I once heard a pastor say, “God did not put us in a revolving door to end up in the same place every day but instead has created us as travelers who are called to come and follow Jesus. Every day we are to be making progress toward Christ likeness. Growing up in my Baptist church I never really knew about the Season of Lent. Lent was something that more liturgical congregations practiced, and its meaning was foreign to me. It was in my second pastorate that I discovered the rich meaning of this season of preparation. I have often said, “We observe Advent and are ready to celebrate when Christmas arrives but too many times we just stumble upon Easter.” However, we know that Easter is the pivotal moment not only of our faith but for our world. The season of Lent can help us prepare to fully celebrate the resurrection when Easter arrives.

On the front cover of our newsletter, you will see all the many ways you can prepare through Lent. We will begin the season with an Ash Wednesday experience. Our plan is to begin with a devotion and then move through the buildings to stations where we can have experiential moments to reflect and prepare our minds for the season. Our discipleship team has chosen the theme “Journey Toward Jerusalem.” There will be devotional books and online helps to allow you to spend time with God during this Lenten Season. We are also planning our yearly Maundy Thursday Service as we remember the dark night of Gethsemane and the experience of the cross on Good Friday.

These experiences will lead us to the celebration of Easter as we remember that God raised Jesus from the dead and has given us life eternal and abundant. I encourage you to make use of the opportunities we have this season to study and reflect as we make our journey toward Christ likeness.

These next few weeks also give us an opportunity to serve our larger Baptist family. In 2020 we are scheduled to host both the North Carolina Baptist on Mission’s disaster relief training and the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship of North Carolina’s annual gathering. Both had to be cancelled at the last moment as the pandemic began. Now in 2022 we are ready to host again. We will welcome the Disaster Relief Training to our campus on March 4 and 5. There are many ways you can serve and provide hospitality during this weekend. If you are interested in serving in disaster relief then you can also register for the event. baptistsonmission.org/bom/disaster-relief/2022-dr-training-region-4/5402

In addition, we welcome the CBFNC community to our campus on March 17-18. You are invited to serve as greeters and hosts as well as to attend the many breakout sessions and worship moments on Thursday evening and Friday. To volunteer to serve contact Rev. Tatum. To register for CBFNC go to their website link cbfnc.org/annualgathering.

UPCOMING DISCIPLESHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Wednesday Evenings @ 6:30PM in FH

God's People and the State

Christian Nationalism is easily becoming one of the greatest threats to Christianity in America. It differs from Patriotism and is easily disguised in our conversations and loyalties. Because Nationalism has existed throughout history, even in Biblical times, we decided to discuss how God's people related to whichever nation they found themselves within.

TBC LIBRARY NEWS

SUNSET BEACH SERIES

Centered on a real landmark on the coast of North Carolina, The Mailbox by Marybeth Whalen, blends intriguing folklore and true faith with contemporary issues that affect us all.

When Lindsey Adams first visits the Kindred Spirit mailbox at Sunset Beach, she has no idea that twenty years later she will still be visiting the mailbox—still pouring out her heart in letters that summarize the best and worst parts of her life. The Mailbox is a rich novel about loss, hope, and the beauty of second chances.

Other books in this series include The Guest Book, The Wishing Tree, and The Bridge Tender.

In order to access eBooks, you must have a TBC Library Card and request to be on the eBooks approved list. It's so good to hear music in the hallways and throughout the church again. A very special thanks to all of our groups for resuming and continuing to provide music for worship. God has blessed us through the pandemic and we look forward to the day when we can hear from all of our groups once again.

Our Preschool and Children's Choirs have begun meeting on Wednesday nights from 6:30- 7:30 pm. All of the choirs are learning music and preparing for Children's Day, March 27. Thank you parents and students for coming on Wednesdays! We are grateful to our leaders for continuing children's music at Trinity.

The vocal ensembles, Living Praise and New Covenant, have also begun their rehearsals this season. Contact Jessica Isaacs or Joy Blashaw if you are interested in participating. Jessica leads New Covenant and Joy leads Living Praise. These ensembles meet from 6:30 to 7:20 pm.

PrimeTimers Choir meets on Tuesdays from 10:00-11:00 am. Sylvia Pearce directs this choir for senior adults, and you are welcome to come join your Trinity friends for music and fellowship.

We could always use more people to join our slide team on Sunday mornings. The slide projection helps us in worship and for our streaming of the worship service. It is not a difficult technology to work with, and with a little bit of training you will be up and running. Give me a call if you are interested in joining the team. It would be most helpful to build a larger team that can rotate out our staff members who are filling in the gaps.

Until we meet again!
Steve

ALWAYS A PLACE FOR YOU! Find your place in the music ministry! If you have singing or instrumental abilities, we need you. We are always looking for more musicians to add to our worship leading ministries at Trinity. Consider getting involved in music ministry and being a part of an exciting place of ministry!

---

Through Jesus, therefore, let us continually offer to God a sacrifice of praise--the fruit of lips that openly profess his name.

JOURNEY TOWARD JERUSALEM

THE SEASON OF LENT

The season of Lent will begin in March. This season provides us a time to reflect and move from our journey in Bethlehem into the rush of Jerusalem. We leave behind the trappings of Advent and the Christ Child and move into an awareness of Jesus, the man, his ministry, and suffering.

Part of a poem by Ann Weems affirms it well.

*The Journey to Bethlehem was much more to my liking.
I am content kneeling here, where there's an aura of angels and the ever-present procession of shepherds and of kings who've come to kneel to the Newborn in whom we are newborn.*

*I want to linger in Bethlehem In joy and celebration,
Knowing once I set my feet toward Jerusalem, The Child will grow,
And I will be asked to follow. This time around, there is no star.....*

*The Shepherds have left; They've returned to the hillside and to sheep.
The Magi, too, have gone, having been warned in a dream, as was Joseph, who packed up his family and fled.*

*If I stay in Bethlehem, I stay alone.
God has gone on toward Jerusalem.*

As the season approaches, we must begin the journey toward Jerusalem. We must examine, reflect, and renew our path toward the cross. We are using the theme "Journey to Jerusalem" to illustrate and express our walk through these days toward Holy Week.

On March 2 we will observe Ash Wednesday. Throughout the 40 days there will be opportunities for prayer with devotionals and resources provided by the Discipleship Team. You will find Daily prayer cards, a devotional book, an app to connect for an online option, a reflective weaving project, and Labyrinth experiences with a prayer walk. Dr. Roberts will continue with the "I AM" sermon series. Stay tuned!

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Do you ever stop and simply watch the birds? Or, close your eyes and use your other senses to pay attention to God? Maybe feel the wind gently sweep across your face or face the sun to feel its warmth and sense its light through your eyelids? I like to listen for the breeze moving through the leaves and for the birds singing merrily and the squirrels chittering busily as they go about their daily routines. Oftentimes I spend my gray winter days hunkered down and wishing for those first leaves and crocus flowers to break through the earth, and I forget that the activity of life and the praise of creation never stops even on the darkest of days. So, in this last month of winter, be encouraged to slow down, to listen, to feel God's presence as He cares for you and all of creation, and give thanks.
