Deepen The Ties That Bind

Dr. Jeff Roberts, Senior Pastor • jroberts@tbcraleigh.com • Twitter: @Jeff_Roberts

It was 1993. Bill Clinton was President, gas cost $1.14 a gallon, no one was walking around with a cell phone. The top movie was Schindler's List and CERN launched the World Wide Web. In that same year, Trinity Baptist Church called a young woman who was serving in Oklahoma to come and be their Minister to Children and Preschoolers. Now, 25 years later we are celebrating the ministry of Rev. Karen Metcalf Eickhoff. This coming Sunday we will have a time of recognition for Karen's 25 years of ministry with us and in the afternoon you are invited to a reception in her honor. Karen is the longest serving minister in our church's history. During Karen's 25 years of ministry, she has led our congregation to become aware of the youngest among us. She has reminded us that children are not the future of the church but they are the church. She has worked to establish policies and procedures to keep our children safe and to ensure that our children are a primary concern when we meet as a church family. Karen has led us to consider the importance of passing on our faith to the next generation. In fact, Karen now leads parents, who were once children in our congregation, on how to teach their children about Jesus. She has led hundreds of children to Christ through her teaching and encouraging. It is hard to measure her influence on the families of our church over these past 25 years.

In addition to her role with children, Karen has always been a minister to the whole congregation. Many of us have been the recipient of Karen's kindness in moments of grief and sorrow. We all have observed her incredible work ethic and faithfulness to the ministry of Trinity over the years. We have been blessed.

Karen has not only blessed us but has blessed the greater Baptist family with her knowledge and experience. She has led conferences, written curriculum and taught in our Divinity schools.

I hope you will join us this Sunday as we say thank you to Karen for 25 years of faithful service.

You are cordially invited to a Reception honoring

Rev. Karen Eickhoff

for her 25 years of Ministry & Service to Trinity Baptist Church.

Sunday, April 29th • 3:30 pm - 5:00 pm

Drop by Trinity's Fellowship Hall to express your gratitude and enjoy light refreshments.

FRIENDS DAY

at Trinity Baptist Church

TUESDAY, MAY 15TH, 11:00AM

in the Fellowship Hall

Each year the Senior Adult Committee, along with the Prime Timers' Choir and the church staff, plan a simple luncheon to honor all our Homebound Church Members who are able to come to the Fellowship Hall. They enjoy seeing each other so much and this event has become a "reunion" of sorts for them. The PrimeTimers Choir sings old favorites, and Nancy Hurt does a great job of interviewing each one about their memories of active years at TBC. The whole event lasts only a little over an hour. If you have a loved one who is a member of Trinity and is unable to attend, please consider making special plans to have them at this luncheon. They will enjoy it, and WE will be so blessed.

THANK YOU...

...to all volunteers who participated in OIAM projects last week!

Your willingness to be the hands and feet of Jesus was evident throughout our community and was a blessing to many. It was a great opportunity to be part of a short, local mission project and let God's love shine through to our neighbors. A special thanks also to all of the Project Team Leaders!

If you were unable to participate in this spring's OIAM mission blitz, you will have another opportunity in the Fall when mission projects will be conducted by the individual Adult Sunday School classes.

- Kathy Younger, OIAM Coordinator

3 TRINITY COUPLES TRAINED AS CERTIFIED LEADERSHIP COUPLES!!

Roberta and I (Hal) decided years ago to become "credentialed" and be trained to lead in Marriage Enrichment retreats, groups, etc. The training offered through Better Marriages, Inc. based in Winston-Salem gave us access to continuing education conferences, resources and new friends from several states. We have been praying for years that one or more couples at TBC would take the challenge to become Better Marriages Leadership Couples as well. Now, we are pleased to announce that Van & Julie Daughtry, Reagan & Allison Williams and Ellis & Sarah Payne have all completed the 5-day training process and were all "honor" students!! Their willingness to strengthen their own marriages in this way, as well as committing to grow the Marriage Ministry here at TBC will be a blessing for many years to come. Thanks and congratulations to each of you!

“Becoming a Church Member”

Here are some of the points we discussed at our “new member” class for children last week. Check out this process within a Baptist church. Maybe it will help you as you share with a child.

- 1. Become a Christian.
(Accept Jesus as your Lord and Savior.)
- 2. Decide to join a church. (Walk to the front of the church during the last hymn and tell the pastor what you want to do.)
- 3. Be Baptized. (A special service where you enter the baptismal pool with the pastor and he/she baptizes you in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.)

Lord and Savior and give Jesus control of his or her life.

To Accept Jesus as Lord means you must:

- Realize you are a Sinner.
- Feel sorry that you have not followed God's Way.
- Give up your own way and turn to Jesus.
- Give your life to Jesus.

Jesus wants a relationship with each of us. His desire is that we believe in him and take the name of Christian. A person who wants to become a Christian must accept Jesus as

You must talk to Jesus and tell him about your sins, ask forgiveness, and tell him you want to live for him all your life. We do this through prayer on our own.
