks, gloves, toboggans, steel-toed shoes, etc. We will continue to have the donation container in the B building for TBC to collect these items directly.

So begin dropping off ALL your clothing donations that you would have brought to TBC for KY directly to NRM. Thanks!

Seeking Teachers & Leaders

The Nominating Committee is currently seeking teachers and leaders for the 2017-2018 church year. Please be open to the Lord leading you into service.

Contact Art Melvin if you are interested in serving in any capacity. He can be reached at Amelvin2@nc.rr.com.

Please pray for the Belize Mission Team (August 4-12)

Senior Adult Ministries...the Better Half of Life

Rev. Hal Melton, hmelton@tbcraleigh.com

Contrary to Rosy Propaganda 85 is Not the New 65!

The elder population boom will affect everyone, and the church has an important role to play. An astounding 85 percent of nursing home residents never receive personal one-on-one visits, according to Bill Goodrich, executive director of God Cares Ministry in Avon Lake, Ohio. "People in a nursing home cannot have Christian fellowship unless the Christians come to them," says Goodrich. "These truly are the least of these—the weak and disenfranchised."

Did you know nursing homes are required by Medicare to provide unspecified "spiritual care" to residents? Few administrators object to church volunteers conducting worship services or Bible studies. It relieves the facility from having to pay someone to do it, and it does help the residents. This allows Christians to make personal visits, pray with residents and have conversations with them. – Christianity Today <http://www.christianitytoday.com/ct/2011/december/aseniormoment.html?start=2>

This population of people is becoming the truly "forgotten" of our times. So, how can Trinity help fill the gap that exists? One way is to make yourself available once a month, on the 3rd Wednesday morning at 10:00am in the Fellowship Hall. There you will find others who have come to serve. You will be paired with someone else and go out in teams of two to visit with a couple of Trinity's homebound or other elder members from 10:15 am to about 12:00 noon. Then you can regroup for a quick, fast food lunch afterward if you want.

Some of you are thinking that this type of ministry is not for you: it might feel uncomfortable, it's depressing, or you might not know what to say or do on a visit. The above article from Christianity Today suggests you try this ministry experience three times before making a decision about whether to continue or not.

Trinity's visitation ministry is coordinated by Anita Yeargin (anitayeargin@yahoo.com) who would enjoy sharing more info with you. Won't you consider joining her and the other faithful members who offer just a few minutes of their time each month to visit with over 35 Trinity elder members and put a bright spot in someone's day?

WIHN is Now “Family Promise”

Trinity's hosting of homeless families with children through Wake Interfaith Hospitality Network has been on hold due to the construction. During this time, the organization has changed its name to Family Promise of Wake County. Trinity will be ready to begin hosting families again in July 2018 – one week per quarter.

Jenny Wilson LOVED this local mission and did an amazing job coordinating it from 2007-2015. With her sudden passing, both the Trinity family and the Family Promise family knew a great loss.

Now we need to begin preparing hospitality for the families God will send our way later next year. Beth Duke, who was Jenny's assistant coordinator, has accepted the position of Family Promise Coordinator. We will need many volunteers to do this mission well: SS classes to provide evening meals, overnight hosts & hostesses, van drivers (morning and evening), furniture set up & take down crew, children's play time volunteers, and more.

Please begin praying NOW about how God may be calling you, your family, or your Sunday School class to participate. If you have questions, please contact Hal or Beth. Thanks so much! Hal

Marriage Enrichment Groups

Begin Friday, September 8
Sign Up on ROC Board Now!

A Marriage Enrichment Group (MEG) is an ongoing small group that provides a safe place for married or engaged couples to explore their relationship among supportive peers. Each MEG is as unique as the couples in them! All couples are there to strengthen and grow their relationship and have fun doing it.

The MEG purpose is to build skills toward enriching four things that will encourage a healthy marriage relationship: A Commitment to Growth, An Effective Communication System, The Creative Use of Conflict, and Frequent Expressions of Affection and Affirmation.

MEGs at TBC meet once a month. The “First Year” group will meet the 2nd Friday of each month during the school year in the Underground. “Ongoing” groups (alumnae) meet in a home with up to 10 couples including a Leader Couple. Each month the MEGs will address a different topic from a book they read together. The goal of the couples' time together is to focus on their relationship. There is some social time in the schedule with the majority of the time is spent with couples dialoguing about the topic of the week as it concerns their relationship.

Music Ministry

Rev. Steve Byers, slbyers@tbcraleigh.com

Music Notes

Special thanks to Testament for leading us this past Sunday morning in the worship services. Testament is known for both their instrumental and vocal music at Trinity. The two songs for worship this past Sunday were beautiful hymns of our faith: "Come, Thou Fount of Ev'ry Blessing" (arranged by Art Melvin), and "Jesus Paid It All" (arranged by Dave Buster. These musicians are always surprising us with great music for worship! Thank you for your continued ministry in music.

