

TRINITY BAPTIST CHURCH

TRINITY TIMES

Belong. Become. Be.

As we began 2020, we were focusing our ministry on our revised mission statement. It read:

Joining Hands with God Belong - Become - Be

TBC is a family of baptized believers joining hands with God – belonging, becoming and being – by proclaiming and living the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

We welcome you to ...

BELONG in meaningful connection with the community of faith.

BECOME purposefully engaged with the family of faith: following the way of Jesus through baptism, sharing life together and serving others.

BE a lifelong disciple of Jesus, growing in relationship with God, joining God's mission of love for the world.

As we began the year, we never could have imagined how this statement would be tested. However, as I reflect on the past year, I am amazed at how our congregation has remained faithful to our mission.

You have found ways to "belong" to one another. You have been intentional in encouraging our ministers, leaders and each other. You have made the extra phone calls, sent the extra texts and emails. You have done a great job in encouraging each other to stay connected. You have demonstrated numerous times your commitment to our church and our future together.

You have become intentionally and purposely engaged. You have stayed connected in worship, whether online or on campus. You have attended Sunday School virtually with incredible regularity. You have remained faithful in your mission support and giving. In particular, I want to say thank you for your continued financial giving to our church. Although the final giving totals are not yet recorded, I have been told that our giving will be close to our projected budget and may exceed it. That is remarkable. This along with our staff and our committees' stewardship will mean that we begin 2021 in strong financial state. That is an incredible testimony to your engagement and faith in our church's future and ministry.

You have continued to "be" the presence of Jesus in our community. I constantly hear of your involvement not only in our ministry efforts, but also in the way you connect with others through giving of your time, energy and encouragement.

As we move into 2021, we do so with faith in what our medical researchers and experts are doing to help us overcome the pandemic and return to some normalcy. Yet, our real faith is in the God who declares in Jesus, "this is the year of the Lord." The beginning of 2021 will continue to challenge us in many ways, but we know that God is faithful. We have faith in our God how is acting and working. We have faith that must be accompanied by works of compassion, encouragement, and love that produces a hope for all people. I encourage you to continue to be faithful as we move into 2021.

I want to offer a special thanks to all of our musicians who have faithfully served at Christmas this past year. Though it has been a very unusual year musically, we have survived the pandemic with amazing worship opportunities where many people sacrificed their time and talent in producing pre-recorded videos to make our online worship offerings possible. Also, many of our faithful musicians were brave and came to continue musical offerings for in-person worship once we returned to campus. We are grateful for your talents and commitment to advancing the cause of Christ no matter the situation. It has been quite a journey this past year and I look forward to seeing what great things God has in store for us in 2021.

Special thanks to our sound and video teams for working so faithfully to “produce” worship each week. These ministries are tremendously vital to our music ministry, our worship ministry, and our outreach ministry. Also, we are eternally grateful for the work of Mark Owens for his professional work on the videos for online worship. Mark has been a huge blessing to Trinity throughout this past year using his skills in technology and video to make our streamed services beautiful and a community offering.

We will be back again! We have that hope in Jesus Christ, the one who is our hope! As we look forward to the new year of 2021, let’s continue to pray for the total eradication of the virus and successful vaccination so that we can return to worship once again soon!

Happy new year to all!

Steve

Always Room for You!

Find your place in the music ministry in 2021! We will be back together sometime in the near future!

If you have singing or instrumental abilities, we need you. We are always looking for more musicians to add to our worship leading ministries at Trinity. Consider getting involved in music ministry and being a part of an exciting place of ministry!

And this is my prayer: that your love may abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight, so that you may be able to discern what is best and may be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ—to the glory and praise of God. — Philippians 1:9-11

I am warmed this season as I reflect on the past year and all the adjustments and additional efforts you/we have taken on --such as-- how we do ministry with each other. You are essential to the life and work at Trinity. As I reflect, I am encouraged by the Sunday School teachers who have learned zoom or virtual media, adjusted teaching time, and made efforts to drive to church or drive to their fellow members' homes to deliver curriculum and treats. I am inspired by the members who ask and seek out how to best minister to each other and other fellow humans on this journey of life. You have embraced other ethnic groups, fed the refugee and the homeless, supported our missions and ministries through donations and time. You also find ways to join in the studies we offer online and share your concerns within our community and world.

