

TRINITY BAPTIST CHURCH

TRINITY TIMES

Belong. Become. Be.

I often tell my wife Robin, there are not many people who get thank you cards for doing their job. I am one of those fortunate people. This past month so many of you have sent a thank you card and a word of appreciation as "Pastor Appreciation Month." I am humbled by your thoughts and actions. I count it a great joy to be your pastor and to share life with you for these many years. I have the privilege of rejoicing with young parents as they welcome children into their lives, carrying these same children around the sanctuary during Parent/Child Dedication, giving these same children a Bible as they enter elementary school and when they graduate from high school. I have baptized many of them as well as being a part of their wedding ceremony as they begin their own family. I am invited to be a part of the most joyous moments of life and the most difficult moments of life. All of this is not only a privilege but are sacred moments where we find God with us. I do not enter these moments with you lightly but with fear and trembling. These moments are surely "holy moments" and you are my family of faith. Thank you for allowing me to walk this road with you.

On some sadder news, I regret to inform our congregation that Reenie Shore has resigned as our Pastoral Administrative Assistant to accept a new position. Reenie has been a valuable part of our ministry team. She has ministered to so many of you and our community through her daily conversations and interactions with members and guests to our campus. Her extraordinary administrative skills will be missed by us all. I am grateful for all she has done for me and for our church during her time with us. We will miss her and we pray that she will find joy and fulfillment in her new position. Reenie's last day will be November 16. I hope you will take a moment to show her your appreciation and keep her in your prayers during this transition.

I am reminded of the Apostle Paul's words of admonition, "Give thanks in all circumstances for that is God's will for you in Christ Jesus." I enter this month of "thanksgiving" giving thanks for our congregation and all who serve here.

As we enter into a season of Thanksgiving, we want to remind everyone of the upcoming Community Thanksgiving Service we participate in with churches in the area annually. This year, the service will take place on November 23rd at 7pm at Hudson Memorial Presbyterian Church. We hope you will join us for this time of worship, thanksgiving, and community development.

Will a private security team (made up of former military personnel Asher, Gavin, and Travis) and FBI Special Agent Caden Denning solve the mystery before it is too late?

Other new books currently on display are End Game by Rachel Dylan, The Homeward Trilogy (Breathe, Sing, and Claim) by Lisa Tawn Bergren, The Magical Bookshop Mystery series (Crime and Poetry, Prose and Cons, and Murders and Metaphors) by Amanda Flower, The Walk by Adam Hamilton, and Simon Peter by Adam Hamilton.

Primetimers Choir is now meeting each Tuesday morning in Room B231 at 10 am. You are welcome to come and enjoy good fellowship and singing together with your friends! Sylvia Pearce is the director of the choir.

Preschool and Children's Choirs have resumed on Wednesday nights, but it's not too late to come in on the musical fun! From 6:30 to 7:00 pm, Preschoolers meet on the first floor of the Children's Building and Grades 1-5 meet on the second floor. Masks are required for our children while on campus. We realize that many families have not yet rejoined the church experience, and it may take time for us to be in a normal setting as we remember it. Our last time together for this season will be November 17.

We will hold off another year on our Hanging of the Greens service. On the first Sunday of Advent, we typically celebrate a kick-off to Christmas with this beautiful choir-led service. However, due to Covid-19 and low numbers in choirs, we have decided to not have it this year. It is always one of my favorite times to hear the graded choirs sing, and I will miss it again this year. Let's pray that one day soon we will see this pandemic far behind us and less disruptive to the things we love.

Special thanks to everyone who has reached out with kind notes in Clergy Appreciation Month. Your kind words and encouraging thoughts were inspiring and uplifting as we continue on in ministry together through these very different times. It is easy to love and serve a church like Trinity where love abounds and relationships are strengthened because of the Lord's work in your hearts. Thank you for being church to me and to my family.

Until we meet again!

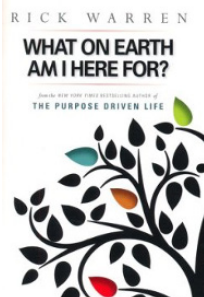

Steve

CRISIS IN AFGHANISTAN

Welcome House Raleigh and What You Can Do

The crisis in Afghanistan touches more than our hearts as we see images of brothers and sisters desperate to flee for their safety; it touches our lives here at home, as well. Many of our brothers and sisters, children, friends, cousins, and spouses have served over the past 20 years in Afghanistan alongside Afghans who are trying to build a better life for themselves, their families, and their communities. Through our partnership with Welcome House Raleigh, we have already begun welcoming Special Immigrant Visa holders. These are folks who have risked everything to serve with our US Military.

Here is where the plea comes in: Marc and Kim Wyatt, our CBF Field Personnel, have asked that we spread amongst our circles that when these brave folks arrive, they will have nothing because they are trying to get them out quickly, and they will be in need of temporary housing. Our area will be welcoming a good number of SIVs, and Welcome House Raleigh will be full. We are in search of empty rental houses, parsonages, and apartments for these families to land temporarily.

As life begins here in the US for these brothers and sisters, they will need our prayers, love, encouragement, and supportive friendship. If you are interested in providing space, donating, or giving your time, please contact Joy Blashaw at joyhodge@live.com for more information.

Children's Ministry Update

Dear Parents of Children and Preschoolers,

As we pray and await Katie's recovery, we are also praying for you and your children. I recently met with our Children's Ministry Committee and we are blessed with incredible leaders who are devoted to our Lord and to our congregation. They continue to faithfully serve on Sunday morning and are readying for our restart of Wednesday nights on October 20, 2021. During Katie's recovery, I have asked Rev. Karen Eickhoff, our Education Minister, to work with our Children and Preschool Sunday School leadership and ETC. I have asked Rev. Lydia Tatum, as our Missions Minister, to work with our Wednesday night Children's Mission leadership. Both Karen, Lydia and I, as well as our whole staff, are here to serve you and help our volunteers. As your pastor, I am praying for Katie, our staff and for all our children and their families. As a church family we will continue to provide the ministry to one another that is so important to forming our Children's faith. Thank you for all you do to help our church be a family of faith that cherishes children.

God Bless,

Dr. Jeff Roberts
