TRINITY TIMES

Belong. Become. Be.

"Be joyful always; pray continually; give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus." 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

November is a time when we as Americans turn our attention to the Thanksgiving holiday. We are commanded throughout the Bible to give thanks to God. The Apostle Paul reminds us that giving thanks in all circumstances is God's will for us in Christ Jesus. It is not that all circumstances are good, but Jesus is with us in all circumstances and Jesus is good and at work. So, we give thanks. I recently read an article that mentioned 10 reasons for giving thanks. Let me share those with you.

1. Gratitude glorifies God. This alone would be reason to give thanks to God. Our gratitude glorifies God as we exalt not the gifts, but the Giver. Gratitude helps us realize all we have comes not because of us, but from God.

2. Gratitude helps us see God. Gratitude opens our spiritual eyes. There's a beautiful cycle in giving God thanks: the more we thank Him, the more we see Him working in us and around us.

Do not be deceived, my beloved brothers. Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights. James 1:16-17

3. Gratitude puts us squarely in God's will. We often make God's will out to be some big, mystical plan when sometimes, it's simply obedience. And part of His will for us is to be thankful, not just on the sunny days but on the hard ones as well.

4. Gratitude brings peace. Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Philippians 4:6-7

5. Gratitude draws us to God. Gratitude for the magnitude of God's undeserved kindness draws us to God.

6. Gratitude brings contentment. It's said that gratitude makes what we have enough. If we aren't grateful for what God has given us, getting more won't satisfy us either. Being thankful is the key to contentment.

7. Gratitude deepens faith. Gratitude reminds us that God is active and working. Thus, we learn to trust God more with each passing day.

8. Gratitude guards against envy. Envy makes us want what someone else has. Gratitude makes us realize God has given us far more than we deserve. Because there's enough for everyone, we can cheer rather than compare. A heart wholly grateful has no room left for envy.

9. Gratitude helps us live in the present. Gratitude opens our eyes to the simple beauty of ordinary days. It lets us see this day and this moment as gifts and to take in the abundance right now.

10. Gratitude is a testimony. When we thank God openly and acknowledge what He's done for us, we proclaim a personal, caring God to the world around us. We show that contentment and peace come not from what we have but Who we know.

Give thanks to the LORD and proclaim his greatness. Let the whole world know what he has done. Psalm 105:1

WEEKDAY PRESCHOOL HONOR

Our preschool has been named Raleigh's Best 2022 GOLD Winner for the Best Preschool! We finished ahead of The Goddard School (Silver) and Chesterbrook Academy (Bronze).

Congratulations to Bentley Williams and all the staff for this amazing honor!

Bentley writes, "I love that this was voted on by the people of Raleigh! This is such a testament to our amazing staff that love and nurture these children every single day! And although I don't need this "award" to know that we are a special place, it does feel good to be recognized!"

Take a moment to encourage and congratulate our school on this GOLD award! We have an amazing school and the Christian nurturing is what continues to make us shine!

Give Thanks November 16th

A wonderful Thanksgiving meal with all the fixings.

Volunteer Opportunity | Team Support for DivorceCare

We are praying about a team of individuals that have a heart for those hurting or struggling with life issues. Some of these include separation/divorce or grief. We would like to build our support and our discipleship leaders for these areas. Please contact Rev. Karen Eickhoff if you consider this a gift you have or willing to cultivate to use in ministry.

TBC LIBRARY NEWS

SECRETS OF THE SOUTH MYSTERIES SERIES

Midnight on the Mississippi begins the Secrets of the South Mysteries from author Mary Ellis. These complex crime dramas follow an investigator's quest to make the world a better place...solving one case at a time.

New Orleans' Hunter Galen, a stock and securities broker, suspects his business partner, James Nowak, may be involved in embezzling their clients' money, but he's reluctant to jeopardize their friendship based on suspicion alone. After James turns up dead, Hunter realizes his unwillingness to confront a problem may have cost James his life. Nicki Price, a newly minted PI, intends to solve the stockbroker's murder, recover the missing millions from the client accounts, and establish herself in the career she adores. As they encounter sophisticated shell games, blackmail, and murder, Nicki and Hunter's only option is to turn to God as they search for answers, elude lethal danger, and perhaps discover love along the way.

All four books in the series, Midnight on the Mississippi, What Happened on Beale Steet, Magnolia Moonlight, and Sunset in Old Savannah, are available on the shelf in the TBC Library and are also available as eBooks in the TBC Digital Library.

In order to access eBooks, you must have a TBC Library Card and request to be on the eBooks approved list. In order to use eBooks you will have to add the Libby by OverDrive app to your smartphone, tablet, laptop, desktop, or Kindle. If you need a TBC Library card or you need to be added to the eBooks list, you may call or email Ron Brown at 919-782-3957 or rbrown0207@gmail.com for assistance.

As baptists, we believe in cooperative missions and supporting career missionaries who have a long term presence in communities all over the world. Through the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship, our missionaries find support from fellow missionaries located in each corner of the world by gathering annually.

This year, we have the opportunity to support them as they gather by providing a Vacation Bible School for their own children! These missionary kids will know the love and support of a big, big Kingdom family as we sing, play, worship, study, and create together this week.

*For more information on how to connect and serve,
