Dr. Jeff Roberts, Senior Pastor • jroberts@tbcraleigh.com • Twitter: @Jeff__Roberts

One of my earliest memories is sitting in a dimly lit farmhouse in Tennessee, with my grandparents. The day had come and gone and the night had brought quiet to the house. In this small house, at any given time, there were several generations of family catching up on life and encouraging each other. Grandkids played in one room. A game of serious Scrabble was happening in the kitchen and in the middle room (you really can describe it as a family room since every room had a bed) sat my grandfather in his vinyl easy chair. He would lean back and play his favorite album on an old stereo. It would not be long until you could hear the music throughout the house. The song that is seared in my memory was by "The Chuck Wagon Gang." A high singing tenor would cry out:

Jesus is coming soon, morning or night or noon, many will meet their doom, trumpets will sound. All of the dead shall rise, righteous meet in the sky, going where no one dies, heaven we're bound.

Have you ever considered how many hymns we sing about heaven? In fact, many of our favorite hymns are about life everlasting. We love to sing rousing hymns like "When We All Get to Heaven," "When the Roll Is Called Up Yonder," "Sweet By and By," and "I Am Bound for the Promised Land." Even some of the most popular contemporary worship songs have a longing for heaven. We are moved by lyrics to the song "I Can Only Imagine" or the words of "The Untitled Hymn." Gospel music has always had the theme of heaven as a central theme.

These songs move us because, as Ecclesiastes 3:11 reminds us, "God has made everything beautiful in its time and put eternity in the human heart." As finite human beings we long for that which is eternal. We want to know answers to our questions about death, heaven, hell and eternity.

This coming Sunday I will be concluding our series "Starting With Why." We will explore those final words of Jesus in John 3:16, "shall not perish but have everlasting life." The promise of Jesus is for this life and for the life to come. It is truly good news. I am looking forward to sharing this message of hope with you.

TBC Shoebox Collection

Dedication Sunday: Nov. 11
Goal: 800 Shoeboxes

The TBC OCC Shoebox Lead Team is hard at work getting Shoeboxes put together and distributing them all over our campus. They make it easy for you to pick up a box to fill for a child. In each box is a brochure with instructions and a label for you to put on the box showing the gender and age of the child you have purchased for and prayed over.

Please bring your filled Shoeboxes to the Narthex between now and Sunday morning, November 11th. That is the Sunday we will put all the donated Shoeboxes on the steps of the pulpit and have children come and pray for the children receiving them.

Thanks so much for participating in this Global Mission touching children in poverty stricken and war-torn countries of the world!

The Children's Ministry is responsible for the Christmas tree in the Fellowship Hall. This is a special tree decorated with ornaments provided by you—the families of Trinity. If you cannot make it to the Fellowship Hall—bring it to the office and we will get it to the tree.

Become part of a wonderful Trinity tradition and bring a Family ornament for the tree!! The Tree will be up around Thanksgiving.
