Happy New Year

2018 will be recorded as a historic year in the life of Trinity Baptist Church. After 18 months of transition, 2018 was the year we returned to our Sanctuary for worship and also began to utilize our new facilities. It was a year of joy and also adjustments. As we re-entered the Sanctuary, many of us discovered that we would miss the intimacy of worshipping in the ROC. In those 18 months we had grown accustomed to us all being in a smaller space. In addition, because of the location of the ROC, every Sunday we were all coming in one direction and thus our natural traffic patterns created fellowship. In other words, we saw each other every Sunday. Interestingly, our goal of creating more fellowship space in our construction may have been solved by just moving to the gym! However, we know that was not a long-term solution.

After 18 months of transition we were able to return to our facilities and begin to utilize them to the fullest. It is my opinion that we are still getting used to our new space. Many are still trying to find their new area to sit in worship. Sunday School classes are still in the process of making their new rooms their “rooms.” Ministries are still finding new places to meet and we are still discovering ways to use our new spaces to the fullest. This will take time, but there is no doubt that our new facility has created the space for the ministries we intended.

Whether it is the use of the Narthex for fellowship and information on Sundays or its use in ministering to families during grief, this space has become an important part of our ministry. In addition, the expansion of our Sanctuary has meant more seating for guests, and the expanded stage has created a flexible situation for us to use multiple groups in worship leadership. Our additional Sunday School rooms have created the space for us to begin creating new classes. We are preparing to launch a new Sunday School class this first quarter of 2019. I will be sharing more about this class in the days ahead. Finally, the return of the ROC to its original purpose has created the opportunity for us to begin to expand this outreach ministry again.

I am so grateful for all who were a part of this 10-year journey. I thank all who gave leadership and who gave of their time and resources to make this an historic season in the life of our church.

Now we must turn our attention to the future. We have been faithful to the vision of the past decade and now we must begin a new chapter in the life of our church. As I have shared with you during our Sunday School Department breakfast meetings, the culture, the church culture, and even Trinity, is in the midst of great shifts. I outlined for us three shifts that are occurring to us and around us. Let me briefly state them again.

First, the culture has shifted from a church-centered culture to a post-church culture. The church and the church schedule, program, and ministry are no longer the center of our culture. The church finds itself in many ways counter to the culture in regards to what we value and how we should spend our time and resources.

Second, the culture of church in America has shifted. On any given Sunday, the majority of Americans who attend church will attend a mega-church. Although the large majority of churches in America are still attended by less than 100 people, more people attend a mega-church. Most definitions of a mega-church are attendance of 3,000 or more. These congregations are, in general terms, multi-site, and have a strong central personality that leads them. These church models tend to have modern or contemporary worship as their style. These church models, although stressing small group experiences, tend not to have a large percentage of attendees in small groups. It is important for us to note that a church like Trinity, where we use a more traditional form of worship and a traditional form of small group gathering (the Sunday School), is not the norm for most church-going Americans. Because the model we call mega-church is now entering its third to fourth decade, it is very likely that we can have guests come to our worship experience and find themselves in a strange and unique experience. They may have never sung from a hymnbook or worshipped in the manner we find so meaningful.

Finally, we are experiencing shifts in our own congregation. Now that we are over 60 years old as a congregation, we have many Senior Adults who need our attention and care. In the next decade, our ministry to homebound members and others in short term care will become a challenge for us. We all will have to become aware of those who need our attention and care. We are also seeing a large shift in our families, as over 150 families in our church have moved into empty nest hood in the last decade. These families who were active participants in the church, as they raised their children in the church, are now trying to rediscover what church means for them as an individual or as a couple. This segment of our congregation is seeking to find new purpose in church engagement. We also recognize that our families with children are faced with a great challenge to parent, in a time when the culture does not support their decisions of church life, but in many ways, competes at every turn for their child's time and for their time. We must pray and support our families with children, as they have to make very hard decisions raising their children in a changing culture.