While some of us want to hurry and get things back to the way it was....I am optimistic that as we grow and learn we will remember that even the wise men were warned in a dream: "to return another way." We may not be able to return to the way we came. God may have better plans for us. I hope you are open to God's plans and I hope I am worthy to learn.

Today, I am grateful for a church that is open to the future and what this may look like. Our SS council is working as a team to design a system to promote and share all the ways you have adjusted -especially in regard to Sunday School. So....for the next two weeks I want to hear from you. If you are a SS teacher or key SS worker or interested SS member, please email me and list techniques, approaches or tactics your SS class is using to stay connected or to teach and share God's word to your fellow members. This can be as simple as a numerical listing or a paragraph discussion. I will contact you and chat if I do not understand and want more info. I hope to use this information to provide helps and training as we continue to meet needs.

Please email me at kmetcalf@tbcraleigh.com and let's prepare for the future!

The Day is here and we made it to Bethlehem! | The time has come for kneeling and we've seen the Child! | There is singing in the stable and we want desperately to hold on to it... | Hold on to the Star! and the angels! and the spirit of love! | How do we hold on to the Christmas spirit? | Why can't every day be Christmas? | The world mutters "Be realistic," and sometimes we church people mutter too. | On our way back from Bethlehem sometimes we forget what we've been warned about in a dream: to return another way. | Once we've seen the Child, we're left holding hearts | wherein angels dance and stars sing! | Once we've been to Bethlehem, every day is Christmas!

FAMILY PRACTICES AND IDEAS

for beginning the New Year:

FAMILY LETTER:

Write a brief family letter that recaps some of the major events that happened in your lives in the past year. Include something that each one of your family hopes for the year to come.

For younger children to encourage them to think of something they would like to learn and a way they would like to help others in the coming year.

For older children, have them think of a place they would like to go, something they would like to learn, and a way they hope to help others in the coming year. We will also take some time to read the letters from previous years.

CHRISTMAS CARDS:

As Christmas is over and the New Year is beginning, you may be taking down your Christmas decorations. Maybe, like me, you have beautiful Christmas cards sent to you from friends and family. What do you do with those cards? Here is an idea for you and your family that involves using those Christmas Cards to encourage your family to pray.

This year, take all of your Christmas cards and place them in a shoe box or basket. Call a family meeting and talk about the beautiful cards your family received this year. Explain that you are going to do something new this year with all of the pretty cards. They are now weekly prayer cards. Each night, gather together in someone's bedroom or over dinner and have one child pick a Christmas card out of the prayer box or basket. Whoever sent you that card, becomes the prayer family of the week. Place that Christmas card somewhere in the house where everyone can be reminded to pray for that family. As you pray each night as a family, include that particular family in your prayers. The next week, pick a new card out of your shoe box and continue this process each week until all of the Christmas cards are gone. Let your kids decorate the prayer shoe box or write a letter to the family you are praying for. They can thank the family for the Christmas card and tell them they are praying for them this week.

NEW YEARS AROUND THE WORLD:

How people around the world celebrate New Years...

Spain: Those in Spain kick off their New Year with exactly 12 grapes. For the first 12 seconds of the New Year, each grape is quickly eaten to symbolize 12 prosperous months filled with good luck ahead.

Armenia: They make a bread called the gata. It is a sweet baked bread with a coin hidden in the dough. Whoever gets a slice with the coin is said to be the luckiest person in the upcoming year.

Phillipines: They go crazy for circles! In anticipation of the New Year, people dress in polka-dots or other circular patterns; the roundness is thought to bring prosperity.

Scotland: People celebrate Hogmanay (the word for the last day of the year) with the practice of first-footing. The custom involves being the first person to cross the threshold of a friend or neighbor's house and giving a symbolic gift.

We loved having our families participate in our own nativity.

*Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord.
Luke 2:11*

TBC UPWARD 2021 SEASON CANCELLED

Unfortunately, we have made the difficult decision to cancel the 2021 Upward Basketball Season at Trinity Baptist Church. Our Upward Lead Team worked extremely hard throughout the Summer and Fall to create a modified format for the league and an opportunity for our families to participate in the Upward ministry this season. However, due to the rising cases of COVID-19 this close to the proposed season start date and the inability to offer a safe environment and quality program for players, parents, and volunteers we felt that this was in the best interest for our community.

We know this is a disappointment for many of you and we share in your disappointment as well. We will deeply miss the joy and the spiritual growth that takes place each season. We will continue to keep all of our Upward Families in our prayers and look forward to the future of this ministry!
