Words from our Pastor

It is good to be home and we all are thankful for your prayers as our group traveled to Israel in the past two weeks. We had an incredible experience and I am so grateful to our church for the opportunity to lead this trip along with Dr. Clay Warf. The last day of our trip was a journey from the Mt. of Olives down to Gethsemane, across the Kidron Valley and then the walk up and into Jerusalem. As we walked the “Via Delarosa” through the crowded streets of the Old City we were reminded of the journey Jesus traveled on his way to the cross. We made our way to the Church of the Holy Sepulcher which is the traditional site of the crucifixion and tomb. However, our most moving moment was a visit to the “Garden Tomb” outside the city walls. There, another tomb and a hill with a face that resembles a skull can be found. Although the owners of this site do not claim this to be the site, they do suggest that the tomb found there would have been much like one where Jesus was buried. As we gathered in a small chapel to end the day with communion, I reminded our group that we did not need to travel all the way to Israel to know that Jesus is alive. The truth is, we are those who have not seen and yet believe. We believe in the resurrection of Jesus because we have experienced Jesus’ saving grace and daily presence through faith and the power of the Holy Spirit. We follow Jesus because someone shared with us the story of the cross and resurrection and we, by faith, believe the greatest story ever told.

As we journey to the cross and resurrection this year, I pray that you too will renew your faith in Jesus. I pray that you will once again know the power of the Holy Spirit in your life. I pray that you will know the forgiveness that comes through Christ and the victory that comes through resurrection power.

As we continue our journey, we have several opportunities to help us in reflection and celebration. We will continue our Lenten sermon series. Additionally, we will begin a 5-week Bible Study on Wednesday nights which will culminate on Maundy Thursday. See below for details.

THE FIRST WEEK OF

Lent

Our journey towards the cross starts this week. Let us enter into these days open to what God has to teach our hearts about His Great Love for Us, Jesus. Our God is the God who breathed the very life into our lungs, who humbled himself and walked amongst us, who died for those who betrayed him, and rose to give us eternal life. Jesus is the Love of God Made Man; and in our discipleship under him, we find The Way to the Father. We find in him love, sacrifice, and eternal and abundant life.

For the next forty days, Christians will seek to follow Jesus a little more closely. Some choose to fast. We fast to remember our reliance on God - to recognize that there is but one Source for our daily bread. Some choose to pray. We pray to know God's presence within our hearts and God's breath within our lungs - increasing our awareness of the presence of God in all aspects of our daily life. Some choose to give special offerings. We give because once we recognize our reliance on the grace of God, we cannot help but extend this same grace to others through our gifts. Some choose all of the above. The point of Lent is not abstinence but it is abundance - abundance found only in the Love of God and our practice of presence with God.

Lent is a special time for Christians to set aside to-do lists and hectic schedules and pick up a special practice in quiet moments with God. This is when we rest most closely in the presence of our King. Let us breathe out our anxieties and fears and breathe in the sweet perfume of the loving Presence of our God.

FAMILY PROMISE PARTNERS NEEDED

Hosting Week: March 31 - April 7

Family Promise provides professional case management as well as food, shelter, and transportation for qualified homeless families as they work to restore their independence. Family Promise is one of the few agencies in the area committed to helping homeless families stay together. This is accomplished through the support of various churches in Wake County. Trinity became part of this network in July 2005. We are assigned 2 to 3 host weeks a year when Family Promise "guests" make Trinity their home. Volunteers are needed to help in a variety of areas. There are opportunities for individuals and Sunday School Classes. Use Signup Genius (bit.ly/FPSignupMar2019) or check at the Registration Center in the Narthex to volunteer. Family Promise brochures describing each volunteer position are also available. You can find more information about the Family Promise organization at their website: www.familypromisewake.org.

If you have questions about volunteering or the program, contact

Beth Duke (919.880.7454) or

MUSICAL MYTH BUSTER #6:

"Today's choirs sing old-fashioned songs."

Style and preference are two of the biggest hurdles today's church choirs experience in building effective worship experiences. The so-called "worship wars," which have been going on for quite a while now, have polarized believers and created a division in worship music choice. The choice of music and worship style usually grows from a desire to be something else to the community in which it is reaching. Yesterday's church of hymns and formality has not resonated with many seekers looking at what church is all about. Conversely, as music tends to change by decades, yesterday's church isn't all too accepting of today's musical styles that resonate with its contemporary counterparts. It is difficult to navigate change in music and worship style, but one that is very important if the body of Christ is going to be united.

So what do we do with the music of worship? Do we continue singing the songs that have withstood the test of time and have proven themselves worthy for decades, or do we embrace new worship songs and hymnody that have begun to transform worship as we know it? The answer is yes, and yes! Traditional choirs sing everything from classical to sacred-contemporary and usually reflect both the age of the choir and the congregation. The key to growth and greater appreciation for worship music is to not rely so much on pre-determined preferences of music styles. It "boxes in" what can be done to reach a diverse community and leads to stagnation. Choirs that sing the same style become dull and have less of an impact, and some people see that as "old-fashioned." We do need to embrace change.

Starting a traditional church with non-traditional music isn't a great growth strategy, but we must strive as believers to look outside of the box and grow in our faith. It takes time to change. It takes a lot of patience to make change. It takes people to bring about change. We need a mixture of musical styles and people that reflects change within the church as well the communities which we are trying to reach. Music is a powerful tool that can draw people into the presence of God, but it can also push them further away. Choirs that do not adapt to this shift in music will eventually grow older and resistant to modern music that is reaching many believers today. It is a delicate balance of variety.

Variety is the key. That is why Trinity has so many different kinds of musical groups in which you can find a place to sing or play an instrument. Each group experiments with a variety of musical stylings and all have worship leadership opportunities to share with the church at large. What is needed is for people who have musical gifts to get on-board and continue our ministry through music. As our church continues to grow and change, music will be an active part in its identity, but it will take a continuous flow of people over the years to continue its reach. I encourage you to pray about how God can use you musically in worship leadership. Let's plan for a great musical future that celebrates the past and embraces the promising opportunities to come. Get involved in choir ministry today!

When you meet together, sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, as you praise the Lord with all your heart. Ephesians 5:19

for Humanity®

TBC will again be joining Baptist churches from Wake County in building two Habitat Houses this winter/spring. The location is "Skycrest West" at 3015 Skycrest Drive, Raleigh. This is a great opportunity for anyone who loves to serve with a hammer or saw, holding a ladder, or carrying a piece of wood/siding to the person who knows what to do with it! We also need folks to feed lunch to our work teams. In other words – everyone can participate!

Anyone can go ANY FRIDAY between February 1 and April 5. There will be plenty of folks to "partner up with" from various churches. Each participating church then chooses 3 Saturdays for their church to send large teams to work/feed. Trinity's 3 Saturdays are: March 16, and April 6 (OIAM Saturday).

Please mark these dates on your calendar and talk them up in your Sunday school class.