These shifts will require us to engage our culture in new ways. These shifts will require for each of us to renew our commitment to our calling together as Trinity Baptist Church. It will require us to be intentional about gathering for worship, encouraging each other in fellowship, and making disciples in this world. There are many who are wringing their hands at these shifts but I must admit that they excite me. The movement of Jesus, that we call the church, has had its greatest moments when it was distinct from the culture and had something to offer people that they could not find in the culture itself. I think we are at such a place in our American culture. This is why the thought of being the church with you excites me as we enter a new time in the life of our church.

As part of our addressing the shifts in our church and culture, our Personnel Committee has worked on redirecting some of our ministers' work. As we begin a New Year, three of our ministers will have some shifts in their responsibilities. First, Rev. Karen Eickhoff, after 25 years as our Minister with Children and recently working with our Adult Education, will make a full transition to Associate Pastor/Minister of Education and Discipleship. Karen will oversee our Education and Discipleship ministry with adults and give guidance and coordination to the whole Education and Discipleship ministry. She will work as a coordinating minister with our age group ministers to have a comprehensive education and discipleship plan for our church.

Katie Medlin will add the responsibility of children to her responsibilities as our Minister to Preschoolers and Families. Katie will work with children birth-5th grade and their families. Her title will be Associate Pastor/Minister to Children and Preschoolers.

Finally, Rebekah Gordon will become full time beginning in 2019 as she finishes her M.Div. at Campbell Divinity School. Her title will be Associate Pastor/Minister to College & Young Adults. Rebekah will continue to work alongside our Student Minister, Christian Davis, but will also take the lead in ministry to our College Students and will be developing a comprehensive ministry to Young Adults in our church and community. This is an important shift in attention as we are surrounded by Young Adults in our Midtown area.

I am so excited about these transitions as each of these talented ministers bring great gifts and passion to the work that has been assigned them. Please pray for each of them during this transition period.

I shared with you this past fall that I have great confidence as we move into 2019. I have confidence that the Spirit of God is at work. I also have confidence in Trinity Baptist Church. I have never known Trinity Baptist Church to say, "that is too hard or we can't do that." When presented with a challenge and an opportunity, I have witnessed Trinity be faithful to God's calling. I believe that we will be found faithful again. 2018 was an historic year for us but as I think about 2019, I say with great confidence, "Wherever God leads we will go." I hope that this year you will renew your commitment to our Lord Jesus and to our life together at Trinity.

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Let's celebrate this New Year! How you ask?

Let your mind and your body travel this year! Where would you like to go? Could it be as easy and as close as our Fellowship Hall as you learn something new at a Lunch-n-Learn? How about a day trip to sites nearby? You can get there via our magic coach (aka TBC Minibus) or your own carriage. Perhaps you are adventuresome enough to join in on a Mystery Trip to an unknown destination. But wait! Can you stretch yourself a little further and sign up for a trip to distant locations?

If all of this sounds exciting to you, then this is your invitation to join with other TBC seniors as we embrace the opportunities God will give us in 2019. Make time to catch up with old friends and even meet some new friends! And remember, don't be shy about suggesting something or some place you would like to explore together.

BAPTIST BUILD 2019

TBC will again be joining Baptist churches from Wake County in building two Habitat Houses this winter/spring. The location is just off Capital Blvd outside the 440 Beltline. This is a great opportunity for anyone who loves to serve with a hammer or saw, holding a ladder, or carrying a piece of wood/siding to the person who knows what to do with it! We also need folks to feed lunch to our work teams. In other words – everyone can participate!

Anyone can go ANY FRIDAY between February 1 and April 5. There will be plenty of folks to "partner up with" from various churches. Each participating church then chooses 3 Saturdays for their church to send large teams to work/feed. Trinity's 3 Saturdays are: March 2, March 16, and April 6 (OIAM Saturday).

Please mark these dates on your calendar and talk them up in your Sunday School Class. We will have a Habitat Family who will live in one of these houses with us on Sunday, February 10 to speak in worship.

