Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you believe so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

ROMANS 15:13 CSB

One of the great joys of being a Baptist is the joy of cooperation. Sometimes I am asked “who does Trinity align with?” My answer to such a question is “alignment is not a good Baptist word, but cooperation is.” Cooperation means we believe there is a great commission (go into all the world and make disciples) and a great commandment (love God and love others) that are our deepest convictions. This means that we as Baptist can choose to cooperate with one another in the work of the Kingdom of God. As autonomous local congregations we have the right and privilege to cooperate with whom we choose regarding ministry beyond our own local church’s ministry.

At Trinity we do that in many ways. We cooperate with our Baptist brothers and sister through the Raleigh Baptist Association, the State Convention of North Carolina, Cooperative Baptist Fellowship of North Carolina, the Global Cooperative Baptist Fellowship and with the Southern Baptist Convention. In some ways we cooperate with each of these mission partners in ministry. However, in addition we support North Raleigh Ministries, which is comprised of various congregations of different denominations in our congregation. The same is true with other ministry support of Raleigh Rescue Mission, Family Promise and Habitat for Humanity just to name a few.

It is a joy to cooperate in ministry with so many others and to help make a difference in the lives of people.

This month you have the opportunity to cooperate through serving and giving.

On Saturday September 17 we will be a part of "Baptist Day of Service." This is an opportunity to join other Raleigh Baptist Churches on a day of service. We are one of five host churches across Wake County. This is a morning commitment and is a great way to be involved in ministry. To find out more go to baptistdayofservice.org. Sign up and be a part of this special day.

In addition, this month we are taking our annual State Missions Offering. This offering is the way we help fund ministries like:

Baptist on Mission( Baptist Disaster Relief and Medical Dental Bus), Baptist Children's Home, Baptist Retirement Homes, Baptist Campus Ministry through CBFNC, Church Planting, Refugee Ministry (Welcome House), Support for Ministerial Students, Shaw Missions Fund (Trinity's Fund that sends Trinity Members on Mission)

To give to this important mission offering use the blue offering envelopes in the pews or give online at tbcraleigh.com
