THE FIFTH WEEK OF

Lent

The journey of a disciple of Christ was never promised to be an easy one. Jesus, in fact, said that if anyone wants to follow him, then we must deny ourselves, take up our crosses, and follow him. Matthew 16:25 says, "For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it."

Have you ever thought about what Jesus' "Lenten journey" must have been like? How did he prepare in the weeks leading up to his death mentally and emotionally? What did he have to surrender, sacrifice, and set aside for our good and for God's glory? When he asks us to deny ourselves, he knows exactly the cost. He knows how hard it will be for us. But, he also knows the gain that is in store for us and knows that every joy and pleasure we have in this life pales in comparison.

Surrender is the offering of ourselves to God, and it does not come easy. It takes commitment and practice and perseverance. Everyday, we are called to this surrender. One practice that helps in this spiritual conditioning is contemplative prayer. Contemplative prayer is the humble surrender of our will to the loving, divine will of God that calls us into deeper relationship with God, the Father, through his Son Jesus Christ and by the power of the Holy Spirit. It is the practice of laying bare our hearts before God in prayer - offering up our desires, our sins, our will - in order that our hearts may be healed and restored to mint condition - the way God intended them to be. And, while we may feel the pain of parting with our will, being united with Jesus is our salve, our medicine, and our reward. Go now, and offer it up to Jesus.

NEW CONNECTIONS SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS

New Connections is a Sunday School class taught by Robin Roberts and Andrew Tatum. Our three-fold mission is as follows:

1. To belong together as members of the family of Christ.
2. To believe in the Triune God we encounter in the Scriptures and through one another.
3. To become more faithful followers of Jesus Christ through prayer, study, and fellowship.

Whether you are new to Trinity (or to Church or Sunday School in general) or even if you've been attending for some time, you are welcome to join us as we make new connections with God, the Scriptures, and one another.

This class can serve as a landing place for long-term study and fellowship or as a jumping-off point for getting re-connected to Trinity during the Sunday School hour. We welcome all who desire a deeper connection with God and with others and hope you will join us as we launch our class on April 7th. We will meet in Room C102, and we look forward to meeting you.

Rev. Hal Melton, hmelton@tbcraleigh.com

Thanks so much to all volunteers who have helped with our Baptist Build Habitat Mission this winter/spring.

There is still plenty of finishing work to be done! Anyone is invited to come to the building site at 3015 Skycrest Drive, Raleigh, on any Friday, to work on the houses. There will be plenty of folks (including a "foreman") to partner up with from various churches.

Baptist Children's Homes of NORTH CAROLINA

NC BAPTIST CHILDREN'S HOME MISSION

Saturday, May 4

One of the 21 sites under the care of NC BCH is Oak Ranch, located near Sanford. The site provides housing for single mothers and their children. The mothers are either working or training for employment. The children attend local schools. The goal is to supply economic and spiritual stability as these families eventually find homes of their own.

On Saturday, May 4, the Wisdom Seekers Sunday school class will participate in Friends Day at Oak Ranch. We invite you to go with us! The 3-hour activity that morning will be to volunteer for tasks such as landscaping, cleaning, painting, or brush removal, followed by a light lunch. The church vans will leave at 7:30am and should be back to Raleigh by mid-afternoon.

Call Janice Scott
