THANK YOU

Dear Church Family,

I hope you know how much your thoughtfulness is appreciated. Thank you for the beautiful yellow mum. Our 8 1/2 years as members of Trinity were fulfilling and reinforcement of our Christian faith. I look forward to joining everyone again soon. It will be very difficult without George beside me. I know God will give me the strength I need.

In Christ, Peace & Love,
Pudge Nettles

TBC Library News

Christmas Fiction

Are you in the Christmas mood yet? Is Christmas shopping (in person, not online) just too dangerous in this pandemic? Do Christmas parties during a quarantine make no sense at all? Instead of the above, why don't you just go to the TBC Library and check out and read one or more of the Christmas fiction books on display. Many of the more than fifty books by some of your favorite authors are on display and are guaranteed to put you in the Christmas mood.

You do not have a TBC Library Card to check out books? No problem – there are blank forms for acquiring a card located on the black Book Return box in the library. Or you can apply for a card online by visiting the TBC website www.tbcrleigh.com and clicking on the TBC Library Online Catalog link on the left side of the TBC website or go directly to tbcrcn.booksys.net/opac/tbcr/. Once on the TBC Library website, click on the Library Card Registration icon (located in the bottom right corner) and fill out the requested information. Or you may call Ron Brown at 919-782-3957 for assistance.

The next Online Music Times will be November 18 and December 16. If you want your child to participate in the next two events, please send an email to slbyers@tbcraleigh.com with the following information:

- Name of child, age, grade
- Names of parents
- Parent's permission for child to be online or with a parent's participation
- Best email address to send the Zoom link once enrolled.

We will be looking at other musical strategies for 2021.

Since we are not able to have choirs this season, the Hanging of the Greens for 2020 has been cancelled. Without choirs meeting, I have worked out a plan to involve our seniors who will miss their final Hanging of the Greens at TBC and use some of the Christmas symbolism in our Sunday morning worship services. It is a meager attempt to keep the tradition alive, however, our seniors have been faithful in choirs for many years. We appreciate their leadership in worship!

Special thanks to all of our small groups and soloists for keeping our services filled with live worship each week. Our church continues to worship our Lord even through the pandemic. Please pray for all of our leadership that carries the torch each Sunday.

Until we meet again,
Steve

Always Room for You!

Find your place in the music ministry in 2020! We will be back together sometime in the near future!

If you have singing or instrumental abilities, we need you. We are always looking for more musicians to add to our worship leading ministries at Trinity. Consider getting involved in music ministry and being a part of an exciting place of ministry!

And this is my prayer: that your love may abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight, so that you may be able to discern what is best and may be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ—to the glory and praise of God. — Philippians 1:9-11

Adult Sunday School Lifeway curriculum is available for the Winter Quarter. These are distributed on a cart outside the office or in the office lobby for your convenience.

The doctrine of Incarnation represents one of the foundational claims of the Christian Faith: that God actually became flesh in Jesus. Each week we will consider one or more of the names or titles used by the Gospel writers as they introduce the story of Jesus. Names such as Messiah or Christ the King, Savior, Emmanuel, the Word, and Jesus as Lord.

May our faith and understanding grow so that together we might stand in awe of the Incarnation, and in turn incarnate the love of God that came to us in Jesus Christ.

Weekday Preschool

Praise for: Nice weather for quality outside play.

Pray for: A safe, healthy and developmental ministry to our families in the community.

North Raleigh Ministries Food Donations

Since the beginning of the pandemic, our neighbors have found themselves in more need than usual. NRM has seen an increase over last year of almost 500% food pantry visits, and with Wake County not offering Backpack Buddies to our local school children NRM anticipates even more need. NRM is committed to serving families with children by offering groceries to cover six breakfasts and lunches per child in the family, and families will be welcomed each week to receive groceries. But, in order to provide this much needed care to our community, NRM's faithful donors are needed now more than ever!

Due to circumstances regarding our outdoor donations bins, Trinity will no longer be collecting food donations outside of the ROC entrance. All food donations may be dropped off at our second Thursday of the month supply drive, on Sunday mornings just outside of the sanctuary, or at NRM (9650 Strickland Rd, Unit 175 Raleigh, NC 27615).

Thanksgiving Food Box Needs:

- Cream of Mushroom Soup

A Very Trinity Thanksgiving - 2020 Style

For just about everyone, this Thanksgiving will look different than any that have come before. Many will be alone to do a Thanksgiving dinner on their own and that big turkey and all of those pies just will not get made this year. Many will have no family or friends gathered around their extended tables and extra card tables. Many will not travel, will not host, will not celebrate. For some it will still be Thanksgiving but scaled back from years past with fewer seats and fewer treats. But, for just about all of us it will certainly look different. Much like years after a family member passes or a big life change happens, this year may carry with it a sense of loss and grief and even anger. And, just like in those types of years, we need one another to check in and to help make the holiday a little less lonely. This year, instead of just one or two friends going through it, it's all of us, and we are all going to need each other.

So, let's make a game plan for Thanksgiving. This is our plan to leave no friend behind in the Thanksgiving that is 2020.

- Write a Thanksgiving Greeting Card to a fellow Trinity member who may be alone and put it in the mail by November 18.
- Send out family favorite recipes to your group and share your favorite memory regarding eating that particular dish - get these out by November 18 so we can shop for any ingredients we need for a new recipe we might try!
- Drop a pie/potted mum/pumpkin bread/etc on the porch of a Trinity friend.
- Make Thanksgiving Day phone calls to our Homebound members.
- Plan a Zoom Dinner - with your family or your Trinity friends (or both).
- Call your Sunday School/Care Group leaders or deacon and tell them why you give thanks for them this Thanksgiving.
- And, whatever you end up eating and whoever you end up not eating with, spend time practicing gratitude. Still yourself enough to reflect on God's presence in your life, and lift him your prayers and thanksgiving.

If you and your family join us for worship on campus look for these worship bags in the narthex. They have crayons, a worship bulletin and paper to color on. You're invited to get one and take it all home with you after the service (including the crayons!)

FAMILY ROOM For Worship

A "family room" will be located in the choir room that can be used during our worship time. If you are on campus for worship and feel that your child is getting antsy, you are invited to go to the choir room. (An usher can help you locate the room.) You will be able to watch the service there. We are asking that you begin in the sanctuary and transition to the choir room only if needed.

There will be no extended teaching care offered at this time.

At this time, the gym floor and multipurpose room are still not open for recreational use. Therefore, there will still be no indoor TBC Fitness classes until further notice.
