Words from our Pastor

The season of Lent is an important time in the life of the church. Although not always observed by less liturgical congregations, I have learned its importance in my own life and also found it to enrich the experience of Holy Week and most importantly, the celebration of Easter. There is a depth of walking with the Spirit when we intentionally draw our attention to our sin and need for forgiveness. In the observance of Lent, we can spend time in reflection on the work of the Spirit in our lives. We can listen for God's call to repent and turn away from sins that have become habitual. During Lent we can seek the Spirit's assistance in giving us the discipline to reorder our lives after the way of Jesus. We can spend Lent with a growing thankful heart knowing we are saved by grace. I invite you to join us during the Lenten Season as we reflect, pray and prepare for the glorious celebration of the most important moment in history, the resurrection of Jesus.

FAMILY PROMISE PARTNERS NEEDED

Hosting Week: March 31 - April 7

Family Promise provides professional case management as well as food, shelter, and transportation for qualified homeless families as they work to restore their independence. Family

Promise is one of the few agencies in the area committed to helping homeless families stay together. This is accomplished through the support of various churches in Wake County. Trinity became part of this network in July 2005. We are assigned 2 to 3 host weeks a year when Family Promise "guests" make Trinity their home. Volunteers are needed to help in a variety of areas. There are opportunities for individuals and Sunday School Classes. Use Signup Genius (bit.ly/FPSignupMar2019) or check at the Registration Center in the Narthex to volunteer. Family Promise brochures describing each volunteer position are also available. You can find more information about the Family Promise organization at their website: www.familypromisewake.org.

If you have questions about volunteering or the program, contact

Music Ministry

Rev. Steve Byers, slbyers@tbcraleigh.com

Special thanks to all of our children and Katie Medlin for a wonderful Children's Day this past week. All of our preschool and children's choirs led us in song and helped us to celebrate worship through the eyes of a child. Thank you, choir directors and leaders, for your continued work in choir ministry each week with the children of Trinity.

10:55 am Services

MUSICAL MYTH BUSTER #6: "Choirs are full of older people."

And, thank God for it! Without the dedication and commitment of our older disciples, choirs would be dynamically and functionally different. Church attendance is made up of multi-generational ministries, and the choir ministries should reflect that as well. We celebrate all ages involved in making music to the Lord. We do not see age as a limitation to effective worship leadership.

It is true that enlisting musicians younger than 40 years of age is a huge challenge, especially when children come along and families grow. Today's young families struggle with being involved in multiple ministry areas as opposed to our retired (and semi-retired) people who have more available time. Additionally, young families face a myriad of choice-making for family, work, and school. Church ministry participation becomes one of those choices that is both hard and stressful to carry-out on a regular basis, so it is understandably more time efficient to commit to fewer ministry opportunities and do them well. Sadly, choir ministry is one of those things often set aside because it does require hours of rehearsal and weekend obligation.

It is no wonder that most worship-leading choirs in traditional churches are made up of older disciples of Christ. However, we are challenged in making a musical impact in worship because it requires multiple ages to connect and reach a diverse community for Christ. Younger people bring a snapshot of our future in worship leading, and as our dedicated servants move to other stages in life, it is vital to continue their good work by adding new people to carry on worship leadership. What will our choirs look like in 5 -10 years from now? Will our church enjoy the same dedication and service likened to what we experience today? How will worship be impacted if we don't see new, multi-aged singers and musicians coming forward to serve?

A fresh-water pond teams with life because nutrient-rich water continues to flow into it. That fresh water brings oxygen and life to a pond that could have become stagnant. Choirs are like that. We always need "fresh water" to continue a vital part of our worship: Music. So, I encourage you to pray how God can use you in choir ministry. Take the plunge into the pond and enjoy the splash.... Come join a choir today!

Praise the LORD! Praise God in his sanctuary; praise him in his mighty heavens! Praise him for his mighty deeds; praise him according to his excellent greatness! Praise him with trumpet sound; praise him with lute and harp! Praise him with tambourine and dance; praise him with strings and pipe! Praise him with sounding cymbals; praise him with loud clashing cymbals! Let everything that has breath praise the LORD! Praise the LORD!"

BAPTIST BUILD 2019

TBC will again be joining Baptist churches from Wake County in building two Habitat Houses this winter/spring. The location is "Skycrest West" at 3015 Skycrest Drive, Raleigh. This is a great opportunity for anyone who loves to serve with a hammer or saw, holding a ladder, or carrying a piece of wood/siding to the person who knows what to do with it! We also need folks to feed lunch to our work teams. In other words – everyone can participate!

Anyone can go ANY FRIDAY between February 1 and April 5. There will be plenty of folks to "partner up with" from various churches. Each participating church then chooses 3 Saturdays for their church to send large teams to work/feed. Trinity's 3 Saturdays are: March 2, March 16, and April 6 (OIAM Saturday).

Please mark these dates on your calendar and talk them up in your Sunday school class.
