

TRINITY BAPTIST CHURCH

TRINITY TIMES

Belong. Become. Be.

Dear Church Family,

As you know, our Trustees and an advisory team they have appointed are continually helping our congregation during this difficult time. I am so grateful for the leadership of our Trustee Chairperson, Sam Spilman. Sam has demonstrated incredible leadership. Many of you know of Sam's excellent teaching, deep faith and commitment to our congregation. During this time Sam's humble servant leadership has become key to helping us be organized and respond to this difficult season. This week I asked Sam to share some important news with you as we anticipate the days ahead. Please take time to read:

From our Trustee Chair Sam Spilman

Over the weekend, I was cleaning my backlog of emails when I found an innocent looking e-mail dated February 26 from Fred McDuffee. In this note he stated that we should "begin discussing plans for Trinity in the case the virus spreads as the CDC is now indicating." Candidly, I was not fully aware of the potential impact, but I have tremendous trust in Fred, so we acted. As hopefully you are aware, we formed an Advisory Team that has been meeting consistently since early March.

Our early efforts in responding to this pandemic involved limiting access to our church campus. In accordance with state and local guidance, we then transitioned to closure of our campus while our church continued to operate and serve under the stay at home orders. I could not be prouder of the way our church has joined together during this time to continue the many ongoing ministries while staying connected with each other.

As we realized the need to consider the process and proper timing of being together again on our campus, we expanded our Advisory Team to better address to scope of the challenges facing us.

The guiding principle of this team was determined to be "protecting the church family that we love by minimizing the risks while trusting and expecting the congregation to act responsibly."

As distancing restrictions are relaxed under the phased approach in North Carolina, we are considering how we will open our campus for in-person Sunday worship. We believe gathering for worship is still several weeks away and face-to-face Sunday School on campus is even further in the future.

When we are able to meet again on campus, we realize we cannot eliminate all risks, but we will be asking the congregation to take what we believe are reasonable and important precautions. We anticipate:

I. Two abbreviated worship services: 8:45 a.m. and 10:55 a.m.

- Seating will be defined to maintain social distancing and to ensure no one is sitting in the same spot during the previous service. Families will sit together.
- We will seek to have special seating arrangements for those members who are most at risk.

- Extended Teaching Care (ETC) will not be available at this time, so that you can worship as a family.
  - Restrooms and facility entrances will be limited.
  - No elevators will be used.
2. The social distancing guidelines of six feet that we have grown accustomed to will be expected.
  3. We will ask everyone to perform a self-screen before entering the facility. The complete list will be provided at an appropriate time, but these guidelines will include things like:
    - No known exposure to COVID-19 within the past 14 days.
    - No flu like symptoms, including fever, cough, sore throat, respiratory illness or difficulty breathing in the past 14 days.
    - High risk due to previous health issues.
  4. While inside the buildings, we will ask everyone to wear a mask, covering their nose and mouth.

For those who cannot attend, live streaming of the worship services will continue via Facebook, Roku and our website.

To allow for adequate planning, we need your help to understand our church family's interest in returning to worship on campus under these set of conditions. To this end, we have asked the Deacons to reach out to their families and ask if you plan to return to worship when the doors open and if you mind being assigned to attend a particular service. Your Deacon will be calling you prior to May 15, so please answer their call and be candid with your responses. We need your feedback to verify if our efforts will meet the needs of our congregation.

As we continue to refine and implement our plans, your flexibility and patience is appreciated as we seek to be faithful to God and one another in this difficult time.

In His Service,
Sam Spilman, Trustee Chair

GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Lord's Supper Sunday

This coming Sunday, May 17 is our Lord's Supper Sunday. On this Sunday we come to the Lord's Table and we remember the Lord's death and resurrection until Jesus comes again. This week you are encouraged to gather some items to use for the elements for the Lord's Supper as we will be taking it together as part of our virtual worship service. Some bread and drink of any kind will work. In addition, let me remind you that this is a Sunday when we normally take our benevolence offering for North Raleigh Ministries. You are encouraged to go this week to northraleighministries.com and make a donation.

Our choir year is officially over for the Spring 2020 season, but we look forward (hopefully!) to a new season in the Fall. More information will come about starting times and how the Covid-19 virus will affect all choir participants and choir scheduling.

Thank you for your service!

As we close out our Spring season of music-making, I want to thank all of our choir directors and leaders for their extra hard work! Even though it didn't finish as planned, we know you planned to finish and to bring glory to God with all of our musicians at Trinity.

We are sad to announce that Alma Hoffmann, director of Music Makers Choir, will be stepping down from leadership in the coming year. Alma has served faithfully for many years and will be deeply missed each Wednesday night cheering on the kids to make music for the Lord. Drop a note to her and let her know how much her leadership meant to you and to encourage her as she seeks out God's next place of service for her! We are working on a replacement for Alma over the next few months, and if you are interested, please let me know about your willingness to serve! Alma, well-done, good and faithful servant!

Always Room for You!

Find your place in the music ministry in 2020! We will be back together sometime in the near future!

If you have singing or instrumental abilities, we need you. We are always looking for more musicians to add to our worship leading ministries at Trinity. Consider getting involved in music ministry and being a part of an exciting place of ministry!

And this is my prayer: that your love may abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight, so that you may be able to discern what is best and may be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ—to the glory and praise of God.

Philippians 1:9-11

We thank you in advance for praying and showing gratitude for these workers. You can still contact Karen at kmetcalf@tbcraleigh.com if you have more to add or a change.

Evangelism Matters

Everyone is binge watching with their families during this unprecedented time. May we suggest a binge worthy selection where every episode keeps you wanting more? It is called The Chosen. It is a free app on your phone or tablet, or can be found on YouTube.

You will feel the frustration with Simon Peter as you ride in the fishing boat the night his nets kept coming up empty.

You will pray with Nicodemus as he struggles with a life changing decision.

You will cry with Mary as she fights her demons.

But then you will rejoice. Time and time again you will rejoice. And you will laugh. And you will empathize. And your heart will be filled with hope.

The stories of the characters in the Gospels will come alive in a way never before seen in a biblical production. Creator Dallas Jenkins will be the first to tell you that the eight episodes of Season 1 of The Chosen are not a replacement of scripture. Each episode takes the experiences of the characters as written in scripture and then, in Dallas' words, plausibly adds context to each story. But the context is not mere, personal imagination. He was guided by three biblically grounded consultants: an Evangelical pastor, a Catholic priest, and a Messianic Jewish Rabbi. The result is unlike anything you have experienced in a faith based production.

If nothing else, just watch the first two episodes. You will see the power that comes with being in the hands of Jesus.

Option #2 for a Sunday School class

Collect useful items in August and September that the lead team will then mail to students during the year. Items to include but not limited to: pencils, pens, post it notes, USB drive, nabs, hard candy, microwave popcorn, and $5.00 gift cards to Starbucks, Bojangles, or Target.