TBC WORLD MISSIONS OFFERING

Church Goal: $50,000

Given to date: $40,927.65

Our annual World Missions Offering supports career Baptist Missionaries and their families in places around the world where a full-time Christian presence is needed to develop missions and ministries through which the Good News of Jesus Christ can be experienced, heard and received...bringing salvation and fullness of life.

Thank you for giving generously!

Music Ministry

Rev. Steve Byers, slbyers@tbcraleigh.com

Very special thanks to all of our readers and musicians who participated in the Lessons & Carols services as well as the Christmas Eve services this past December. Living Praise, the Orchestra, and Joyful Noise led in the Lessons and Carols services where we experienced the combination of scripture and song re-telling the prophecy and ultimate birth of Christ. Thank you to Joy Blashaw, Jessica Isaacs, Tonya Zucker, Emily Daniecki, Maury Tepper and family, Jordan Roberts, Ashley Terrazas, and Dave Buster for carrying the Christmas Eve services. With the fantastic leadership of Steve Goodman and Art Melvin at the sound board, our musicians were well-prepared to share the love of Christ at Christmas.

I would like to thank all of our musicians of Trinity for making 2018 a fantastic year of music ministry! Your dedication and commitment to worship leadership has been an amazing gift to the Lord and to all who come to worship here.

Thank you and Happy New Year to all of you!

The new year is a great time to begin serving in a choir, ensemble, or instrumental group at Trinity! We have choirs and ensembles that fit everyone's age and tastes. Maybe there are some folks new to our church who would like more information on how to get involved in worship leadership continued... at Trinity but don't know how to get started. Give me a call and let's consider your place of music ministry with our musical family. We are praying that God opens new doors of ministry and service that we can embrace and utilize the talents He has given to His people here and beyond the doors of Trinity.

Education/Discipleship Ministry

Rev. Karen Metcalf Eickhoff, kmetcalf@tbcraleigh.com

Words from Karen

It is with anticipation that I share changes within my position at Trinity. I will be embracing a more "Minister of Education" position with an emphasis on Education and Discipleship of all ages with a focus on Adult education. I will be passing the gift of grade school ministry to Katie. What a joy and a pleasure to know and work with someone so skilled in ministry that is significantly able to take on more responsibility. I know you love her and will encourage her as she accepts this new endeavor. Go Katie!!!

Since 1993 I have served as faithfully as I know how to teach your children and train adults to teach and guide children. Many of these children – your children — have grown to become exceptional adults. I am so proud and grateful for the opportunity to share in their development. I enjoyed helping to design a children's building that meets needs within our community and provides adequate space for a growing church. I have attended many camps and slept on many bunks or floors. I have lead over 30+ VBS's and VBS training events. I love it all and will miss that aspect of the ministry.

So as we go into 2019 — I am so blessed and so honored to share in ministry with a wonderful volunteer oriented church. You take "being the church" seriously and I always communicate that across the state as I lead conferences, teach in Divinity schools and share within our denomination and fellowship. God's blessings as we enter into 2019!

Gratefully, Karen

Children & Preschool Ministry

Katie Medlin, kmedlin@tbcraleigh.com

Words from Katie

It is with great excitement, joy and humility that I begin a new journey here with you all here at Trinity. These last few years serving in the Preschool Ministry have brought me pure joy. I treasure you all as my church family and church community. Together, we now begin a new adventure as I transition into the role as Associate Pastor to Children and Preschoolers. As I said earlier this transition is filled with great excitement, joy and humility. I am thankful for the path that Karen has paved for me in her many years here at Trinity as the Children's Minister. I am grateful for what I have learned from her in my almost 3 years here at Trinity and what I will continue to learn from her. I am also thrilled to now be able to continue to see my little ones grow in not only in their spiritual lives but into the person God created them to be as they travel through grade school. I look forward to not only doing church with you and your families but life was well. What a gift that is! I covet and appreciate your prayers during this transition!

Grace and Peace,

Katie Medlin
