Words from our Pastor

This coming Sunday we will begin another Trinity 101 during our Sunday School hour. This is a three-week class that meets at 9:45 am and is for newcomers as well as for anyone who wants to know more about our church. Many long time members have found this class informative as well and so anyone can come and attend. In the three sessions we will cover a brief Baptist history and where Trinity fits into Baptist life. We will study Trinity's identity statement as well as Trinity's leadership structure. In our final session we will discuss the Trinity budget and how we cooperate in ministry with others. This is a great way to understand more about Trinity and our ministry. You are invited to join us! No registration is required.

THE SECOND WEEK OF

Lent

Journeying through Lent is a choice. No one is there to make sure we are actively practicing our faith each day and examining our hearts in light of Christ's generosity, love, and sacrifice. As Baptists, we do not have a deep history of this type of preparation before the celebration of Christ's resurrection; so if we forget a day or two or every day after Ash Wednesday, "it's okay, we're Baptists." And, that's true. It is okay.

However, Lent is a gift to us. It is a gift to know that during this time of the year, Christians throughout the world are doing very similar, purposeful internal reflection and making similar sacrifices in time and desires in order to draw closer to Jesus. It is a gift to be called deeper into our walk with Christ through meditation on His words and actions. And, it is a gift to find ourselves called up into higher behavior as we seek to emulate the character of our God as revealed to us through Jesus.

The choice to go deeper in our walk with Christ during Lent takes discipline and practice, as does our faith year round. The Christian faith ideally should not be a yo-yo diet of spiritual food and exercise going from one season to another forgetting what has been experienced or accomplished. Seasons of preparation like Lent and Advent condition Christians to be strong in the Lord and be of good courage every day of the year. In this second week of Lent, take some time to journal your thoughts on the Lenten journey taking particular note of the insights or spiritual practices that you would like to take with you into the rest of the year and along with you for the rest of your lifelong journey of faith.

FAMILY PROMISE PARTNERS NEEDED

Hosting Week: March 31 - April 7

Family Promise provides professional case management as well as food, shelter, and transportation for qualified homeless families as they work to restore their independence. Family Promise is one of the few agencies in the area committed to helping homeless families stay together. This is accomplished through the support of various churches in Wake County. Trinity became part of this network in July 2005. We are assigned 2 to 3 host weeks a year when Family Promise "guests" make Trinity their home. Volunteers are needed to help in a variety of areas. There are opportunities for individuals and Sunday School Classes. Use Signup Genius (bit.ly/FPSignupMar2019) or check at the Registration Center in the Narthex to volunteer. Family Promise brochures describing each volunteer position are also available. You can find more information about the Family Promise organization at their website: www.familypromisewake.org.

If you have questions about volunteering or the program, contact

Beth Duke (919.880.7454) or

NEW CONNECTIONS SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS

New Connections is a Sunday School class taught by Robin Roberts and Andrew Tatum. Our three-fold mission is as follows:

1. To belong together as members of the family of Christ.
2. To believe in the Triune God we encounter in the Scriptures and through one another.
3. To become more faithful followers of Jesus Christ through prayer, study, and fellowship.

Whether you are new to Trinity (or to Church or Sunday School in general) or even if you've been attending for some time, you are welcomed to join us as we make new connections with God, the Scriptures, and one another.

This class can serve as a landing place for long-term study and fellowship or as a jumping-off point for getting re-connected to Trinity during the Sunday School hour. We welcome all who desire a deeper connection with God and with others and hope you will join us as we launch our class on April 7th. We will meet in room C102, and we look forward to meeting you.

Music Ministry

Rev. Steve Byers, slbyers@tbcraleigh.com

Special thanks to the Bells of Praise and the Student Choir for their worship leadership this past Sunday.

In addition to the hard-working choir ministries of FirstLight and Sanctuary Choir, the ringers and students put in many hours of rehearsing and making music to praise the Lord every week. Thank God in your prayers for all of our musicians who serve faithfully year-after-year.

MUSICAL MYTH
BUSTER #8:
"Choir musicians and directors are perfectionists."

Okay, so I admit that most musically gifted and trained people can be perfectionists in their art. I can remember in my years of studying music that "perfecting my art" was something for which to strive. Hours of study with a master teacher, rehearsals for seasonal vocal and instrumental performances, and my own developing artistic proficiencies were the driving forces to great musicianship. Without that inner drive of being better than I was the day before, I could have been far beneath the "bar of excellence" in the long run. The deep satisfaction of mastering musical concepts and amazing literature was like a current running through me.

So, I guess I have been trained to be a perfectionist as a professional musician, and admittedly, it does get in the way sometimes in my ministry. As a church musician, I have worked hard to teach that I never strive for YOU to be a perfectionist in presenting musical gifts to God. There is a difference in being perfect and confident. It is my hope in that when we rehearse, we are building our confidence to sing with understanding when we present the Gospel message through song. The work of the Holy Spirit is what we yield to; as the Author and Perfecter of our faith, we become the vessels by which God works and moves. Confidence and faith allow that to happen in a much better way than trying to be perfect because being perfect says more about us than it does about God. We can never be perfect in anything.

We are reminded to do our best as the Psalmist stated in Psalm 33:3 and also in Ecclesiastes 9:10...

Sing a new song of praise to him; play skillfully on the harp, and sing with joy. Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with your might.

I do believe that God expects us to offer our music with all that we are with the skills and talents He has given us in ways that glorify Him and edifies the body of Christ. Anything less than our best is not an offering of praise or sacrifice. He deserves our best because He gave us His best, Jesus Christ, the One and Only.

Not everyone comes to choir for being excellent in music. There are so many different backgrounds and abilities in our church choirs that all are welcome here without focusing on perfection! We experience so much more than perfecting our art such as fellowship, prayer for one another, celebrating birthdays, retreats, and being involved in outside opportunities as they arise. I invite you to come and enjoy a musical family that isn't focused on perfection, but instead is focused on ministry. You are welcome here! Come just as you are!

The trumpeters and musicians joined in unison to give praise and thanks to the Lord. Accompanied by trumpets, cymbals and other instruments, the singers raised their voices in praise to the Lord and sang: "He is good; his love endures forever." Then the temple of the Lord was filled with the cloud.