Launching into Music and Missions....Our Preschool and Children's Choirs kick-off with the Wednesday evening program on August 30. Once school begins, it is a good time to start the routine of church ministry involvement and choir participation. More information will be "launched" soon so that everyone can have a blast! I hope to see you on that night!

We are still very much in need of children's choir workers beginning August 30. We will have openings in the preschool music area with 3's and the 4's and 5's. If you have musical skills or if you just like being with preschoolers and having fun in music, prayerfully consider and let's talk together and find a way to get you involved in music ministry!

The Bells of Praise has a ringer opportunity for those who would be willing to be a substitute in the bell choir. There will be a series of 4 Sunday nights where you can become familiar with the bells, become familiar with bell music, practice ringing techniques, and ring simple tunes. The Sunday nights are September 17 & 24, October 1 & 8 at 4 pm in the Choir Room, D Building. If you are interested, please contact Sylvia Pearce at sylviawp@earthlink.net or 919.671.9622.

Student Mission Report

This summer our students served the Lord in countless ways all across the country. Join us Sunday, August 6th at 6pm in the Fellowship Hall to hear about our College Students serving the poor and the hungry in San Francisco, our High School Students leading Vacation Bible School and construction at Native American churches in Watonga, Oklahoma, and our Middle School students participating in a variety of mission projects at Passport Missions Camp in Greenville, SC.

In addition, we will have a time of fellowship that will feature delicious cookie cakes decorated to represent the places we saw and the experiences our students had this summer!

6th Grade Orientation

Sunday, August 6

Attention all rising 6th Graders! We are excited to have you become part of the Student Ministry this year and we want to make sure you get started off on the right foot by attending 6th Grade Orientation. This orientation will occur immediately following the trip to Kanki with Karen (about 2:00pm or 2:30pm) in the Underground.

Genesis Weekend

August 18-19 • Cost: $50
Registration Cards have been mailed!

We will all meet at the Fellowship Hall. Students will stay at their D-Team Leaders homes on Friday night.

We will kick off a new year of D-Teams with worship, games, mission projects, fellowship, and fun!

Genesis Weekend Snack Donations

Attention all TBC members! We are looking for volunteers to help with the annual TBC Genesis Weekend for our youth. It will be held Friday August 18-Saturday August 19. We need help providing snack and breakfast items for host homes, collecting and sorting the food for distribution, and/or helping with the dinners provided at church Friday and Saturday evenings. There are 14 groups of students and each group will have between 5-12 youth and leaders. We will have a better idea of exact numbers early in August.

You can bring the items for the small groups to the the office during normal office hours or to the TBC Fellowship Hall on Friday August 18th from 4-6 p.m.

Over the next two Sundays we will have a booth in the ROC Lobby where you can sign up to bring a particular item. If you are unable to attend over the next two Sundays here is a list of suggested items for the small groups:

Snack items: Cookies, brownies, chips, cheese and crackers, candy, fruit, soda

Breakfast items- muffins, sweet rolls, Bagels and cream cheese, fruit, cereal, juice, milk.

Blast Off

We are preparing to blast off into a NEW year of music and missions here at Trinity on August 31st! We are so excited to begin another year of learning and growing together. We believe that it is vital that our preschoolers learn about missions just like everyone else. I think we often discount preschoolers and children and what they're capable of.

We believe this here at Trinity and believe that our preschoolers should and can be engaged with learning about missions. One of our goals is to create lifelong Christians who know the impact they can have in God's kingdom. To do that we must use missions education as an exercise in servanthood — not as something that happens somewhere else.

Preschoolers are one of the most unique, joyous, exciting, unpredictable, and refreshing gifts that God has given us! We recognize that here at Trinity; and so through our missions education we see each child as an individual with special gifts, needs, thoughts, and personality. We believe in a hands-on mission learning experience! We use Mission Friends curriculum and through this curriculum babies through kindergarteners, begin to receive the building blocks of faith and a basic awareness of God's love for all people.

Let Katie know if you need childcare.

One of my favorite books in my office is called, "I Can Do It!" It sums up nicely what our goal is for our preschoolers on Wednesday nights during Mission Friends. Part I of it reads: "I can learn about missions. I can read the Bible. I can give Bibles to others. I can go to church. I can invite others to church. I can give to others. I can be a friend. I can pray for others. I can love others. I can tell others about Jesus."

I hope you and your family will join us on Wednesday nights beginning on Wednesday August 31st at 6pm as we explore and teach our preschoolers (and ourselves) how we can be all these things to help to further God's Kingdom here on earth!

See you soon! – Katie
