Words from our Pastor

As a Baptist church, we value cooperation. Cooperation is the way Baptists have the opportunity to be a part of what the larger church is doing in this world. It is the way that we can “join hands with God” by joining hands with others. At Trinity, we cooperate on mission with many of our traditional Baptist partners and we also have found great joy in partnering with other organizations and ministries. We work with CBF and CBFNC in partnerships in Kentucky and Belize, as well as our support of missionaries around the world and here in the U.S. We partner with the SBC and the BSCNC by supporting missionaries, and of course we are very involved with Baptist on Mission in Disaster Relief. Beyond our commitment to our Baptist partners, we also are involved in ministry here in Raleigh with North Raleigh Ministries, Family Promise, Haven House, and several others.

One of the partnerships that have meant much to our congregation over the years is our involvement in Habitat for Humanity. We have been a partner church in helping build several homes over the years here in our city. I am delighted that again this winter and spring we have the opportunity to be a part of “Baptist Build.” This effort is the combination of churches from the Raleigh Baptist Association and Wake Missionary Baptist Association. We will be involved in building two homes as part of Baptist Build.

Our Habitat coordinator, Jen Hall, reminded us in Church Conference that we need 15 volunteers on March 2 and 16 and April 6. In addition, anyone can go on any Friday during the build and be a volunteer. For more information, you can find the announcement concerning Habitat on the mission page of this newsletter. To sign up as a volunteer you can go to tbcraleigh.com and find “Volunteer for Habitat for Humanity Baptist Build 2019” at the bottom of the home page. This link will take you directly to the opportunities for volunteers from our church. This is a great way to make a difference in the lives of others and to participate in what God is doing right here in our own city. Volunteer for one of these opportunities.

This past Sunday evening, in Church Conference, we voted to recommend David Brantley to the Raleigh Baptist Association’s ordination council for the purpose of beginning the process of his ordination into the gospel ministry. David is completing his M.Div. degree at Campbell Divinity School and is currently the Interim Pastor of the Enfield Baptist Church in Enfield, NC. We rejoice with David and his calling and are excited to be a part of his journey in ministry. I am so happy to be a part of a church where people continue to hear God’s call and follow. Pray for David as he begins this process.

This Sunday we continue our series on Distinctly Christian. Jesus says we are the salt of the earth and the light of the world. How can we influence the culture in which we live for the sake of Christ? I look forward to our time of worship this Sunday. I will be looking for you. Join us.

MUSICAL MYTH BUSTER #4:

"I don't have time."

For the next several weeks, I'll be addressing some "myths to joining a choir" that I've been collecting over the years based on reasons some people will not come and get involved in choir ministry...

If we all stop and think about it, all of us say this very thing about a variety of stuff we are asked to do. However, the truth is that we always seem to find the time to do what we want to do. Each of us has a list a mile long of things to get done for ourselves, our jobs, our families, and in the community. Christian service, whether through music ministry or another vital ministry of the church, is something that takes much time and energy to schedule in our personal schedules. In order to continue ministries at our church (and any other church), we need people who value ministry, discipleship, and worship ministries in the process of building unity, fellowship, and a future for the church. Imagine our church in five, ten, and fifteen years from now. Who will accept the call to lead music ministries? Who will be serving in choirs? Will the same people be doing everything? How do we plan for a church of the future if today's servants step aside and there aren't leaders and musicians to take their places? The answer to those questions is when God's people discover with passion the ways He can use them musically. It requires time and effort. Becoming purposely engaged as a disciple of Christ challenges us to yield our time and talents to God and to be used in fellowship with one another. Considering what He has done for us through Christ, it demands our lives and our

all. Continuing to tell the story through worship music requires people to give up some time and reserve it for His glory. It's not easy. There is always something begging of our time and attention. However, I challenge us as believers, disciples, and musicians to consider giving some time to worship ministry this year and begin a journey of service that will shape generations to come. The future of the church depends on us, and we have a story to tell to the nations!

BAPTIST BUILD 2019

TBC will again be joining Baptist churches from Wake County in building two Habitat Houses this winter/spring. The location is "Skycrest West" at 3015 Skycrest Drive, Raleigh. This is a great opportunity for anyone who loves to serve with a hammer or saw, holding a ladder, or carrying a piece of wood/siding to the person who knows what to do with it! We also need folks to feed lunch to our work teams. In other words – everyone can participate!

Anyone can go ANY FRIDAY between February 1 and April 5. There will be plenty of folks to "partner up with" from various churches. Each participating church then chooses 3 Saturdays for their church to send large teams to work/feed. Trinity's 3 Saturdays are: March 2, March 16, and April 6 (OIAM Saturday).

Please mark these dates on your calendar and talk them up in your Sunday school class.

SUMMER MISSION

JULY 27 – AUGUST 3, 2019

Mark your calendar for the McCreary
County, KY Summer Mission

PUERTO RICO Disaster Relief Mission

Dates to be Announced

Hurricanes Irma and Maria struck the island of Puerto Rico in 2017 with a vengeance. NCBM has been coordinating disaster response volunteers in Puerto Rico since October 1, 2017 providing potable water, tree cutting service, temporary roof repair, laundry service, and cleanup of flooded homes.

The focus for 2019 is rebuilding roofing systems in the San Juan area. The hurricanes destroyed much of the roofing framework. Teams must be prepared to set rafters and install tin or similar roof covering. Baptists on Mission will provide most tools.

COST

$600 includes round-trip airfare, insurance, in-country transportation, in-country logistical support, lodging, most meals, orientation materials, T-shirt and building materials. *In this era of unpredictable airline costs, we will make every effort to maintain this price throughout the year. Be aware that some teams may be required to pay a bit extra if ticket prices spike.

TEAMS

Groups are preferred over individual applicants. Participants must be at least 18 years old to participate (15 IF accompanied by a parent or guardian). Teams should be comprised of no more than 10 and no less than 6 members. A Spanish translator may be available most times but it would be helpful to have an interpreter on the team.

Sign Up List will be on the Narthex Registration Board soon. A $300 Deposit will be required for sign up. Please begin prayerful consideration of participating on this first of many teams.
