

TRINITY BAPTIST CHURCH

TRINITY TIMES

Belong. Become. Be.

In our last newsletter we introduced our 20 in 2020 emphasis. The “20” were 20 suggestions on how we can be more involved in the life of our church. You can get a copy of our 20 suggestions as well as a refrigerator magnet to keep your commitment card front and center, in the Narthex. I am hoping that as we begin a new year you will find several ways you can engage in the life of our congregation. If you are not attending Sunday School, then find a class where you can connect. Sunday School at Trinity is much more than a Bible Study on Sunday morning. It is a life group with which to connect and share life. There are several for you to choose from. We encourage you to visit around to various classes and make this connection.

We also have begun two new studies on Wednesday evening. Rev. Eickhoff is continuing to lead a thought provoking conversation on various cultural topics. I am leading a chapter-by-chapter Bible Study of 1 Corinthians. We are calling this time together “Wednesday Worship and Word.” We are meeting in the chapel at 6:30 p.m. each week. Join us for one of these studies.

TNT’s winter kick off is this week and we begin our first night of study on January 21. We, too, are going to be studying 1 Corinthians. TNT is a small group Bible Study for men and women. This study is different in format from our Wednesday night study in that it is more discussion and small group oriented. There are several men and women small groups. It is a great time to study the Bible and get to know new people in the life of the church. Come and join us.

We also are beginning our next Habitat House Build with Baptist Build. This is in cooperation with both the Raleigh Baptist Association and Wake Missionary Baptist Association. We have several Saturdays available for you to join and be a part of building our house. For more information go to our website or to habitatwake.org/faith/baptist. You can sign up or volunteer on this page.

Also, take a look on our missions page for other volunteer opportunities.

Finally, don’t forget to be a part of the new pictorial directory. We begin taking pictures the end of February. You can sign up in the Narthex or go to tbcraleigh.com and follow the instructions for signing up on line.

I am looking forward to 2020 and all that God has in store for Trinity Baptist Church.

Family Promise provides professional case management as well as food, shelter, and transportation for qualified homeless families as they work to restore their independence. Trinity became part of this network in July 2005. We are assigned 3 host weeks a year when Family Promise "guests" make Trinity their home. Volunteers are needed to help in a variety of areas. There are opportunities for individuals and Sunday School Classes. ## TBC Library News

The Broken Road Series

A broken man. A twist of fate. A second chance. The Broken Road series by Richard Paul Evans explores the tantalizing question: What if you could start over?

THE BROKEN ROAD Out of the depths of despair, Charles James is granted something very remarkable: a second chance. The question is: What will he do with it?

THE FORGOTTEN ROAD Charles embarks on an epic quest - he will walk the entire length of Route 66 hoping to find himself (and he meets people along the road who will change his perspective on the world).

THE ROAD HOME As Charles continues his trip, he still has lessons to learn on the way before he discovers - and arrives at - his true destination

We hope you will join us; and singers, we hope you will join the community choir by arriving at 2:00 pm that Sunday for rehearsal and leading in the subsequent service.

All of the building fun begins at 8:15 am on Monday, January 20 in the Habitat warehouse on Westinghouse Blvd. as we build all of the walls for each house and raise them on the home sites at 3:00 pm

We will need volunteers for our Trinity workdays, February 1 & 29 from 8:15 am to 3:00 pm.
